Couples In Turnabout

HOLLYWOOD (AP) - Bandleader Billy May is going to marry the divorced wife of his business agent, Carlos Gastel, and Gastel, in a reciprocal mood, is going to wed the former Mrs. Billy May. That's the way things are, says May's press agent, Gene Howard, who added that Mrs. Gastel and May are in Bloomington, Ill., where May is on tour with his orchestra. Gastel and Mrs. May are due back from an eastern trip today, said Howard. May and Mrs. Gastel are expected home just before Christmas. The Mays were divorced Nov. 21, the Gastels Dec. 2. Both wives alleged cruelty. Both have two children by their divorced mates. Howard said the quadrangle started when Gastel began managing May a year ago. "He became friendly with Billy's wife," said Howard, "and it got to be a constant thing. With Billy and Mrs. Gastel it seemed to start out as a matter of crying on each other's shoulder, but soon they were being seen together a lot."

New Truck Firm to Open

Grand opening of the only exclusive truck sales and service business in the Klamath area - Hitchcock and Mosher - is scheduled for all day tomorrow at the firm's new building at 312 Spring Street. The business sells and services GMC trucks, and allied lines. Though its staff is made up mostly of employees formerly with the West-Hitchcock Corporation, which handled farm, industrial and other heavy equipment, the new firm deals strictly in trucks. It is jointly operated by three partners - Phil Hitchcock, Steve Mosher and G. H. (Chuck) Johnson.

"All eyes on Oregon!" says Gwen Redford as she admires a pair of fine cowboy boots, especially made to honor the state of Oregon. These boots show replicas of the state capitol building, seal and other state insignia. They were made by Acme, the world's largest makers of cowboy boots, and are now on display at the

EMPORIUM 618 Main

The staff consists of 22 persons, and the new building, one of the most modern of its type built in this area, boasts radiant heat from a floor system which makes it convenient for mechanics. The heating system has been developed from a natural hot water well. The grand opening is to include refreshments and parties. Doors open at 8 a.m., and will remain open until 5:30 p.m.
