

APPOINTED, U.S. Sen. Henry Cabot Lodge, smiles happily in his home at Beverly, Mass., on hearing the news that President-elect Dwight D. Eisenhower announced he would appoint the senator to head the U.S. Mission to the United Nations. Lodge said as he pieced together a jigsaw puzzle that it was the first good relaxation he has had since starting to work for Eisenhower 13 months ago.

Truman Asks UN Observance

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Truman issued a proclamation yesterday calling upon the country to observe Dec. 10—United Nations Human Rights Day—by giving thanks for the "priceless heritage" of liberty.

The proclamation pointed out that many of the freedoms set forth in the American Bill of Rights are similar to those in the Universal Declaration of Human Rights adopted by the United Nations in 1948.

Officer Lauds Air Strength

WASHINGTON (AP)—The chief of the Strategic Air Command says air power today offers the best possibility for decisive action against Russia in the event of another world war.

Gen. Curtis E. LeMay said he is convinced that neither ground nor sea fighting provided much chance of forcing a decision in a global conflict with the USSR.

Addressing a session of the Air Force manpower management training program yesterday, the general said the Russian Army could outnumber American land forces 2 to 1 in both Europe and Asia and still have 224 divisions left over.

The Russians have some 20,000 first-line combat airplanes now assigned to active units, he said, and an equal number of aircraft in reserve.

He said the U. S. may not be able to have the biggest air force but it must have the best.

REPUBLICANS SEE
WASHINGTON (AP)—The Civil Service Commission says Republicans will have 170,382 federal jobs—mostly small ones—available for patronage purposes.

The announcement, based on a recent survey, was made yesterday.

He Started It

Geo. N. Taylor
A heathen man in S-W India joined a street crowd and heard that the one and true God offered up his Son, Jesus Christ for our sins. Out of it, the man took Christ as his own. He then set out to tell others.

Out of it S-W India saw 35,000 heathen, born of God, in tollife, hope and peace. See WORLD DOMINATION, page 181, 1952 issue, May-June.

Three Paris:—As saved, like this man, you are under orders to tell others. TWO:—God then convinces them that without Christ, they live and die lost. 3rd—Let the lost turn and be set right with God through faith in Jesus Christ as their own Lord and Saviour. No man goes to glory with even one sin against his name. So which for you? Christ and glory or self-goodness and hell? which for you? This space sponsored by a Portland lumber mfr. and wife.
