

MARKETS AND FINANCE

Stocks

WALL STREET
NEW YORK (AP)—A rally led by motors Wednesday pulled the stock market out of a slump.
Although one leader after another in the automobile division and elsewhere registered good gains, the market still tipped slightly to the downside.
Volume came to an estimated 1,900,000 shares.

New York Stocks
By The Associated Press

Admiral Corporation	31 3/4
Allied Chemical	74 1/2
Allied Chemical	58 3/4
American Airlines	14 1/2
American Power & Light	15 1/2
American Tel. & Tel.	65 1/2
American Tobacco	40 1/2
Anacostia Copper	40 1/2
Atchafalpa Railroad	100 1/2
Bethlehem Steel	52 1/2
Boeing Airplane Co.	39 1/2
Borg Warner	70 1/2
Burroughs Adding Machine	16 1/2
California Packing	27 1/2
Canadian Pacific	33 1/2
Caterpillar Tractor	62 1/2
Celanese Corporation	62 1/2
Chrysler Corporation	92 1/2
States Service	32 1/2
Consolidated Edison	38 1/2
Consolidated Vultee	19 1/2
Crown Zellerbach	64 1/2
Curtiss Wright	8
Douglas Aircraft	98
duPont de Nemours	43 1/2
Eastman Kodak	43 1/2
Emerson Radio	13 1/2
General Electric	52 1/2
General Foods	67 1/2
General Motors	67 1/2
Goodyear Tire	18 1/2
Homestake Mining Co.	37 1/2
International Harvester	54 1/2
International Paper	74 1/2
Johns Manville	77 1/2
Kennecott Copper	8
Libby, McNeill	24 1/2
Lockheed Aircraft	29 1/2
Long Bell A	61 1/2
Montgomery Ward	21 1/2
Nash Kelvinator	72 1/2
New York Central	34 1/2
Northern Pacific	13 1/2
Pacific American Fish	39 1/2
Pacific Gas & Electric	115 1/2
Packard Tel. & Tel.	5 1/2
Packard Motor Car	69 1/2
Pennsylvania Co.	34 1/2
Phelps Dodge	38 1/2
Radio Corporation	35 1/2
Rayonier Incorp	44 1/2
Republic Steel	32 1/2
Reynolds Metals	62 1/2
Richfield Oil	32 1/2
Safeway Stores Inc.	55 1/2
Scott Paper Co.	36 1/2
Sears Roebuck & Co.	44 1/2
Socopy-Vacuum Oil	37 1/2
Southern Pacific	11 1/2
Standard Oil Calif.	35 1/2
Studebaker Corp.	8 1/2
Sunshine Mining	33 1/2
Swift & Company	26 1/2
Transamerica Corp.	13 1/2
Twentieth Century Fox	39 1/2
Union Oil Company	11 1/2
United Aircraft	29 1/2
United Corporation	37 1/2
United States Plywood	31 1/2
United States Steel	41 1/2
Warner Pictures	13 1/2
Western Union Tel.	40 1/2
Westinghouse Air Brake	46 1/2
Westinghouse Electric	45 1/2
Woolworth Company	45 1/2

Grains

CHICAGO GRAIN
CHICAGO (AP)—Wheat showed the result of disappointment over smaller than expected export business Wednesday, slumping nearly 3 cents at times in a generally easy grain market.
Soybeans also lost several cents at one time on selling which brokers thought was tied in with a break in cotton prices.
Several deferred land contracts went to new seasonal lows.
Wheat dealers were disappointed because overnight buying of the cash grain by West Germany was not as large as had been anticipated.
Wheat closed 1/4-1/2 lower, December $2.33 1/4, corn 1/2 low, 1/2-1/4 higher, December $1.65 1/2-1/4, oats 1/2 lower to 1/4 higher, December $1.15 1/2-1/4, rye 1/2 to 1 1/2 lower, December $1.93 1/2, soybeans 1/2-1/4 lower, January $3.03-33.04 and hard 17 to 32 cents a hundred pounds lower, December $9.45.

