

AT THE RECEPTION in the church parlors, the couple cuts the wedding cake.

Vows Said by Henley Couple In First Presbyterian Rites

In a gown of white satin and lace, Oma Elizabeth Hoffman was escorted to the altar in First Presbyterian Church by her father, Edgar Hoffman. Before a background of white chrysanthemums in tall vases, the Reverend David Barnett Jr. read the 10:30 a.m. service uniting her in marriage to Kenneth Morgan Lowe, son of Mr. and Mrs. Forest Lowe.

The bride's full skirted floor length gown was styled with a round necked yoke of net edged with lace, the long fitted sleeves were pointed at the wrists. Her veil was held with a heart shaped ruffled crown, edged with seed pearls. She carried a bouquet of white roses and stephanotis in a crescent arrangement.

Stanley Kendall, soloist, sang "With This Ring I Thee Wed", accompanied by Mrs. Lorne W. Simons at the organ.

Maid of honor, Betty Brandeisky, wore a pink net frock, and carried a bouquet of pale yellow baby chrysanthemums centered with carnations. Bridesmaids, Doris and Edith Wallin, wore yellow net and carried the same type bouquets as the maid of honor.

Mervin Woodard, cousin of the bridegroom, was best man, and ushers were Daniel and Adam Hoffman, brothers of the bride.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Hoffman chose a lavender dress with black accessories and her corsage was of white carnations.

Mrs. Lowe, bridegroom's mother, wore a blue costume with black accessories and her corsage was the same as Mrs. Hoffman's.

The reception was in the church parlors immediately following the ceremony. Elaine Kendall and Bonnie Cummins poured, Mrs. Virginia Burris cut the cake and Mrs. Stanley Kendall assisted. Guest book was carried by Shirley Woodard, bridegroom's cousin.

For her going away costume the bride wore an orchid suit with winter-white accessories.

After a wedding trip to Yellowstone and Glacier National Parks, the couple is at home on the Jay Fairclough ranch, Merrill Road.

MRS. KENNETH MORGAN LOWE — dainty and diminutive November bride, married in First Presbyterian Church, early in the month. She is the former Oma Elizabeth Hoffman, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Hoffman, Henley District. Her husband is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Forest Lowe, also Henley District.

THOMSEN-PINNIGER VOWS

In a candlelight ceremony at First Presbyterian Church, Nov. 15, Elisabeth Ellen Pinniger, beautiful daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James W. Pinniger, became the bride of Victor Robert Thomsen, son of Mr. and Mrs. Victor W. Thomsen, Hood River. The Reverend David Barnett Jr. officiated at the eight o'clock service.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a dress of heavy ivory satin with Chantilly lace panels down the front and back to the end of train. Her fingertip veil fell from a cap and braid of satin and seed pearls. Her only jewelry was heart-shaped filigreed pendant set with cultured pearls, gift of the bridegroom. She carried a white Bible topped with a white orchid and stephanotis.

Patricia Pinniger, maid of honor and cousin of the bride, wore a shrimp satin and tulle evening gown with tulle stole and carried a cascade of chrysanthemums in autumn colors. The attendants were Ida Tennefoss, Marilyn Johnson, Cleo Cadwell, Mary Garrecht, and Mrs. Jack Metler. They wore similar gowns but of velvet and tulle with velvet stoles in colors of forest green, chateau, and gold respectively. They carried cascades of flowers identical to that of the maid of honor.

Harold Utley was best man and the ushers were James Cole, Jack Metler, and James Pinniger. Patricia Wilson sang "I Love You Truly" and "The Lord's Prayer" by Malotte. Wedding music was played by Mrs. Lorne Simons.

For her son's wedding Mrs. Thomsen wore a dusty rose-lace floor length dress with a purple orchid corsage. The bride's mother wore a champagne dress of tulle and tulle with a corsage of two cymbidium.

Following the ceremony a buffet supper was served in the church parlors. Mrs. L. M. Watkins and Mrs. Harry Wagner presided at the coffee services. Patricia Cunningham and Mrs. Darrell Shippler served the cake. Mary Jane Howard and Linda Franklin served punch. Barbara Dunlavy was in charge of the guest book.

For going away the bride wore a green wool suit with brown accessories. Following their honeymoon they will be at home in Hood River.

Out of town guests included Mr.

J. A. Davidson, Tom Davidson and Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Davidson and sons, James and Edwin, Mr. and Mrs. David Rountree, maternal grandparents and families of the bridegroom, The Dalles; Mr. and Mrs. Percy Laraway, Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Laraway and Janet, Mr. and Mrs. Alan Bickford, Mr. and Mrs. Merrill Utley, Mrs. Donald Cooper, James Cole, Kenneth Ruff, Joan Long and Donna Shestok, Hood River.

KLAMATH QUOTA CLUB

As a service project for the coming year, members of Klamath Quota Club, at a business meeting Monday night at the Pelican cafe, voted to furnish toys to individual children detained at the Juvenile Home. Each child will be given a toy of his own which can be taken with him when he leaves, and the supply will be replenished by the club as needed.

Following the dinner hour, time was allotted for the various committees to meet, followed by reports. At this time, it was recommended by the service committee, headed by Edith Lantz, that Quotarians again assist with the 1953 polo drive as they have been doing in past years.

Plans were made for the club's annual Christmas party slated for the evening of Dec. 8 in the Pelican Party Room, with past presidents in charge of arrangements. A social hour will start at 6:30, followed by dinner at 7:30. Housebands will be invited, and there will be a gift exchange.

Alice Vitus, retiring governor of the 14th district, reported that she attended a tea in Seattle on Sunday, given by the Quotarians of the city in honor of the international president, Dorothy Grim. She also announced that the 1953 convention will be held at Lake Placid, New York.

President Ada Sprout presided, and birthday gifts were won by Helene Webber and Flo Wallace.

At the November luncheon meeting of Quota Club, held Nov. 10 at the Pelican, Paul Campbell, executive secretary of the YMCA, was guest speaker on the program. Mr. Campbell explained the purpose of the Y, outlined some of its many activities, and showed a short motion picture. He was introduced by Mrs. Vitus who was in charge of the program.

MANZANITA CHAPTER 172

Manzanita Chapter 172 OES was honored by a visit of the Order of Rainbow for Girls, at their regular meeting Friday evening, Nov. 21, at the IOOF Hall.

Kyrtle Meyers, Grand Representative from Illinois to Oregon was introduced and escorted to the Key Letroy Simpson, Worthy Patron of Tulelake Chapter 539 was also welcomed and escorted to the East.

Members and guests witnessed a beautiful exemplification of degrees by the Rainbow Girls with Pat Walker as Worthy Advisor and Virginia Brown as Mother Advisor. Ethel Hamilton, Grand Deputy of the Order of Rainbow for Girls, was introduced and escorted to the East.

Refreshments were served later in the dining room artistically decorated in the Thanksgiving motif.

Tables were gay with realistic turkeys created from pine cones, streamers led to centerpieces of miniature farm pens.

Bianche Metler, Nina Hall and Lois Gueck were in charge of the decorations and refreshments.
