

Thomas Ushers in 1953 With 'Quotable Quotes'

By BOB THOMAS

HOLLYWOOD (AP) — Here it is time to start ushering the old year out with a list of the quotable quotes from Hollywood in 1952.

Movie people were making their usual amount of noise this year. Most of it was just talk, but some of the remarks were more memorable than others. Here are some of the favorites that I have gleaned from the year's happenings.

Arlene Dahl, testifying on one of the reasons why she was divorcing Lex Barker: "He called me a kick from Minnesota because I wouldn't drink a martini before dinner."

Vanessa Brown, former quiz kid: "Brains are no handicap to a girl — if she keeps them well hidden behind a plunging neckline."

Jane Russell: "Sweaters are a lazy girl's way to romance."

Joan Fontaine: "I'll never marry again until I quit my acting (She married Collier Young a few months after this statement was made.)"

Fred Allen: "When I appear on TV, the audience rushes to the movies. When I'm in the movies, they rush home to TV. I keep the audience in perpetual motion."

Bette Davis, after fainting on stage in her return to the theater in Detroit: "Well, you can't say I didn't fall for you."

Don Hartman, Paramount boss speaking of the film industry's troubles: "Why should people go out to see bad movies when they can stay home and see bad movies on TV?"

Terry Moore, divorcing Glenn Davis: "He made a wreck out of me. He asked my friends if they thought I could really act and when they said I could, he called them frauds."

Mickey Rooney, marrying for the fourth time: "I'm really in love. This is for keeps. We waited a long time to make sure we were right for each other." (He explained he and his wife, Elaine Mahuken, had known each other for two months.)

Betty Grable, citing a trend: "The eyes of the film fan world have switched up the feminine form...and I just can't compete. I've always been able to stand on my own legs, but there are lots of women with bustlines nature didn't provide."

Olivia Impressed At Grauman's

HOLLYWOOD (AP) — Two Oscars and 35 starring roles after her movie debut, Olivia de Havilland has reached the film heights. She impressed her hand and footprints alongside her signature in wet cement in the forecourt of Grauman's Chinese Theater yesterday together with those of other movie greats of today and yesterday.

Metropolitan Rehires Bing

NEW YORK (AP) — Rudolf Bing, who modernized and streamlined Metropolitan Opera productions, has been hired for another three-year term as general manager.

George A. Sloan, chairman of the Metropolitan Opera Association's Board of Directors, announced Bing's contract renewal last night and expressed satisfaction with his artistic successes at the Met.

CAMERON OK
HOLLYWOOD (AP) — Movie actor Rod Cameron is making satisfactory progress after an operation for a stomach ulcer.

The operation was performed yesterday in St. John's Hospital in Santa Monica.

Jungle Jenny Plans to Wed

GLENDALE, Calif. (AP) — Genevieve Cuypry, 28, wild animal collector known as "Jungle Jenny," will wed tonight in the presence of some royalty of the animal-collecting kingdom.

The groom is Donald Armstrong, 25, a graduate of Glendale College. They met backstage at the Ringling Brothers, Barnum & Bailey Circus in New Orleans in 1951.

Both had gone behind the scenes to meet Dr. J. J. Henderson, subject of a book titled "Circus Doctor." Armstrong was then a Navy yeoman stationed at New Orleans, Miss Cuypry was curator of the New Orleans Zoo.

Miss Cuypry has imported some 5,000 animals from India, Malaya and Siam in the past 3 1/2 years. She took over the business when her foster father died in Singapore on a collecting expedition.

The bride will be given in marriage by George Emerson, movie studio animal trainer.

Guests will include Clyde Beatty, famed circus trainer; Mrs. Belle Benchley, director of the San Diego Zoo; Marlin Perkins, director of the Lincoln Park Zoo, Chicago, conductor of a TV show called "Zoo Parade"; and Dr. William M. Mann, director of the National Zoological Park, Washington, D. C.

STUDENT DIES
CENTERVILLE, Tenn. (AP) — James P. Colvin, 20, student at the University of Mississippi, was killed last night while getting ready to go coon hunting.

Young Colvin was helping two companions load their hunting gear into the rear of a pickup truck when his rifle discharged.

Ann Blyth Engaged
HOLLYWOOD (AP) — One of Hollywood's most eligible bachelor girls, actress Ann Blyth, 24, is going to give up single life to become Mrs. James McNulty.

Through her studio, Miss Blyth announced her engagement to the Los Angeles obstetrician. He is a brother of singer Dennis Day.

Miss Blyth, born in Mt. Kisco, N. Y., said only that the wedding will be some time in 1953.

TWO KILLED
BIRMINGHAM (AP) — Two Negro children burned to death when fire destroyed a frame house last night.

Fire Chief Hoyt Ayers said the victims were Juliet Simms, 12, and her brother Davis, 8. Cause of the blaze was unknown.