Wheat

Open	High	Low	Close
Dec.	2.34	2.33	2.33 1/4
Mar.	2.40	2.40	2.38 1/2
May	2.43	2.43	2.42
July	2.40	2.40	2.38 1/2
Sep.	2.42 1/2	2.42 1/2	2.41 1/2

PORTLAND GRAIN
PORTLAND (AP)—Coarse grain, 15-day shipments, bulk, coast delivery: No bids.
Wheat bid to arrive market, basis No. 1, bulk, delivered coast: Soft White 2.39; Soft White excluding (S.S.) 2.39; White Club 2.39; Hard Red Winter: Ordinary 2.45; 10 per cent 2.45; 11 per cent 2.45; 12 per cent 2.45.
Hard White Bant: Ordinary, 2.62; 10 per cent 2.62; 11 per cent 2.64; 12 per cent 2.68.
Wheat receipts: wheat 24; barley 1; flour 9; corn 5; oats 2; mill feed 13.

Weather
Western Oregon — Cloudy with scattered showers Wednesday. Partly cloudy Wednesday night. Rain again Thursday, ending by afternoon or evening and followed by partial clearing. Warmer Thursday with highs of 48 to 58. Low Wednesday night 38 to 48. Winds off coast westerly 12 to 25 miles an hour Wednesday and early night. Winds will become southerly late Wednesday night and Thursday, increasing to 20 to 35 miles an hour.
Eastern Oregon — Occasional showers through Thursday, with snow showers in the mountains. Little change in temperature with high both days from 35 to 45. Low Wednesday night 28 to 35. Grains and vicinity — Intermittent rain 1:30-3:00 with brief clearing periods Wednesday night. High both days 30. Low Wednesday night 38.

By The Associated Press
24 hours to 4:30 a.m. Wednesday

	Max.	Min.	Prep.
Baker	34	30	01
Eugene	51	43	64
La Grande	41	31	02
Medford	41	38	11
North Bend	57	46	1.01
Ontario	41	33	1
Pendleton	49	35	15
Portland Airport	44	40	1.11
Roseburg	52	43	92
Salem	49	42	1.03
Seaside	41	36	1
Chicago	57	—	—
Denver	36	18	—
Eureka	59	55	21
Los Angeles	63	50	—
New York	53	51	—
Red Bluff	47	44	1.09

Livestock
PORTLAND LIVESTOCK
PORTLAND (AP)—(USDA)—Cattle salable 400; market fairly active, mostly steady; load good light fed steers 26.85; few head good around 27.5 lb steers 25.00; commercial steers 19.00-23.00; light utility steers down to 18.00; few good fed heifers 23.00; canner and cutter cows mostly 10.00-12.50; utility cows 13.50-15.00, some held higher; commercial bulls 18.00-19.00; cutter and utility bulls 14.00-17.00.
Calves salable 60; choice light weaners scarce, quotable up to 25.00 or above; few good heavy slaughter calves 23.00-22.00; utility and commercial calves 14.00-19.00.
Hogs salable 3; market rather slow, about steady; choice 1 and 2 butchers 18-22; lbs 18.50-19.60; choice 350-380 lb sows quotable 15.50-16.50; lighter weights to 17.00.
Sheep salable 400; market about steady; sizable lot mostly choice, few fleeced lambs 18.75; few lots mostly good woolled lambs 17.00-17.50; good and choice feeders lambs salable 15.00-16.00; good and choice slaughter ewes, quotable 5.50-6.50; few utility ewes 4.50.

Potatoes

Klamath Shipments		1951-52 1952-53
Dec. 9	0	0	39
Truck	0	0	6
Rail	0	0	33
Month to date	349	341
Truck	43	34
Rail	306	287
Season to date	4294	3518
Truck	833	606
Rail	3461	2912

Still time for NEW SITTING for Christmas Delivery

MILLER BRUMBAUGH STUDIO
Miller's—Downstairs

Suit Studies Heating Co.

