SOROPTIMIST

The Soroptimist Club had an interesting meeting on international relations when they met Thursday for luncheon at the Pelican Cafe and heard David Patterson of Oregon State College tell of his experiences as an exchange student in Finland, where he spent five and a half months under the sponsorship of the 4-H Club Foundation.

CAMP FIRE GIRLS AT CHILOQUIN

CHILOQUIN — An impressive candlelight ceremonial was held on Friday evening by the two Chilochiquin groups of Camp Fire Girls with the two local groups of Bluebirds sitting in an outer ring as special guests. The service was planned by Marcia Prescott, who has lived most of her life in Chilochiquin but just recently moved to Malin. Marcia is working for a Torchbearer's rank. In charge of the service were the leaders and their assistants, Mrs. Gene Marchington, Mrs. Leonard Swanson, Mrs. Walter Collins and Kay Heglund. The leaders of the Bluebirds are Mrs. Dwight Kircher, Mrs. Victor Sisson, Mrs. Albert Briscoe and Mrs. Joe Adams.

ANW Club Meeting

Art Needlework Club met with Mrs. D. V. Kuykendall at her home on California Avenue, Dec. 3, for a 1 p.m. luncheon. Her interesting collection of pitchers and jugs occasioned much enthusiastic comment; and one in particular, was a ginger jug brought "around the horn" in 1833 by Jesse Applegate, Mrs. Kuykendall's grandfather. Another highlight of the afternoon was the showing of a William Henry Harrison campaign button with a picture of a log cabin and a "hard cider" slogan printed on it. The pin is now 111 years old. Members present were: Mrs. George R. Hurn, Mrs. R. H. Anderson, Mrs. Z. J. Powell, Mrs. Wilbur A. Jones, Mrs. Charles J. Martin, Mrs. J. C. Hunt, Mrs. Marion Hanks, Mrs. C. H. Underwood, Mrs. Carey M. Ramsay and the hostess.

CIC MAKES YULETIDE PLANS

FORT KLAMATH—The weekend of December 20 will be a busy one for club members and the community in general, according to plans made at the regular meeting of the Civic Improvement Club Friday afternoon, December 5. Scheduled for Saturday evening, December 20, is the annual Christmas party for husbands and families of club members, beginning with a potluck dinner in the club house at 7 p.m., followed by the Christmas tree gift exchange.

Reports on activities of the past year will be given by the president, Mrs. Harold Wimer, and the secretary, Mrs. Bert Gray, will summarize her duties for 1952. Club treasurer, Mrs. William A. Page, will give a financial report for the past twelve months. In response to a suggestion made by the president, club members at Friday's meeting voted to extend the community an invitation to attend the get-together December 20, only stipulation being that each person accepting is to bring a gift not to exceed 50 cents in value for the gift exchange; also an item of food for the potluck dinner the same as club members and their families will do.

Appointed as a committee in charge of decorations and gift exchange were Mrs. Joanna Taylor and Mrs. William A. Page. Mrs. Harold Wimer and Mrs. Frank Edwards will be in charge of kitchen and dining room arrangements. Sunday, December 21, is the big event of the pre-holiday season, in the local Methodist church—the annual program and Christmas tree for the community. Entertainment will feature local Sunday school and grade school pupils, under the direction of Mrs. H. T. Williams and Mrs. Frank Strahan, respectively;

REBEKAHS AT MERRILL

MERRILL — Mrs. Robert Burleigh will serve as noble grand of Merrill Rebekah Lodge 131; and her assistants are Mrs. John Stolt, vice grand; Mrs. Frank Hunnicutt, secretary; Anne Fruita, financial secretary, and Mrs. Lena Buck as the treasurer. They were elected at a regular meeting of the organization, Dec. 1.

The lodge will sponsor a cooked food sale; time and place to be announced later. Proceeds will be used for the sustaining perpetual membership fund. At the next regular meeting, Dec. 15, there will be a Christmas tree, but instead of the usual gift exchange, members are asked to bring a toy, or some useful gift to be given to the Merrill Fire Department for distribution among needy Merrill families.

A short skit, "The Three Trees," was presented by Anna Howard, Velton Haszina, Ann Johnson, Leta Stolt, Vivian Cunningham, Warren Fruita, and Laura Lou Hill. Winner of the contest will be announced at the next meeting. The winning team will be served dinner by the losers at the first meeting in January. Beth Robley, who has been in Japan for the past six years, gave a very interesting account of her experiences. She discussed customs of the country, and answered numerous questions about the Japanese people. Refreshments were served by Mr. and Mrs. Tom Barry, Mrs. Elmer Stukel, Mrs. Glenn Hunnicutt and Mrs. Jennie Fugate.

