

CITY BRIEFS

The Royal-Neighbors of America will give their annual Christmas party, Dec. 21, at 8 p.m., starting with a potluck dinner followed by a program and treats for the children. Members and their families are invited. There will be a miscellaneous shower for Sarah Harrington Stephens, one of the members who lost her home by fire. Any gift will be appreciated.

Correction—The last name was inadvertently left off the name of Florence May Withrow, 80, first white child born in Klamath County, who died Dec. 11 at Medford. Mrs. Withrow was an aunt of O. L. Brown, Olene. Funeral services for Mrs. Withrow were held Dec. 19.

Calling All Ladies—Eagles. Don't forget our needy family. Boxes for contributions now in the lobby of the hall awaiting your generous contributions. The Lady Eagles Club will meet Dec. 22, 6:30 p.m. in the lower hall for the annual Christmas dinner. Husbands are invited. Please call 6992 for particulars.

Evergreen—Garden Club will cancel the "Prayers for Peace" ceremony, planned for 3 p.m. Sunday at Peace Memorial Presbyterian church to have been held in connection with the statewide ceremony at that hour at the Camp White Hospital. Cancellation is due to weather conditions but

FFA Banquet Held in Malin

MALIN—Malin Chapter of Future Farmers of America held its annual parent and son banquet Dec. 9.

In attendance were the members and their parents, faculty members of the high school, Glenn Cleveland, State Sentinel and his father and other special guests. Honorary members attending were Riley DeLap, president of the Merrill Bank, and M. J. Lookey, Malin. Other honorary members were unable to attend because of the severe storm.

Pres. Jerry Macken called the meeting to order. The state sentinel was introduced to the group and gave a very interesting speech on Leadership. Don Miller and his boys chorus and Mrs. Ab Herringshaw's girl chorus sang several numbers that were much enjoyed. A report from each of the officers was given and Clark Unruh, chapter treasurer, gave a speech on the Keystone of America. Chapter Sentinel Ed McAuliffe, reported on last year's state convention. Virgil Rick, secretary, talked on the Leadership Conference, and Ed Pierce, reporter, reported on last year's District convention. Vice Pres. Stuart Hensel showed pictures of the fishing trip, which the chapter had made.

The Future Farmers wish to thank Mrs. Keeler, home ec teacher and members of her class for preparing and serving the chicken dinner.

Malin Girl Scouts Formed

MALIN—Troop 47, Malin Girl Scouts, has been organized with the following members: Shariene Rinear, Phyllis Unruh, Sharon Louisignont, Glynna Sue Weatherby, Sharon Woltjer, Jean Quinn, Barbara Dutton and Nina Perkins. Troop leader is Dorothea Elmore. Senior Scouts, Janet Emore and Flo Johnson are Program aides. Mrs. Lee Martin, Mrs. T. E. Weatherby and Mrs. V. R. Louisignont will act as the Troop Committee.

The girls elected the following officers: president, Shariene Rinear; vice president, Barbara Dutton; secretary-treasurer, Sharon Louisignont and song leader, Phyllis Unruh.

each member of the club is urged to join in these "petitions" at 3 o'clock by lighting a Christmas tree in her home and offering a prayer for world peace.

Traveling—Mr. and Mrs. Sam Morris and family will go to Gardner on the coast to spend Christmas with Morris's parents. Mr. and Mrs. Sam L. Morris, Morris' younger brother, James serving with a paratrooper unit in Alaska will be home for the holidays, the first time in three years.

The Annual—Disabled American Veterans' Christmas party for children will be held tonight, 6:30 p.m., at the K. C. Hall. Santa will be there with treats.

Improving—Mrs. A. D. Tilton, Lakeview, who has been in Klamath Valley Hospital with a broken left arm above the elbow, is recuperating at the home of a daughter, Mrs. Charles Zumwalt, 724 Uerlings. Mrs. Tilton was injured in an automobile collision a week ago near the Mt. Calvary cemetery on the Lakeview highway.

The Friendship—Club will meet Monday, Dec. 22, 8 p.m., at the home of Mrs. Irene Markham, 931 Lincoln. There will be a 50 cent gift exchange and each member is asked to bring something for the Christmas Basket. All members and friends invited.

Teenage Dance—tonight at the FOE Hall, dancing 10 to 1 p.m. Music by Les Gardner. Children of members and guests are invited. Bob Rice is chairman.

The Annual—State employees potluck dinner is planned for the Klamath County Fairgrounds Saturday night, Dec. 20, 6 p.m. Those attending should take own plates and silver service. Turkey, beverages and rolls will be furnished.

Malin Spuds To Hollywood

MALIN—The first regular meeting since the summer vacation, was held Dec. 8, by the Chamber of Commerce, at the Malin Fire Hall. Ten directors were present. Because members recently heard a lady on the "Queen for a Day" radio program ask for a sack of potatoes, they took advantage of the situation and shipped her a 100 pound sack of Malin grown Netted Gem potatoes. The potatoes were donated by four local growers. Up to date no word has been received from the lady. A 25 pound sack of hand picked Klamath Netted Gems has also been sent to Jack Bailey, master of ceremonies of Queen for a Day.
