College Cage Campaign Picks Up Speed This Week

BY SHELDON SAKOWITZ

NEW YORK (AP)—The collegiate basketball season gains momentum this week with a host of games sprinkled around the country that should determine the relative strengths of many teams.

It's westward in for highly touted La Salle of Philadelphia, last year's National Invitation champions, as the Explorers continue a cross-country tour.

The classy Pennsylvanians made their first stop at Dayton last night and posted their fifth straight victory by polishing off the Flyers, 73-64, in overtime. The team were finalists in the National Invitation Tournament last spring.

On Tuesday La Salle visits Arizona. Friday the Explorers go to San Francisco to meet Santa Clara. They play Stanford Saturday.

Another Eastern independent powerhouse, Seton Hall of South Orange, N. J., also has a busy week ahead. The Setonians, who recovered their fifth triumph in a row Saturday by thrashing Kings (Pa.), 97-51, participate in three intercollegiate games.

The Pirates play host to Louisville tonight and John Carroll Tuesday night and then clash with Western Kentucky Thursday at Madison Square Garden.

North Carolina State gets an opportunity to enhance its Southern Conference stature Thursday when the Wolfpack takes to the road against Georgia Washington. They return home Saturday for an intercollegiate skirmish against Texas Tech.

The defending titlist are 3-1 in the league standings and have captured five out of six in overall competition. Last Saturday they tripped previously unbeaten Eastern Kentucky, 85-75.

Louisiana State University, picked to replace idle Kentucky as the Southeastern Conference leader, opens its league schedule Wednesday at Alabama. With prolific-scoring Roy Pettit paving the way, LSU has amassed four successive victories over non-loop foes.

Illinois, rated as one of the nation's top-ranking quints, launches defense of its Big Ten crown tonight against Michigan. Minnesota, also a formidable contender for Big Ten supremacy, has taken three in a row and is resting until Dec. 23 when it meets Illinois. The Gophers turned back Nebraska, 71-62, Saturday.

Another Midwest kingdom, unbeaten Kansas State, favored in the Big Seven race, engages in three intercollegiate tussles this week. The Wildcats, with a pair of close victories over Drake and Indiana, are at home with San Francisco tonight. They travel to East Lansing, Mich., Friday to meet Notre Dame and then face Michigan State the next night.

Kansas, the NCAA Tourney champion, aims to get back on the victory trail at the expense of SMU Friday and Saturday nights at Lawrence. The Jayhawks won their opener rather handily from Tulane, but were rudely jolted Saturday by Rice, 54-51.

Teams in the Southwest Conference concluded their first week of activity with Rice, Texas Christian and Texas emerging unscathed. Arkansas, the preseason favorite, was slung by Tulsa, but bounced back Saturday to crush Mississippi State, 102-71.

On the Pacific Coast, California has an unblemished state in four nonconference games, while defending Champion UCLA and Washington boast 3-1 records. California is at Washington Friday and Saturday nights.

Through the first half, the teams battled a 13-13 stalemate with Otto Graham and Co. kicking two field goals and Joe Scott plunging over from the 1 for the other New York tally.

But Charley threw three scoring heaves in the third period, which with Jim Poole's 15-yard quarter field goal was enough to stave off the last-period rally of the Browns.

In the other league game the Chicago Bears edged the Chicago Cardinals, 16-7, on George Blazda's 10-yard field goal and seven yard touchdown pass to Chuck Hunsinger.

OSC Nips Broncos On Whiteman's Free Toss

By The Associated Press

The Oregon State Beavers and Idaho's Vandals, tuned up for the Northern Division basketball season with victories over visiting non-league opponents Saturday while Washington, the defending champion, and Washington State dropped games on the road.

The Beavers, defeated 68-66 Friday by Santa Clara, last year's Western NCAA champions, turned the tables Saturday 69-68. Idaho rolled up an easy 68-57 win over Gonzaga at Moscow. Washington split a two-game series with UCLA at Los Angeles, and Washington State bowed 64-59 to St. Louis University.

FAVORED

The Washington - UCLA series brought together the teams that fought it out for the Coast Conference championship last season, and are favored to repeat in 1953.

Washington, defeated in the 1952 Coast finals, gained a measure of revenge by downing the Bruins 63-49 Friday, but the Californians came back strong Saturday to whip the Huskies 54-47.

Bob Houbregs, Washington's basketball star, was the individual shot artist of Saturday's clash. He Chiloquin also won the junior varsity series over the Grizzlies by a 30-19 count.