A civil suit to determine the true cash value of the Consumers Heating Company, local privately-owned central heating concern, is now underway in Circuit Court.
The suit started yesterday, and is being heard by Judge David R. Vandenberg without jury.
The heating company has appealed a ruling of the State Tax Commission setting the true cash value of the firm at $240,000, contending that it should be considerably less, said Paul Farrens, attorney for the company.
From the true cash value as determined by the tax commission, the property taxes paid by the company are determined. The county's ratio of assessed valuation to true valuation is applied to get the assessed value figure, and the millage rate applicable determines the tax to be paid.
The heating company is seeking to have its taxes lowered.
There was testimony today that as of Jan. 1, 1947, the company's true cash value was listed as $100,000, and that it has gone steadily up each year, because of property improvements and increased revenue.

Rube Moore Death Told

Word was received here today of the death of Rube E. Moore, 38, who lived in Klamath Falls for 12 years prior to moving to Burney, Calif. last summer.
Moore was killed Saturday night when the car he was driving plunged off U.S. 299 near Burney. Moore's car apparently hit a spot in the ditch, and skidded into the ditch.
He was dead on arrival at Memorial hospital in Redding.
Moore is survived by his widow, June Moore, two stepsons, his mother, and three brothers.
Funeral services were held in Redding.

On The Record

BIRTHS
JONES—Born to Mrs. David Jones, 136 Michigan, at Klamath Falls Hospital, Dec. 9, 1952, a girl, weight, pounds 2 1/2 ounces.

MARRIAGE LICENSE
REYNOLDS-WILLIAMS, Frank Reynolds, legal age, AAA manager, Native of Oregon, resident of Klamath Falls, Josephine county, legal age, housewife, Native of Missouri, resident of Klamath Falls.

COMPLAINTS FILED
Catherine V. Black vs. Paul E. Black suit for divorce. Charge, cruelty. Couple married Oct. 24, 1948. Reno, Nev. Plaintiff asks custody of three minor children, $100 a month support, J. C. O'Neill, attorney for plaintiff.
State Unemployment Compensation Commission vs. Chloquin Forest Products Inc., suit for payment of $124.57 claimed unpaid state unemployment compensation contributions. Alfred B. Thomas, assistant attorney general, attorney for plaintiff.

Chemult

It is a good thing old man winter did not approach any sooner of the crews of the Southern Pacific and the Great Northern might have had a much more difficult time extracting the wreck of the 30-odd cars that piled up here in Chemult Nov. 21. Several local people purchase baby beef, pancake flour and South Dakota potatoes from the splintered cars.
One load of label spoils caused considerable trouble to load. It was headed for the American Can Company. A load of poles rammed a load of Sperry's pancake flour going to Fresno and was sold. Tom Godley supervised the building of a shanty to clear the wreck thereby permitting through trains like the Shasta Daylight to go through without reducing their speed too much. Over 300 men were used in the clearing up of the wreck.
Trapshooters motoring to Oakridge last Sunday for the Cascade Gun Club Turkey Shoot were: Mr. and Mrs. Ray Darnell, G. C. Palmer, Frank Hash and Mr. and Mrs. Grant Damon. Those bringing home turkeys were: Ray Darnell and Sally and Grant Damon.
Attending the Oregon-Oregon State game in Portland Nov. 22, were Mr. and Mrs. George Bourne and Mr. and Mrs. Bill Taylor.
Over Thanksgiving Mr. and Mrs. Thomas McKee shared their turkey with Al Rowe, The B. E. and Cup Jessups motored to Klamath Falls where they attended a family get together in the Homedale area. They were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Everett. The Bradys family were happy to have their two sons home for the holiday. David N. Brader arrived from Moffett Field, Calif., and Don M. Brader from Willamette U. in Eugene. They all spent the day in Burney, Calif. last summer.
Moore was killed Saturday night when the car he was driving plunged off U.S. 299 near Burney. Moore's car apparently hit a spot in the ditch, and skidded into the ditch.
He was dead on arrival at Memorial hospital in Redding.
Moore is survived by his widow, June Moore, two stepsons, his mother, and three brothers.
Funeral services were held in Redding.

