

FIFTY-FIVE YEARS AGO . . . they were married in Klamath Falls by a Presbyterian minister. Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Uerlings both lived here when the town was known as Linkville, having come here in 1884. Old friends dropped in to congratulate them at their home, 4960 Crosby Street, on Nov. 25. Mrs. Louise Humphrey, a bridesmaid at their wedding was a special guest of the afternoon. The Uerlings have 6 children, 14 grandchildren, and 2 great-grandchildren. They have been active in social and civic life and have contributed much to the development of the Klamath Basin. —Photo by Ferebee

Malin Legion and Auxiliary Dinner

MALIN—A potluck dinner and Christmas party was held Monday evening, Dec. 1, at the Malin Church, for the American Legion and Auxiliary members and their families. Christmas gifts were given out to all attending, after which the Rev. George Shuman talked on "Crusade for Freedom."

A regular meeting was held for both Legion and the Auxiliary after the dinner.

A report was made by Mrs. Charley Hamilton, District 4 President, on poppy posters and child welfare. The poppy poster chairman, Mrs. Phil Blohm, is to contact the schools, concerning the posters, as soon as possible. In child welfare, the Unit is to give help and aid to needy families in the community. Mrs. Hamilton talked on the different Units she has visited, since she has been District President, and the work they were doing.

Klamath Falls Auxiliary Unit has bought a hospital bed and mattress and are presenting it to the Malin Unit. The money was realized by the sale of subscriptions. The bed is to be stored at the Malin Fire House and may be used for any sick person in the Malin community.

More cookies are to be made and packed by the members for service boys in the states. Cookies will be packed at the home of Mrs. George Bauer, chairman of the committee, Thursday, 1:30 p.m. Next meeting will be Jan. 20.
