Ship Helpless In Pacific

VANCOUVER, B. C. (AP) — Her rudder damaged and buffeted by a heavy wind, the Canadian Pacific Steamship Company freighter Maplecove wallowed helplessly in rough North Pacific waters today. Help was en route to the 10,600-ton ship which gave a position 1,200 miles off the British Columbia coast. But officials estimated it would take the tug Island Sovereign of Vancouver at least four more days to reach the ship. The Maplecove radioed for aid yesterday while inbound to Vancouver from Yokohama. The ship's master, Capt. R. A. Leichter, reported the Maplecove was in no immediate danger although it could not be controlled. A Canadian weather ship stationed 200 miles west of the position given by the Maplecove reported later that winds of 55 to 60 miles an hour were blowing. Three or four other ships are reported in the Maplecove's vicinity to speed relief should she in due conditions have become more hazardous.

Federal Jury to Hear Florio Case

WASHINGTON (AP) — A Federal Court jury will be called upon today to decide whether Edward J. Florio, a reputed New Jersey waterfront boss, made an honest mistake or deliberately lied to a grand jury.

Florio is on trial here on a two-count perjury indictment growing out of his testimony before a New York grand jury investigating racketeering on the waterfront in the New York area.

Barring unforeseen hitches, the case should reach the jury by early afternoon.

Florio, 57, took the witness stand yesterday and swore he thought he told the truth when he appeared before the New York grand jury Oct. 23.

An soon as he found out he had made a mistake, he testified, he asked for a chance to correct his testimony.

Florio, organizer for the International Longshoremen's Association (ILA) in New Jersey, testified he was "confused when he went before the grand jury the first time.

The question for the jury here to decide is whether Florio willfully lied when he said he did not receive two checks for $1,000 each from Lawrence C. Howard, president of the Macirema Operating Company, Inc., a stevedoring firm. He said his nephew, Gerald Lamby, got the checks.

In his second appearance before the grand jury—and from the witness stand yesterday—Florio said he was originally mistaken about Lamby getting the checks. He said Howard refreshed his memory on the point that he, not Lamby, got them.

Howard said the checks were for Florio's co-operation in getting even shiploads of sugar unloaded promptly. He said Lamby never worked for his company.

Florio said Lamby helped round up workers to unload the sugar and that Lamby got the money. The checks were made out to Lamby, but bore the endorsements of both Lamby and Florio.

Florio said this was so because Lamby didn't have a bank account. If convicted on both counts, Florio faces a possible maximum sentence of 10 years, a fine of $10,000, or both.