It Happened This Way in New Pine Creek

By IRVIN FARIS
Hallelujah! a rejuvenating old time get-together was demonstrated last Saturday night when officers and members of three Goose Lake Valley Granges got bunched out at the newly accommodated Thomas Creek hall and had for themselves a right nice time.
It was installation night. All but three in-coming officers from the East Side Grange were present and were installed along with those of the West Side and Thomas Creek granges. Some grangers from the Valley Falls grange were present but they are having their installation this coming Saturday night—Dec. 6th.
Frances Mulkey of the West Side was the officiating master in the chair but the tedious installing work was performed impressively by Mrs. Bonifay Yancy, Klamath County Grange deputy. Sitting on the side lines was her husband, Carl, giving her moral support. He has plenty of spark too—being at present Lecturer of the Klamath County Pomona Grange. Uhhuh! if the yeast in that job works right—it's just a boiling pot of bright ideas—like the sheep-herder's mulligan is always on the stew—Producing enticing, aromatic flavors in the brew—that can lure those home-staying members a-new, with life-of-the-party programs that just can't eschew!
In case you're headed into the plum patch for some sweet pickin's—that job of County Deputy is no easy niche to fill which, in essence, is one of promoting and activating the various ranges throughout the county. Like Mrs. Yancy—sometimes the work takes her outside her county—to perform a little memory work just fourteen pages long! Installing officers is more than just a recitation too—Intricate artistry is involved. That of timing, proper emphasis and the magic modulation of the voice to produce an effectiveness that is both beautiful and real. If a grange stubs its toe or otherwise takes a hapless nose dive—it is up to the County Deputy to step in hurriedly and render all-out first aid "It's a vital sort of job—like a doctor's—where the game is out 'keep the patient a-cher-er out of the hands of the under-taker!"
When the installing ceremonies were finished—about that time Opal Fitzgerald's gang of musicians took position for about a two and a half hour pull on some good old tunes at which nearly every one was convinced in an evening of rhythmic pleasure. Those who kept the merry pace included the dancing on the side lines, engrossed in friendly conversation from which frequent laughter burst forth.
A buffet supper was served handily along as you needed sustenance—to keep up the merry pace. Huh? Not that old surely! Naww—it was just plenty good eatin' and dancing.
Speaking of eatin'—Art Lenket puts out a buffet spread that—what's just a minute—you can't just eat—yuh got to have a party first. Well—'twas the night before Chris—Thank-giving, (pardon)—that the pinocchio club held its second meeting since the club was formed sometime ago. Four tables were filled and all had a very congenial evening. Ladies high prize was won by Mrs. Maude Butler while Mrs. Agnes Henderson got the consolation prize. High prize for the men went to Kelton Vincent with consolation going to Lee Bernard. The traveling prize finally rested in the hands of Erik Ruse. Delightful refreshments, buffet fashion were served—sure enough. Say—don't tell Art but while browsing around at the close of the party, that Olympic skier, shooting champion he won in 1932 instead of 1915 as the plaque very clearly shows upon closer scrutiny.
Attending the party were: Mr. and Mrs. Alvin Butler, Mr. and Mrs. Eric Ruse, Mr. and Mrs. Earl Butler, Mr. and Mrs. Lee Bernard, Mr. Earl Sanford, Mr. and Mrs. Alf Henderson, Mr. and Mrs. Kelton Vincent and Mr. and Mrs. Irvin L. Faris.
Two men not so long ago re-

Chemult

turned from the Cow Palace where they took in the International Livestock show in San Francisco. One Carl Butler—saw just a wee bit disgusted at the paucity of bronc riding and thought the show as a whole might be somewhat overrated. He felt some disappointed in parts of the show.
The other—visitor, Bill Allen was so elated with the superb work of the cutting horses—that had there been only cutting horses perform he'd got his money-value out of his ticket. "They were the world's best," he said. "Then the performance of the sheep dogs. Those two features were like two shows for the price of one. Bill argues this way "that if you see less of any one thing—nevertheless you've seen the best there is—so quality makes up for quantity."
Funeral services were held for Mrs. Carolyn Smith, 91, at Gridley, Calif., last Saturday afternoon. Her husband, passed away in Chicago last Friday, Nov. 28th, and interment was made in Cedarville at 3 o'clock last Sunday. Alf Smith, next to the youngest of the six boys of the family, attended the services.

