Garden Club Meets at Malin

MALIN—Malin Garden Club met at the home of Mrs. E. H. Loveness Wednesday afternoon, Nov. 19, for regular monthly meeting.

The business meeting was conducted by Mrs. Loyal Loveness, in the absence of president and Mrs. Alden Loveness was secretary pro tem. Reports were made by several members, who had attended the sub-district meeting in Klamath Falls and a note of thanks was read by Mrs. Charles Hamilton who made the centerpiece for the luncheon at the Yacht Club.

Mrs. Elva Smalley was introduced after the business meeting and led the group in the discussion of making Christmas decorations. Using huge piles of evergreen boughs, juniper berries, ribbon and candles, she made and displayed lovely wreaths, swags and table arrangements. Cookies and tea were served from an attractively arranged table, covered with a dark green cloth and centered with a large bouquet of yellow and bronze chrysanthemums arranged in a low straw basket. Tall lighted yellow candles were placed at either end. Mrs. Merle Loosley was co-hostess with Mrs. Loveness.

Present were: Mrs. Bernice Stewart, Mrs. Walter Stasny, Mrs. A. V. Evans, Mrs. Rodney Derrick, Mrs. Teresa McComb, Mrs. Carlo Cornett, Mrs. Wayne Fisk, Mrs. Robert Holl, Mrs. Joe Halousek, Mrs. George Smalley, Mrs. Loyal Loveness and Mrs. Alden Loveness. No meeting will be held in December or January.

Zion Lutheran Women's Guild

Zion Lutheran Women's Guild met in regular session the afternoon of Nov. 20. The Reverend Richard Graef led the group in devotions and presented the topic on "Stewardship."

Since the last meeting, nine boxes of clothing were sent to Korea.

Next meeting will be held Dec. 4, at which time the election of new officers will take place.

WEDNESDAY CLUB

Wednesday Club met Nov. 19 in St. Pauls Parish Hall.

Following a dessert luncheon, served on tables prettily decorated with Thanksgiving favors, cards were played. Prizes were awarded to Polly Schroeder and Helen Scott in Bridge and to Hazel Morrison in pinchle.

Hostesses for the evening were Dorothy Lolcama, Helen Goeckner and Delores Reeves.
