

TIME OUT!

Uni-Hi Next For Pelicans

The Pelicans of Klamath Union High School shoot for its first- and second-victory of the season this weekend in a Friday-Saturday series with the Golden Tide of Eugene's University High, defending Dist. 6 champions.

Preliminary games, at 6:45 p.m. on Pelican Court, put the Klamath junior varsity against Lakeview Friday and Payless Drugs of the City League Saturday.

The Tigers carry just one letterman from last year's state tournament team, Bob Pierce, a lad handy with a one-handed shot.

Some 10 boys are wrangling for the other four starting positions. For the most part Uni-Hi has experimented in an attempt to jell a regular five.

INSIDE TRACK
Gary Sheets seems to have the inside track for one forward spot.

The Tide holds a 1-1 season record, beating St. Francis of Eugene, losing to Clatskanie.

The Pels haven't fared as well, dropping a pair to the Wolves of Redding's Shasta High.

But the Klamath club was remarkably improved Saturday over its Friday night showing, leading to feeling in some quarters the Pels may hit their winning stride against University.

McCALL MUM
Pelican Coach Paul McCall had not announced yet to yesterday whether he would settle on the same starters that answered the opening whistles in the Redding double-header.

If so, five lettermen would be the starting line against the Golden Tide—forward Doug Pence and Ed Barron, center Jack Horton and guards Ken Young and Calvin Gilmore.

Gilmore currently leads the scoring parade with 28 points. Barron has 25, Horton 19.

Albert To Quit Gridiron

SAN FRANCISCO — Frankie Albert, who rose from a bench warming substitute in 1935 to All-America quarterback for Stanford in 1940 and has stayed a T-formation wizard ever since—closes out his spectacular football career Sunday.

The master of the booting play announced that his appearance with the San Francisco 49ers here against the Green Bay Packers in the windup of the National League season will be his last.

The bouncy, seemingly indestructible 49er quarterback put it this way:

"Time marches on. (He is 32). I've been thinking of this for a couple of months, and suddenly made up my mind. I've reached the time when it is hard for me to play the way I should. Besides I feel it is necessary to devote my entire time to other activities."

Albert is associated with an automobile agency in Palo Alto, where he makes his home, and also conducts a weekly television program. He says he is not interested in coaching college football.

Skagit JC Stalled, Game Called

Oretech Hits Road Friday

The cage-busy Owls prepared today for their trip to Ashland and Arcata today after learning late yesterday afternoon that Skagit Valley Junior College would not be here tonight for its scheduled game.

The Washington team wired Art Kirkland, Oretech cage boss, from Grants Pass yesterday on its return trip from California. The Skagits said they couldn't get over the Greensprings to Klamath Falls and headed home.

Kirkland leaves tomorrow morning with 13 players for a Friday-Saturday doubleheader with Southern Oregon and a Monday-Tuesday split with Humboldt State.

SPLIT
The Techmen are fresh off a two-game split with a class team from Weber College of Ogden, Utah.

It was a rip-snorting series that saw the Owls rally for the Monday night victory, the Weber five battle uphill for the Tuesday win.

The next home stand for Oregon Tech is Dec. 20 when they host Pacific University before taking off on a northern tour that includes games with Olympic JC and Skagit Valley JC.

Kirkland said he would start with Jerry Wyatt and John Henslee at forwards, Tom Schubert at center, Len Gettner and Walt Butler at guards against the Red Raiders of Southern Oregon.

OTHERS
Others making the trip are Tom Humphrey, Jack Sausser, Don Graham, John Koch, Chuck Jepsen, Bob Greenwood, Larry Willis and Keith Thompson.

Southern Oregon has split with Oregon College and lost to Sacramento State in games to date.

The Raiders are sparked by just one returning regular of last year, freesty Ken Kimura. Ernie Breizel, Bob Smith, Leon Keele and Ron Maurer will probably fill out the starting line-up.

DAVEY
The Michigan State graduate went through a mild preparatory workout Wednesday night in scoring a third round technical knockout over hopelessly outclassed Fitzie Pruden of Paterson, N. J.

Davey, who holds a master's degree from Michigan State and is on leave of absence from the college's English department, is tentatively set for a February title bout against welterweight champion Kid Gavilan in Chicago.

His nationally-televized victory over Pruden came so quickly the fans hardly had a chance to get settled in their seats. They booed loudly as the top scrap on the Cleveland News annual Toyshop program came to its abrupt end.

PCC Heads Aim New Rule at SC Trojans

PASADENA, Calif. — Southern California's champion football team apparently has lost another disputed decision to rival teams in the Pacific Coast Conference.

A verdict emerged from behind closed doors of the Pacific Coast Conference in its winter meeting which said Thursday:

"It is the duty of each coach to restrain in every way possible over zealous players, and to protect the unprotected player."

The decision was handed out by the official spokesman of the conference, H. P. Everest of Washington, a faculty representative, as the conference headed into the final session with a television policy still to be handled on the agenda.

PRIVATE SESSION
Actually, in effect, it was signed by a "consensus" of the nine conference coaches after what must have been an interesting private session of the coaches, and of the coaches with the athletic directors and the faculty representatives.

Behind the "consensus" admittedly was a controversy stemming directly from the 54-7 win by Rose Bowl bound USC over Stanford.

Stanford's athletic director, Al Masters, admitted under pressure that he brought movies of the game to the conference meeting. He said the school wanted to know if they might show rule violations.

Stanford did not charge dirty football, Everest asserted.

NOT SHOWN
For one reason or another not disclosed, the movies were not screened here, but the USC-Stanford game was discussed at considerable length.

The conference eased back on its tight athletic recruiting policy.

Zags Win
SPOKANE — Gonzaga settled down after a wild first half Wednesday night and handed Whitman's missionaries a 77-54 basketball licking.

The Zags' Chuck Goligoski topped the scoring with 17 points. Dick Fain's 10 points were high for Whitman.

Gonzaga led 12-10 in the first period, 31-23 at halftime and 60-27 at the three-quarter mark.