Langell Valley

By CORA LEAVITT
The Langell Valley Women's Club will meet at the Community Hall, Dec. 15, at 2 p.m., to decorate the tree and hold its annual Christmas party. Members will have a 50 cent gift exchange. Mrs. Dorothy Fleischer will be hostess.
The community Christmas tree and party, sponsored by the Langell Valley Women's Club will be held at the Community Hall, Dec. 15, 7:30 p.m. There will be a short program followed by the arrival of Santa with treats for the kiddies.
Two men not so long ago re-

Langell Valley

turned from the Cow Palace where they took in the International Livestock show in San Francisco. One Carl Butler—saw just a wee bit disgusted at the paucity of bronc riding and thought the show as a whole might be somewhat overrated. He felt some disappointed in parts of the show.
The other—visitor, Bill Allen was so elated with the superb work of the cutting horses—that had there been only cutting horses perform he'd got his money-value out of his ticket. "They were the world's best," he said. "Then the performance of the sheep dogs. Those two features were like two shows for the price of one. Bill argues this way "that if you see less of any one thing—nevertheless you've seen the best there is—so quality makes up for quantity."
Funeral services were held for Mrs. Carolyn Smith, 91, at Gridley, Calif., last Saturday afternoon. Her husband, passed away in Chicago last Friday, Nov. 28th, and interment was made in Cedarville at 3 o'clock last Sunday. Alf Smith, next to the youngest of the six boys of the family, attended the services.

Langell Valley

turned from the Cow Palace where they took in the International Livestock show in San Francisco. One Carl Butler—saw just a wee bit disgusted at the paucity of bronc riding and thought the show as a whole might be somewhat overrated. He felt some disappointed in parts of the show.
The other—visitor, Bill Allen was so elated with the superb work of the cutting horses—that had there been only cutting horses perform he'd got his money-value out of his ticket. "They were the world's best," he said. "Then the performance of the sheep dogs. Those two features were like two shows for the price of one. Bill argues this way "that if you see less of any one thing—nevertheless you've seen the best there is—so quality makes up for quantity."
Funeral services were held for Mrs. Carolyn Smith, 91, at Gridley, Calif., last Saturday afternoon. Her husband, passed away in Chicago last Friday, Nov. 28th, and interment was made in Cedarville at 3 o'clock last Sunday. Alf Smith, next to the youngest of the six boys of the family, attended the services.

