Labor Unions Criticize H-N

PORTLAND (AP)—Oregon's newspapers do a pretty good—but not perfect—job of reporting on labor news, the Portland Central Labor Council's educational committee reported Tuesday.

Mae Darling, chairman of the committee which got reports from various Oregon AFL unions relative to 37 daily and weekly newspapers in the state, said 35 of them were regarded by the local unions as giving fair treatment to news of union activity. The reports were on news stories, not editorials.

Unions in the Klamath Falls and Roseburg districts, she said, were critical of the Klamath Falls Herald and News and the Roseburg News-Review. Both of those papers are being picketed by the AFL International Typographical Union, in a two-year-old dispute over use of Teletypewriter equipment in setting type.

However, no criticism was voiced on the manner in which the Herald and News handled coverage of the 1951 Oregon State Federation of Labor convention there, Miss Darling said some of the complaints revolved around jurisdictional disputes, and she said the inter-union arguments, rather than prejudiced news handling, might have brought the complaints.

Some locals called one unnamed newspaper fair while others said it was not fair.

Jodie Eggers, secretary of the CIO Columbia River District Council, said newspapers as a rule "treat us pretty good" and while sometimes facts are garbled "the garbling is, I am sure, unintentional."

King Vidor Faces Charge

LOS ANGELES (AP)—Film director King Vidor, 57, is accused of adultery with Mary Anderson, 31, petite redhead, in an amended divorce complaint filed by his third wife, Betty, 51.

Twenty years ago Mrs. Vidor, then Betty Hill, who served as the director's script girl, was named correspondent by actress Eleanor Boardman, Vidor's second wife.

Vidor's attorney was granted a continuance yesterday until next May 14 to prepare his case in view of the new charge.

Miss Anderson, a screen actress, issued a statement saying, "This comes as a complete shock. I do know Mr. Vidor. We are just friends. There is no truth to any charge that we were or are more than that."

Radio Plans Eskimo Show

WHEELING, W. Va. (AP)—Radio station WWVA will have a special Christmas greeting Saturday for the 7,000 Eskimos who live around Hudson Bay.

The word here is that practically all the 7,000 will be listening at missions and trading posts.

The Eskimos, it turns out, love mountain music and have been regular fans of WWVA musical programs.

Hearing of its special fans more than 2,000 miles away, WWVA asked Bishop Scheffer of Montreal to prepare the Christmas message. A priest, Father Thibert, who has served in the missions maintained the Oblique of Mary Immaculate in the barren land, translated the message into Eskimo talk and recorded it in Montreal for the broadcast Saturday night.

Thieves Steal Movie Snakes

HOLLYWOOD (AP)—Burglars, apparently intent on starting a jungle, broke into the Hollywood Aquarium, stole a six-foot Anaconda water box snake, an eight-foot indigo snake, a six-foot indigo snake, two five-foot box constrictors and a rare Siamese gekko lizard.

The gekko, said owner Sylvester Chichester Lloyd, will be easy to recognize, because it's the only one in captivity here.

"It has big feet," Lloyd explained to a puzzled police sergeant. "Its underside is like a venetian blind and it also runs up and down walls like a venetian blind. In Southeast Asia the gekko is kept in hotel rooms to eat the roaches. He runs around the room all night making a noise that sounds like 'gekko, gekko, gekko.'"

Three Die In Home Blast

FLORENCE, Ariz. (AP)—A gasoline stove exploded in a two-story house yesterday and three teenage girls were burned to death in the roaring flames.

The victims were trapped in the upper story of the frame structure. They were identified as Lilymae Ferrin, 17, and her sisters Rachael, 14, and Judy, 12, daughters of Mr. and Mrs. John Ferrin.

BOYCOTT

CAIRO, Egypt (AP)—Religious leaders of Cairo's 1,000-year-old Moslem university, Al Azhar, have called on all Islam for an economic and cultural boycott of France in retaliation for what they called "oppressive, imperialistic" French policies in North Africa.

