O'Dwyer Quits Diplomat Post

By JACK RUTLEDGE

WASHINGTON (AP)—Former Mayor William O'Dwyer of New York City, a target of congressional criticism during his 28-month career as a diplomat, is resigning as American ambassador to Mexico, effective Dec. 6.

Although O'Dwyer's appointment was blasted by some congressmen—a few even demanded his recall—the resignation was a routine change-of-administration move.

The White House announced yesterday that President Truman accepted the Irish-born New Yorker's resignation "with reluctance" and praised him for "a job indeed well done."

O'Dwyer became a controversial figure when a police graft scandal broke around his administration shortly after he quit his 340,000-a-year mayor's job to take the $15,000-a-year assignment as envoy to Mexico in August, 1950.

Despite criticism at home, he became one of the most popular ambassadors the United States ever sent to Mexico.

He gave no hint of his future plans in his letter to Truman, and last night in Mexico City he said he would not be able to disclose them until possibly late in December. First, he said, he would take a Mexican vacation with his wife.

When reporters asked about a rumor that he and retiring President Miguel Aleman of Mexico might join in some commercial enterprise, he said he had "never heard of it."

Reports last summer that the ambassador planned to become a Mexican citizen and practice law in that country were angrily denied by the New Yorker.

O'Dwyer became headline fodder when the Senate Crime Investigating Committee, headed by Sen. Estes Kefauver (D-Tenn), accused him of contributing to the growth of organized crime in New York.

Referring to his regime both as district attorney in Brooklyn and two-term mayor of New York, the Kefauver committee said in its report:

Movie Star In Lawsuit

LOS ANGELES (AP)—Movie actor Sterling Hayden has been sued for separate maintenance by Mrs. Betty de Noon Hayden, 30, who charged cruelty and asked custody of their four young children.

She said Hayden earned more than $100,000 in the last year but because the professional life of an artist often is of short duration she demanded that Hayden, 36, establish trust funds to insure support of the children. She asked that community property be divided and she be allowed reasonable support for herself.

The couple was married in 1947. Hayden formerly was married to actress Madeleine Carroll.

Change Taken You Can't Beat Fate By Liz Taylor

LOS ANGELES (AP)—The movie's Elizabeth Taylor has just got around to picking up a mere $47,100 about which she was too busy to think in the last two years.

The $47,100 was in government bonds bought with earnings during her film career for 10 years. She invested in the bonds by court order while she was a juvenile. She was legally entitled to take control of them when she was married first to Conrad (Nicky) Hilton Jr. in 1950.

Now 30 and the wife of English actor Michael Wilding, she went with him yesterday to the county clerk's office and signed the necessary papers.

VANCOUVER, B. C. (AP)—George Churton had to stop his car yesterday because of a minor accident up ahead.

While waiting, he switched on his car radio and caught the stolen-car numbers broadcast every half hour by radio station CKNW in New Westminster.

The announcer said one of the cars was believed stolen by convicts who escaped from Oakalla Prison Farm during a heavy fog. Churton glanced at the car stopped ahead of him. Same license number as the one reeled off by the announcer.

So he climbed out of his car, walked past the other vehicle and held a hushed conversation with officers investigating the accident.

With no fuss at all, they walked back and captured Oakalla escapee Carl L. Stromsen, 19, and Harold Henry, 18.

look any effective action against the top echelons of the gambling, narcotics, waterfront, murder, or bookmaking rackets. In fact, his actions impeded promising investigations of such rackets."

O'Dwyer, testifying at the committee's widely televised hearings, staunchly defended his record, denied all charges.

New York Republicans accused O'Dwyer of running out on his office of mayor after a Brooklyn grand jury turned up evidence of a 20 million dollar a year gambling ring that paid a million dollars annually to police for protection.

O'Dwyer first called the grand jury probe a "witch hunt," later apologized when it produced evidence to prove its charges.