It Happened This Way in New Pine Creek

By IRVIN FARIS
Hallelujah! a rejuvenating old time get-together was demonstrated last Saturday night when officers and members of three Goose Lake Valley Granges got bunched out at the newly accommodated Thomas Creek hall and had for themselves a right nice time.
It was installation night. All but three in-coming officers from the East Side Grange were present and were installed along with those of the West Side and Thomas Creek granges. Some grangers from the Valley Falls grange were present but they are having their installation this coming Saturday night—Dec. 6th.
Frances Mulkey of the West Side was the officiating master in the chair but the tedious installing work was performed impressively by Mrs. Bonifay Yancy, Klamath County Grange deputy. Sitting on the side lines was her husband, Carl, giving her moral support. He has plenty of spark too—being at present Lecturer of the Klamath County Pomona Grange. Uhhuh! if the yeast in that job works right—it's just a boiling pot of bright ideas—like the sheep-herder's mulligan is always on the stew—Producing enticing, aromatic flavors in the brew—that can lure those home-staying members a-new, with life-of-the-party programs that just can't eschew!
In case you're headed into the plum patch for some sweet pickin's—that job of County Deputy is no easy niche to fill which, in essence, is one of promoting and activating the various ranges throughout the county. Like Mrs. Yancy—sometimes the work takes her outside her county—to perform a little memory work just fourteen pages long! Installing officers is more than just a recitation too—Intricate artistry is involved. That of timing, proper emphasis and the magic modulation of the voice to produce an effectiveness that is both beautiful and real. If a grange stubs its toe or otherwise takes a hapless nose dive—it is up to the County Deputy to step in hurriedly and render all-out first aid "It's a vital sort of job—like a doctor's—where the game is out 'keep the patient a-cher-er out of the hands of the under-taker!"
When the installing ceremonies were finished—about that time Opal Fitzgerald's gang of musicians took position for about a two and a half hour pull on some good old tunes at which nearly every one was convinced in an evening of rhythmic pleasure. Those who kept the merry pace included the dancing on the side lines, engrossed in friendly conversation from which frequent laughter burst forth.
A buffet supper was served handily along as you needed sustenance—to keep up the merry pace. Huh? Not that old surely! Naww—it was just plenty good eatin' and dancing.
Speaking of eatin'—Art Lenket puts out a buffet spread that—what's just a minute—you can't just eat—yuh got to have a party first. Well—'twas the night before Chris—Thank-giving, (pardon)—that the pinocchio club held its second meeting since the club was formed sometime ago. Four tables were filled and all had a very congenial evening. Ladies high prize was won by Mrs. Maude Butler while Mrs. Agnes Henderson got the consolation prize. High prize for the men went to Kelton Vincent with consolation going to Lee Bernard. The traveling prize finally rested in the hands of Erik Ruse. Delightful refreshments, buffet fashion were served—sure enough. Say—don't tell Art but while browsing around at the close of the party, that Olympic skier, shooting champion he won in 1932 instead of 1915 as the plaque very clearly shows upon closer scrutiny.
Attending the party were: Mr. and Mrs. Alvin Butler, Mr. and Mrs. Eric Ruse, Mr. and Mrs. Earl Butler, Mr. and Mrs. Lee Bernard, Mr. Earl Sanford, Mr. and Mrs. Alf Henderson, Mr. and Mrs. Kelton Vincent and Mr. and Mrs. Irvin L. Faris.
Two men not so long ago re-

Langell Valley

turned from the Cow Palace where they took in the International Livestock show in San Francisco. One Carl Butler—saw just a wee bit disgusted at the paucity of bronc riding and thought the show as a whole might be somewhat overrated. He felt some disappointed in parts of the show.
The other—visitor, Bill Allen was so elated with the superb work of the cutting horses—that had there been only cutting horses perform he'd got his money-value out of his ticket. "They were the world's best," he said. "Then the performance of the sheep dogs. Those two features were like two shows for the price of one. Bill argues this way "that if you see less of any one thing—nevertheless you've seen the best there is—so quality makes up for quantity."
Funeral services were held for Mrs. Carolyn Smith, 91, at Gridley, Calif., last Saturday afternoon. Her husband, passed away in Chicago last Friday, Nov. 28th, and interment was made in Cedarville at 3 o'clock last Sunday. Alf Smith, next to the youngest of the six boys of the family, attended the services.

Langell Valley

turned from the Cow Palace where they took in the International Livestock show in San Francisco. One Carl Butler—saw just a wee bit disgusted at the paucity of bronc riding and thought the show as a whole might be somewhat overrated. He felt some disappointed in parts of the show.
The other—visitor, Bill Allen was so elated with the superb work of the cutting horses—that had there been only cutting horses perform he'd got his money-value out of his ticket. "They were the world's best," he said. "Then the performance of the sheep dogs. Those two features were like two shows for the price of one. Bill argues this way "that if you see less of any one thing—nevertheless you've seen the best there is—so quality makes up for quantity."
Funeral services were held for Mrs. Carolyn Smith, 91, at Gridley, Calif., last Saturday afternoon. Her husband, passed away in Chicago last Friday, Nov. 28th, and interment was made in Cedarville at 3 o'clock last Sunday. Alf Smith, next to the youngest of the six boys of the family, attended the services.

