

JUANITA CLINE RECENT BRIDE

Juanita Marie Cline, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Cline, 738 Spruce Street, was a pretty bride in First Christian Church, Nov. 22, when the Rev. George Alder read the 8 p.m. service solemnizing her marriage to Arthur Dean Barker, son of Mrs. Marvin Hammerley, Weaverville, Calif.

She wore a gown of lace and net over satin, with scalloped yoke and hemline, sequin edged; with a pleated ruffle of tulle on the satin underskirt. The dress was made by her aunt, Mrs. Frank Goodwin, for Juanita's cousin, Janet Marie (Mrs. DeLes Jones), for her recent wedding in Sacramento. The dress is to be worn by future brides in the family. With it, Juanita wore a veil of illusion net edged in lace, held by a small band of satin, sequin trimmed, with small clusters of orange blossoms at each side.

BARBARA FOLTZ AND LOU GEHRING EXCHANGE VOWS IN RECENT RITES

Of interest to their many friends was the wedding of Barbara Maxine Foltz to Llewellyn M. Gehring in Klamath Temple, Nov. 23. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lester Foltz, and the bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Gehring, all of this city. The Rev. D. B. Anderson read the service at 3 p.m., before a background of large white chrysanthemums effectively arranged with masses of greenery.

Ruby Gehring, bridegroom's sister, accompanied by Mrs. George McIntyre, sang "Because" and "The Lord's Prayer." In traditional white, styled with a fitted bodice of lace over satin, long sleeves pointed at the wrists, peter pan collar, and full skirt of satin with a lace panel at the back extending into a full court train, the bride was escorted to the altar by her father, who gave her in marriage. Her fingertip veil of illusion net was held by a contour-band of lace and seed pearls, with a small cluster of ribbon and orange blossoms at either side. She carried a white Bible centered with a white orchid.

Sandra Foster, pretty little four year old niece of the bridegroom, wore a pale lavender floor length gown. Her bouquet was the same as the bridesmaids, and she wore matching flowers in her hair. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Randel Foster. Handsome four year old Walter Ray (Butch) Estill, cousin of the bride, and son of Mr. and Mrs. Ray T. Estill, was ring bearer. Mrs. Foltz chose a navy blue costume with red accessories for her daughter's wedding, and her shoulder corsage was of red rosebuds.

Mrs. Gehring, mother of the bridegroom, also wore navy blue with pink accessories, and she wore a corsage of pink rosebuds. The reception table in the church parlors was centered with an ornate wedding cake flanked with arrangements of pink rosebuds and maiden hair fern. Aunt of the bride, Gladys Foltz, served the cake; punch was served by Mrs. James Adams, San Francisco; and Mrs. Richard Schieferstein, assisted by Cleo Allen and Jean Wright, Donna Foltz, sister of the bride, carried the guest book. For the wedding trip to the Bay Area, the new Mrs. Gehring wore a deep wine velvet suit with gray accessories; and she wore the white orchid from her bridal bouquet as a corsage.

"Lou" was discharged from the U.S. Navy last March, after serving four years on a submarine tender as an electrician. He is now attending OIT. The popular newlyweds are both graduates of KUHS; and are at home to their friends at 135 Lincoln.

MARJON-KRIZO WEDDING IN SACRED HEART CATHOLIC CHURCH

A beautiful gown of white nylon eyelet embroidery over satin, styled with a fitted bodice, sweetheart neckline, long fitted sleeves and full court train, was worn by lovely Martha Krizo for her wedding to George Marson in Sacred Heart Church, Nov. 23. A halo of net outlined with seed pearls and sequins held her fingertip veil of tulle. She carried a crescent shaped bouquet of Aristocrat roses.

The double-ring service was read by the Rev. T. P. Casey at 3 p.m.

She was escorted to the chancel rail by her brother Frank Krizo, who gave her in marriage. Preceding the ceremony, Mrs. Robert Long sang Schubert's "Ave Maria" and "Panis Angelicus," accompanied at the organ by Paul Clark, who also played the traditional wedding marches. Mrs. Robert K. Thompson was matron of honor for her cousin. She wore a ballerina-length frock of aqua with an overskirt of imported French silver lace. Her half-hat was outlined in matching carnations and her bouquet was also of aqua carnations.

luminated with lighted tapers in floor candelabra. Mrs. Mildred Marson, mother of the bridegroom, came from Portland to attend her son's wedding, and she wore a steel-gray satin afternoon dress with matching accessories. Her shoulder corsage was of Talisman roses. The reception in the Pelican Cafe Banquet Room immediately followed the ceremony. Mrs. Elizabeth Duncan, Portland, sister of the bridegroom, was at the coffee service. Mrs. John Krizo and Mrs. Phillip Krizo, Tulelake, sisters-in-law of the bride served the four-tiered wedding cake, assisted by Mrs. Earl Brooks, who also was in charge of the guest book. For traveling, the new Mrs. Marson chose a winter-white galbardine suit, deep purple accessories, winter-white hat with purple veil; and her shoulder corsage was a purple orchid. The couple is now at home, 1621 Fremont, after a wedding trip to various points in Southern California. Martha is a graduate of Sacred Heart Academy, and George was graduated from KUHS.
