The attractive Charles J. Martin residence on North 7th was the setting for a delightful tea given November 22, by Mrs. L. A. Murphy, Worthy Matron of Aloha Chapter, OES. Mrs. Martin graciously offered her home for the event in honor of Friendship Girls, Hostesses, Committee Members, Refreshment Chairmen and those who were pro tem officers throughout the year. Assisting Mrs. Murphy, other than Mrs. Martin, were: Mrs. Glenn Dehlinger, Mrs. Jack Robbins, Mrs. C. O. Powell, Mrs. Harold Pinkerton, Mrs. Richard Kransenburg, Susan Peak and Jacky May Murphy. The hours were from 3 to 5 p.m., Mrs. Alva Oldham, Mrs. Stephen Moss, Mrs. Elmer Bramlett and Mrs. Claris Williams poured. Mrs. Martin arranged a striking centerpiece for the tea table. Round mirrors formed a pyramid, and five colored candles emblematic of the points of the Eastern Star, alternated with small corsage type bouquets in the Star colors. The star motif was further carried out by the use of star shaped candle holders; and maiden hair fern was used for greenery.

REFLECTIONS FROM

Willy's Mirror

JUST BACK — from Portland Thanksgiving evening—Leola Heilbroner reported that Fred is recovering from major surgery in St. Vincent's Hospital in Portland — Operation was Monday — and he'll be there for about 10 days as this is written.

OUT OF TOWN — for Thanksgiving — Ray and Beverly Poppe to Modesto to be with their families for Thanksgiving — and they took Jeanette Hayden to Yuba City — where she will be with Marion and Wilbur Shannon — who recently moved there from KF—oh yeah—the Pope's cocker spaniel Pepper of course "went with."

FESTIVE GATHERING—at the Louie Lyon home in Malin for Thanksgiving annual family dinner included other than Louie and Maradean and children, Lynette, Rodney, Marlene and Louie — the Frank Taylors from Williams, Calif — Bob and Ruby Short and their young ones Bob, Vicki and Casey — The Carl Lyons and Ralph and Diana — The Frank Cascas — and Robert Lyon — Smiling faces missed at the table were the Ernest Shorts (L.S. in Navy), Alameda — the Joe Consons, Vallejo — and the Johnny Pulliams, Bakersfield.

SHE ALMOST — was a Thanksgiving baby — Martha Ann — born on the 22nd — weighing 6 lbs 4 oz — to the M. H. Conlins — 1503 Upham — the H. J. Conlins — proud grandparents — came from McMinnville to welcome the young miss — her other grandparents are the M. P. (Mike) Laveniks — 1221 East Street.

YACHT CLUB — where good little wives get to go on Sundays and not cook dinner is offering a choice of prime rib roast and sweet-and-sour spareribs — call Beulah or Mike at the club for reservations.

THE EPLEYS — Jane — Mac and Alix (now a 7 year old young lady) here to join son Malo — his spouse Dolores — and dtr Lynette — and Dolores family Joe and Millie Steele and grandmother Mrs. R. W. (Lala) Steele — found the weather here just like Long Beach — (or better).

SALVATION ARMY — Major Jack Little was in the other day and said that they were desperately in need of children's toys — so gather 'em up and call SA headquarters — 6961 — BEFORE Christmas!

GILCHRIST GARDEN CLUB

Gilchrist Community Garden Club met Nov. 19, 7:30 p.m. in the School Library.

Table arrangements were the feature of the evening with various types of settings displayed including a shower arrangement; one labeled "After the Opera"; a Christmas arrangement of greens and candles; by Mrs. Ray Darnell, Chemult; a Christmas centerpiece by Mrs. E. J. Snider, Gilchrist, and a "Horn of Plenty" Thanksgiving table complete with place cards by Anne Dolezal, Gilchrist. The hostesses, Mrs. R. D. Cassell and Mrs. Frank R. Gilchrist served refreshments.

SOJOURNERS

Regular meeting of Sojourners in the Willard Hotel was Nov. 26, with Mrs. W. H. Turner and Mrs. E. H. Renner as hostesses. Mrs. J. N. Heffner was welcomed as a member.

All members are asked to bring a 50 cent gift for the gift exchange at the Christmas party, scheduled for Dec. 10.

The following officers were nominated for the next 6 months term: Velma Gilson, president; Leone Robertson, vice president; Ruth O'Connell, secretary; and Leah Maskell, treasurer. Prizes for the afternoon were won by Mrs. C. L. Matusek, Mrs. Winston Purvine and Mrs. O. G. Packer.

SPARE TIME SPENT DIGGING IN LIMA, PERU, INCA RUINS

On a vacation from South America with their twins, 2 1/2 year old Kerry, son, and Shelley, daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Alvie W. Little plan to spend all of the holiday season in Klamath Falls with Mrs. Little's family and friends. She is the former Beverly Reed and parties for the popular member of the younger set have kept the Little's Klamath calendar book far ahead.

The family flew from Lima, Peru, their present address, to New York. First trip for the twins who were born in Rio de Janeiro. They bought a car in New York and drove to Little's home in Philadelphia where they were with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. R. Little, for a month.

While here, part of the busy schedule will be shared with Mrs. Little's mother, Mrs. Neil Reed, 537 High; her father, Arthur H. Reed, Lakeshore Drive; and her sister, Mrs. Charles Nickerson, 2153 Wantland Avenue.

The twins have sparkly tawny eyes, and their hair has the same interesting and hard-to-describe golden glints of captured sunlight. They have charmed all who met them and the handsome foursome will be missed when they return to Lima at the end of the first vacation to the states in three years.

Little goes back to his position as factory manager for the Sydney Ross Pharmaceutical Company for another three year stay. The couple met in Philadelphia during the war while she was a WAVE and he was an Aviation Machinist's Mate in the Navy.

She is an ardent archeologist, an active member of the Lima Archeological Society, and has found some astonishing and fascinating Inca ceramics. A vase said by experts to be over 2000 years old is one of the items she has unearthed. This hobby is no "digging-in-the-sandpile" project, but who wouldn't feel richly rewarded to personally bring to light an art treasure buried for 2000 years?

Mrs. Jack Weimer entertained with a lovely luncheon at her home Nov. 19, 1 p.m. After the luncheon contract bridge was enjoyed with high prize going to Mr. Harold Dehlinger; low to Mrs. Helen Steele and traveling to Mrs. Vernon Durant. Mrs. Lizzie Short was given a special prize.

Guests were Mrs. Glenn Dehlinger, Mrs. Harvey Wise, Mrs. Vernon Durant, Mrs. Lizzie Short, Mrs.

Cecil Haley, Mrs. Harry Frazier, Mrs. Robert Dehlinger, Mrs. Fred Beymer, Mrs. Charlie Reed, Mrs. Joe Steele, Mrs. Irwin Campbell, Mrs. Harold Dehlinger, Mrs. Bill Burnett, Mrs. Helen Steele and Mrs. Lester Leavitt.