Langell Valley

turned from the Cow Palace where they took in the International Livestock show in San Francisco. One Carl Butler—saw just a wee bit disgusted at the paucity of bronc riding and thought the show as a whole might be somewhat overrated. He felt some disappointed in parts of the show.
The other—visitor, Bill Allen was so elated with the superb work of the cutting horses—that had there been only cutting horses perform he'd got his money-value out of his ticket. "They were the world's best," he said. "Then the performance of the sheep dogs. Those two features were like two shows for the price of one. Bill argues this way "that if you see less of any one thing—nevertheless you've seen the best there is—so quality makes up for quantity."
Funeral services were held for Mrs. Carolyn Smith, 91, at Gridley, Calif., last Saturday afternoon. Her husband, passed away in Chicago last Friday, Nov. 28th, and interment was made in Cedarville at 3 o'clock last Sunday. Alf Smith, next to the youngest of the six boys of the family, attended the services.

Langell Valley

turned from the Cow Palace where they took in the International Livestock show in San Francisco. One Carl Butler—saw just a wee bit disgusted at the paucity of bronc riding and thought the show as a whole might be somewhat overrated. He felt some disappointed in parts of the show.
The other—visitor, Bill Allen was so elated with the superb work of the cutting horses—that had there been only cutting horses perform he'd got his money-value out of his ticket. "They were the world's best," he said. "Then the performance of the sheep dogs. Those two features were like two shows for the price of one. Bill argues this way "that if you see less of any one thing—nevertheless you've seen the best there is—so quality makes up for quantity."
Funeral services were held for Mrs. Carolyn Smith, 91, at Gridley, Calif., last Saturday afternoon. Her husband, passed away in Chicago last Friday, Nov. 28th, and interment was made in Cedarville at 3 o'clock last Sunday. Alf Smith, next to the youngest of the six boys of the family, attended the services.

Langell Valley

turned from the Cow Palace where they took in the International Livestock show in San Francisco. One Carl Butler—saw just a wee bit disgusted at the paucity of bronc riding and thought the show as a whole might be somewhat overrated. He felt some disappointed in parts of the show.
The other—visitor, Bill Allen was so elated with the superb work of the cutting horses—that had there been only cutting horses perform he'd got his money-value out of his ticket. "They were the world's best," he said. "Then the performance of the sheep dogs. Those two features were like two shows for the price of one. Bill argues this way "that if you see less of any one thing—nevertheless you've seen the best there is—so quality makes up for quantity."
Funeral services were held for Mrs. Carolyn Smith, 91, at Gridley, Calif., last Saturday afternoon. Her husband, passed away in Chicago last Friday, Nov. 28th, and interment was made in Cedarville at 3 o'clock last Sunday. Alf Smith, next to the youngest of the six boys of the family, attended the services.

Langell Valley

turned from the Cow Palace where they took in the International Livestock show in San Francisco. One Carl Butler—saw just a wee bit disgusted at the paucity of bronc riding and thought the show as a whole might be somewhat overrated. He felt some disappointed in parts of the show.
The other—visitor, Bill Allen was so elated with the superb work of the cutting horses—that had there been only cutting horses perform he'd got his money-value out of his ticket. "They were the world's best," he said. "Then the performance of the sheep dogs. Those two features were like two shows for the price of one. Bill argues this way "that if you see less of any one thing—nevertheless you've seen the best there is—so quality makes up for quantity."
Funeral services were held for Mrs. Carolyn Smith, 91, at Gridley, Calif., last Saturday afternoon. Her husband, passed away in Chicago last Friday, Nov. 28th, and interment was made in Cedarville at 3 o'clock last Sunday. Alf Smith, next to the youngest of the six boys of the family, attended the services.

ELKS Memorial Service which was canceled Sunday due to bad weather

WILL BE HELD THURSDAY EVENING

DECEMBER 11th - 8:45 P.M.

IN THE LODGE HALL

Public Invited

IT'S TIME NOW FOR AN EYE EXAMINATION

As Christmas approaches and the rush of the holiday season descends upon you, take a few minutes out for yourself. See Dr. Alva Custer, registered optometrist for a complete, scientific eye examination. Let him prescribe new eyewear if necessary. Then face the Christmas holidays with clear, comfortable vision. Stylish, dependable eyewear from Dr. Alva Custer is yours on easiest credit terms.

Dr. Alva Custer

REGISTERED OPTOMETRIST WITH OFFICES AT

Standard Optical Company

715 MAIN STREET IN KLAMATH FALLS