DEDICATION SERVICES FOR THE NEW Mt. Laki Community Church will be held Sunday, 2 p.m. The service will mark the completion of a $48,000 pumice tile structure that replaces one of the oldest churches in Klamath County. The church sanctuary at Henley is the gift of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Semon, in memory of Henley boys who gave their lives in World War II. The Sunday School rooms and remainder of the building were completed with voluntary contributions and gifts. The new building is free of debt. Dedication services will be in charge of the Rev. Arthur Rice, pastor.

Pioneer Movie Producer Writes His Autobiography

BY BOB THOMAS
 HOLLYWOOD (AP)—Film producers who are working themselves into an early grave should heed the example of Albert E. Smith. He retired from movie making 27 years ago and has been having a wonderful time ever since.

Smith is one of the most remarkable personalities in Hollywood. He has written his story in "Two Reels and a Crank," an autobiography which has just been published.

When I heard about the book, I decided to hunt up the pioneer film maker. I found him at his large, comfortable home just off Hollywood Boulevard. White-haired and peppery at 77, Smith is one of the remaining members of that fabulous breed of immigrant boys who struck it rich in the U.S.

It's a good idea not to ask him when he got into the movie business because he'll reply: "There wasn't any movie business when I started making movies."

That was in 1896. Smith had come to this country from his native England at the age of 13, in 1882. He became interested in show business and booked up with J. Stuart Blackton in a Lyceum circuit that sent out lecturers and entertainers.

The pair were attracted by Thomas Edison's new motion picture gadget. With Blackton as the artist and Smith as the mechanical mind, they formed the Vitagraph Company. It became and remained one of the biggest names in the movie business.

In 1925, Smith sold Vitagraph to Warner Brothers and retired at the age of 50. Why did he sell out?

"The company was not doing well," he replied. "It was an enterprise with 80 offices in this country, 20 in England and others all over the world. All the burden was on my shoulders."

"Also, I had a consultation with several doctors, including one I had grown up with. He said if I quit work I might live as long as my father, who died at 98. But if I didn't, he said he wouldn't be responsible. I had been working since I was 11, so I decided to stop and enjoy life."

Unlike many men who have led strenuous lives, Smith had no trouble adjusting to retirement. The sale left him well-fixed. (Asked how much he received, he answered: "That's my business.")

For a few years he operated a cattle ranch in San Diego County, riding horseback 25 miles a day. In recent years, he has lived in Hollywood.

"I've never been bored," he commented. "I've got so many hobbies that I don't have the time for all of them. My favorites are collecting watches and old books."

He remained out of the limelight until 1948, when the Motion Picture Academy honored him for his pioneer work in the industry. Howard Cady, West Coast editor for Doubleday and now with Little, Brown, urged him to write his memoirs. Smith consented, col-

U.N. To End Moroccan Debate

UNITED NATIONS, N. Y. (AP)—The U. N. hopes to wrap up its debate on Morocco today with a vote on two rival—but similar—resolutions urging France and her North African protectorate to settle their differences.

The General Assembly's Political Committee scheduled the last speakers in debate on the question this morning and planned a final vote before afternoon.

These were the two resolutions before the committee:

1. Sponsored by 13 Asian and Arab nations—Asking France and the Sultan of Morocco to negotiate for an early settlement "in accordance with the sovereignty of Morocco, the aspirations of her people" and the U. N. Charter.

2. By 11 Latin American countries—Expresses hope France and Morocco "will continue negotiations on an urgent basis towards developing the free political institutions of the people of Morocco, with due regard to legitimate rights and interests under the established norms and practices of the law of nations."

As it became apparent during the debate that the latter draft had the stronger support, Pakistan last night asked that the Latin American resolution be amended to call for negotiations "with a view to bringing about self-government for Morocco."

This wording was identical to that in the Tunisian resolution adopted by the committee last week, but the group voted down the Pakistani amendment. Last night and the Latin American resolution remained in its original form.

France, which has boycotted the debates on both Tunisia and Morocco, has indicated she will ignore all resolutions on the two questions. She contends her relations with her two North African protectorates are her own domestic affair and no business of the U. N.

The Americans voted for the Latin American resolution on Tunisia and were expected also to support that group's plan for Morocco.