Malin

By MRS. JOE BALOUSEK
A surprise farewell party was given the Ivan Ottomans Monday evening Dec. 8, when a group of their friends met at the Laddie Rajanus home, North of Malin. The group enjoyed the lively game of Bunco during the evening and prizes were awarded to Mrs. Byron Johnson, Cecil Jackson and Bill Rajanus. Refreshments were served by the hostesses, Mrs. Laddie Rajanus and Mrs. Frank Payer. Guests were Mr. and Mrs. Bill Rajanus, Mr. and Mrs. Byron Johnson, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Halousek, Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Rajanus, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Payer, Marie Ottoman, Mr. and Mrs. Ivan Ottoman, Cecil Jackson, Donald and Karen Rajanus. Mr. and Mrs. Ottoman plan to leave this month for Tacoma, where they will make their home. They have resided in Malin for fourteen years, coming here shortly after they were married. Ivan has lived here most of his life. Their friends are sorry to see them go. "Sleeping Beauty" a dance ballet fantasy will be presented by pupils of the Ruybe Kujac Dance Studio at the Broadway Theater in Malin on Thursday, Dec. 18, at 8 p.m. Enchanting scenery showing the familiar settings of the fairy story, has been built and it, combined with the superb and colorful costumes, promises to make it a special treat for those who see it. Children who will take part in the ballet are: Evelyn and Ellen Rajanus, Kathy and Sammy Herringshaw, Mauna Lyons, Judy Schaffner, Libby Byrne, Georgia Oreshim, Karen Gentry, Janice Morgan, Tessie Powell, Olyvia, Sue Weatherby, Buelben Clark, Karen Rajanus, Susan Kujac, Sharon Lyons, Janet Drager, Susan Wilson, Shirley Haynes, Pamela D. Pratt, Margaret Rund, Donna Olyvia, Diane Stanley, Karla Sue Baker, Linda Peterson, Celeste Winkelman, Michael Crawford, Susan Crawford, John Gentry, Vondine Olson, Fay Peterson and Betty Crabie. Tickets, which are seventy five cents, may be purchased at the box office or in advance.

Chemult

By VIRGINIA TAYLOR
Friends of Al Rowe were very sorry to hear of the death of his mother, Mrs. Alice Long, Raymond, Wash. Dec. 6. Mr. Rowe left for the funeral which was held at South Bend, Wash., Wednesday. Mrs. Cora Bradford, mother of Mrs. Grady C. Gooch, left for Portland, Dec. 8, to visit another daughter, Mrs. George Crocker, of that city. Ray Krieger, manager of the local Standard Station, motored to Woodburn and Corvallis on his time off last week. Everyone is dreading but from the storm and for once Chemult was fortunate it had power when all about us the county was struggling for electricity. However the phone service was still out Tuesday afternoon. Highway crews are trying to clean out the snow, but it is almost impossible with the limited parking here. Large freight trucks, Christmas tree haulers, convoys and delivery trucks parking for various reasons, slow up the progress of the clean-up job.

ZION LUTHERAN WOMENS GUILD

Zion Lutheran Women's Guild met in the church on the evening of Dec. 4. The group was led in devotions by Dotia Graef. The topic, "Best Loved Hymns" was presented by Vera Petrick. The following new officers were elected: President, Virginia Ruter; Vice President, Ora Moe Eberlein; Secretary, Helen Schilling; Treasurer, Elinor Buser. Hostesses for the evening were Margaret Kirkpatrick and Mary Burwell. The remainder of the evening was spent on the group's project, making hand dipped candles. The Christmas Party will be at the home of Mrs. Harold Eberlein, 2200 Vine Ave., Tuesday, Dec. 30, 7:30 p.m. There will be a gift exchange.

VFW Auxiliary Christmas Party

MERRILL — Marie Vachita of Malin, district president of VFW Auxiliaries, was the honored guest at a meeting Dec. 3, of local VFW Auxiliary, Lavina Storey, teacher of the kindergarten sponsored by the Auxiliary, was also a guest of the meeting. Plans were discussed for a Christmas party Dec. 17. All VFW members and their families are invited. Following the business session, members and guests adjourned to the home of president Mildred Walker. Santa appeared to pass out gifts, and turkey with all the "trimmings" was served by Mrs. Walker. Members present included: Mrs. James Hodges, Mrs. Paschall Hodges, Mrs. Sherman Waldrip, Mrs. Joe Fotheringham, Mrs. Billie Woodhouse, Mrs. L. C. Fleck, Mrs. Al Duncan, Mrs. Ralph Swisher, Mrs. Alex Duncan, Mrs. Dick Marks, Mrs. James Hammond, Mrs. Pete Calise, Mrs. Milton Lopez, Mrs. Robert Merrilees, Mrs. Glen Hunnicutt, Mrs. Robert Trotman, Mrs. Lawson Kandra, Mrs. Warren Walker, Mrs. Dale Walker, Mrs. William Walker, the two guests, and the hostess Mrs. R. R. Walker.

LIBRARY CLUB 48TH MEETING

Klamath Falls Library Club meeting scheduled for Monday, Dec. 15, will be the 48th since the club was organized. All presidents of the club now living in Klamath Falls will be honored guests. Mrs. Fred Hoagland, president, announced that the annual Christmas program, under the direction of Andrew Loney Jr., will feature the KUHS orchestra and the high school girls' glee club. Meeting starts at 2 p.m., and club officers will serve refreshments.
