

SOCIETY

by Milly Ramsby

MRS. LLEWELLEN GEHRING . . . was Barbara Maxine Foltz, before her November wedding. In the oval, top, from the left, Sandra Foster and Walter Ray "Butch" Estill, flower girl and ring bearer; back of them, May Louise Foltz and Mrs. Randel Foster; and matron of honor, Mrs. John Hitson. Lower oval, Randel Foster, best man; and Lester Foltz and John Hitson, ushers.

MRS. GEORGE MARSON . . . who was Martha Krizo, prior to her November 23rd wedding in Sacred Heart Church.

THE REV. D. B. ANDERSON Klamath Temple, congratulates the handsome couple after the 3 p.m. service.

"TO US" . . . the happy couple toast each other at the reception. In oval at right, leaving the church for the reception.

Marson Wedding Photos
By Guderian

Gehring Wedding Photos
By Forebee

ONE OF THE MANY NOTES . . . read in a serious and sentimental moment.

THE NEW MR. AND MRS. MARSON . . . with bride's attendants at the reception table in the Pelican Cafe Party Room. From the left, little Dattie Krizo, bride's niece, flower girl; Mrs. Robert K. Thompson, matron of honor; to right of bride and bridegroom, Helen Suty, and Mrs. Johnny Lane, bridesmaids. The three attendants are all cousins of the bride.