Tito's Break With Vatican May Endanger Anti-Russ Ties

WASHINGTON (AP) — Marshal Tito's break with the Vatican aroused fresh worry here today over the weakest link in the chain of anti-Soviet nations in Europe—relations between Communist Yugoslavia and Catholic Italy. The American government's concern with the situation arises from its desire, as a matter of major policy, to establish the closest political and military co-operation among all the European countries, in and out of the North Atlantic Alliance, in the interest of checking Soviet power.

Yugoslavia closer to the Western European nations, and (2) trying to solve the Italian-Yugoslav dispute over Trieste. Furthermore, some officials think there may be difficulties with Congress, where the anti-Soviet Communist government of Yugoslavia has always been regarded with skepticism by many members.

During the fiscal year which ended last June 30 the U. S., Britain and France together provided Tito with 120 million dollars, this year their help totals 99 millions. In both years the American share has been 78 millions. The Truman administration has regarded Yugoslavia as a great asset to the West because (1) it is a living example of the ability of a satellite nation to break with Moscow and survive, and (2) Tito's 30-odd divisions, though they have been badly in need of modernization, are a valuable addition to anti-Soviet strength.
