

Phone Santa at 5131

Klamath Junior Chamber of Commerce members have pushed through a connection with Santa Claus' North Pole Residence, according to Chairman Wayne Plaisted. His telephone number is 5131.

Phone calling started Tuesday night, and is to continue through tonight from 5:30 to 8 p.m. Last year about 600 calls were received, and Santa is expecting at least that many this year.

News Story Irks Shirley

WASHINGTON (AP) — Shirley Temple angrily withdrew her daughter from a private school Wednesday saying it had tried to commercialize on the child's performance in a Christmas play.

Four-year-old Linda Susan, was a fairy in "Cinderella" Tuesday at Honeywell school.

What irked her mother, who is now Mrs. Charles Black, was a newspaper story that this was Susan's stage debut and she would repeat her performance Thursday night at the American University gymnasium.

Shirley said she had been told the Thursday show would be a benefit, with admissions charged. Susan is just one year older than her mother was when she began her famous career as a child movie star. She is the daughter of John Agar, Shirley's first husband.

"I am appalled that the Honeywell school would attempt to capitalize on Susan's presence in a childish class exercise," Mrs. Black said in a statement.

"It is a sad commentary that Susan must be parted from her good little friends at Christmas time but I have not and will not allow anyone to commercialize on my daughter's presence."

Dr. D. W. Honeywell, the school head, was not available for immediate comment.

Mrs. Black attended the performance at the school Tuesday afternoon, along with other mothers.

But, she told a reporter, she was amazed when she got there and found news photographers on the scene.

How about Susan's performance? "I was proud," she said, "like all mothers."
