Prisoners Hold Guards In Utah Riot

SANTA FE, N. M. (AP)—Eight or nine rebellious prisoners grabbed two New Mexico State Penitentiary guards late yesterday and still held them as pawns in bargaining for freedom with prison officials early today.

Warren Out As Senator

TUCSON, Ariz. (AP)—California's Gov. Earl Warren said last night he will not appoint himself to fill the U. S. Senate seat which Vice President-elect Richard Nixon will vacate in January.

Roach identified the hostages as Mariano Chavez and Augustine Gonzales. Those detained in the hospital are Celestino Escudero, Fred Martinez, Gabriel Ortiz, Tony Sandoval and John Vachetion.

Gov. Mechem is expected back from Phoenix, Ariz., today to take personal charge of the emergency. He had just arrived there to attend the Western Governors Conference when notified of the trouble.

Ocean Claims Fat Billfold

ST. SIMONS ISLAND, Ga. (AP)—A Virginia produce trucker, who can't swim, dropped his billfold containing $1,808 into the Atlantic Ocean yesterday and was left with 14 cents.

W. E. Conner, 47, of Hosioko, Va., spent the night on the beach with his tearful wife and 10-year-old son in the vain hope that the billfold might wash up on the tide.

One swimmer got within 20 feet of the billfold before crating forced him to return to shore. Coast Guard boat sped to the scene, but the billfold had disappeared.
