between the stands, settled to the ground and out stepped the bewhiskered old gent who is expected to rush up and down chimneys on the "Night Before Christmas."

Santa waved to the crowd, made a short speech and started walking toward the grandstand.

He was immediately surrounded by hundreds of eager children, then after a few pats on heads and plenty of promises he was whisked away in the personal red automobile of Fire Chief Roy Rowe to help read the huge batch of letters.

Each child received a candy cane through the courtesy of the Klamath Falls 20-30 Club.

Jimmy Lear, Klamath Merchants Association Festival Committee chairman, today expressed appreciation to all those who helped in making the Christmas party a success.

Included in addition to those who took part in the pageant, the musical numbers, to Mrs. Florence Pielke of Riverside School who wrote the continuity, to members of the Klamath Arts Council who assisted with the stage and costumes, the sound apparatus, mentioned in previous news stories, Lear expressed thanks to Weyerhaeuser for the trees, to Copco for lights and labor and to employes of Sears Roebuck for hours of work on the 90-foot stage.

In The Day's News

boys had GROWN INTO those English homes and had become a part of them.

Our Wally Myers just came into my office a minute ago with a touching little story. A few days ago, we printed an appeal from an American GI in Korea. He asked for clothes for the tragic, freezing, homeless children of Korea (Korea, you know, is one of the tragic spots of earth, fought over, back and forth, by alien armies that have destroyed nearly everything there was there. The Korean children are the pitiful little sufferers.) This GI wanted to help them.

Wally said:

"You know this Klamath Basin is quite a country. As near as I can tell our people are going to send a FREIGHT CAR LOAD of clothes to Korea in response to that one appeal from one of our own GIs who is over there and trying to help."

That's America. It isn't the crass, brutal, dollar-chasing America that the Russian communists picture to the world from day to day in their poisonous propaganda. It isn't the America of formal United Nations. It isn't the official America that is sending official foreign aid—which so often makes the foreigners feel like paupers who are being handed alms.

It's the REAL America. The warm-hearted, GENUINE America. The America that is represented by American GIs everywhere—the GIs who GO INTO THE HOMES and become a part of the lives of the people among whom they live and fight and so often die.

As they did in England. As they have done everywhere.

Our diplomacy has been cold and formal, at its best. At its worst, has been awful. But, almost without exception, our GIs have been WONDERFUL. Wherever they have gone throughout the world, they have made friends.

If we can only pattern our formal diplomacy after the informal kindly, natural, "being themselves" diplomacy that is practiced by our GIs in alien lands, running the world will be a cinch.

If that can be done, our diplomacy (which means our relations with other countries and other peoples) CAN'T HELP SUCCEEDING in a big way.

Man Jailed On Morals Charge

A prison sentence of three years was imposed yesterday on Carl Jewell Petersen, 25, of Bly, on a charge of incest.

He and two other prisoners were taken to Salem yesterday afternoon by Deputy Sheriff Dal Reed.

The others taken to the state penitentiary were Curvin Albert Wire, 48, sentenced to 18 months for entering an auto with intent to steal therein, and Emmett Elden Dutton, 43, sentenced to five years for larceny in a store.

Petersen had pleaded guilty over a month ago to the charge that he had an incestuous relationship with his 16-year-old sister at their Bly home.

Arraignment Due In Income Case

The arraignment of Dr. Miller E. Cooper of Klamath Falls in U. S. District Court, Portland, is set for 10 a.m. Tuesday, with trial immediately following.

Dr. Cooper is under federal indictment on a charge of income tax invasion.

His attorney is L. Orth Sisemore, and at least four persons are under subpoena here to go to Portland to appear as witnesses for the Klamath Falls dentist.

Thomas on Jan. 9, 1952, and on Jan. 28, the federal grand jury returned an indictment charging him with falsifying returns for 1945, 1946 and 1947 and hiding a net income during those years of $15,963.
