

Elisabeth Ellen Pinniger Beautiful November Bride

AFTER THE CEREMONY . . . in First Presbyterian Church Nov. 15, shown above (l to r) are Mr. and Mrs. James W. Pinniger, parents of the bride; the Reverend David F. Barnett Jr., officiating minister; the bride and bridegroom; and Mr. and Mrs. Victor W. Thomsen, parents of the bridegroom.

DRESSED FOR TRAVEL . . . the just-weds leave for their wedding trip.

WITH HER FATHER . . . who gave her in marriage; just before he escorted her to the altar.

LOVELY IN LACE AND SATIN . . . Mrs. Robert Thomsen, who was Elisabeth Ellen [Betty] Pinniger before her wedding in First Presbyterian Church, 8 p.m., Nov. 15.

Wedding pictures by Miller-Brumbaugh

BRIDE AND HER ATTENDANTS . . . a colorful and pretty picture in shades of forest green, chartreuse and gold. From left to right, the bride, Patricia Pinniger, maid of honor, cousin of the bride, from Grants Pass; bridesmaids, Mrs. Jack Metler, Jackie Robatceki; Marilyn Johnson; Ida Teneffoss and Mary Garrecht, Palo Alto, roommate of Betty's at OSC; and Cleo Cadwell.

AT THE RECEPTION . . . in the church parlors, a buffet supper was served. The new Mr. and Mrs. Thomsen shown cutting the wedding cake.

Society

by MILLY RAMSBY

FIRST TRIP FOR THE TWINS . . . to their parents' native land, from South America, where they were born in Rio de Janeiro. Their exotically smart looking mother is the former Beverly Reed, popular member of the local younger set. Her husband, Alvin W. Little, is factory manager for a pharmaceutical company in Lima, Peru, where they will return Jan. 2, for another three year stay. They will spend the holiday season with Mrs. Little's family. —Photo by Kettler

Visitors From Peru

JUDGE AND MRS. DAVID R. VANDENBERG . . . 237 Washington Street, announce the engagement of their daughter, Mary Veronica, to Lt. (jg) Stanley Joseph Neitling, son of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Neitling, Hillsboro. The attractive and popular bride-elect is a member of a well known Oregon family; her father is serving his 12th year as judge of the Circuit Court. Lt. Neitling is in the U.S. Navy aboard the LSM 58. —Photo by Guderian

Engagement