

CHRISTMAS COLORS were carried out in the wedding plans. Here, (l to r) are Mrs. Patrick Kenneally, matron of honor, the new Mr. and Mrs. Delbert Yordy and John Staunton, best man.

LIBRARY CLUB

Klamath Falls Women's Library Club met at the City Library Dec. 15. Mr. Andrew Loney Jr., presented his annual Christmas musical program, Klamath Union High School Girls Chorus directed by LaMar K. Jensen, sang, "Ye Watchers and Ye Holy Ones," 17th Century German melody, "Little Lamb, Who Made Thee," John Forest; "Now We Sing Thy Praise," Techesnoroff; "Palapan," Burgundian Carol; "Jingle Bells," arranged by Joe Blye of Oregon State College.

Klamath Union High School Orchestra directed by Walter Smith, "Cavalier Overture," Isaac; "I'll Be Home for Christmas," arranged by Walter Smith; and "Sleigh Ride," Anderson.

The remainder of the program gave recognition to the 46th birthday of the club, Mrs. William L. Wales, program chairman, read the first minutes of the club written Dec. 12, 1904. Mrs. Hoagland, president, read the names of the club's 29 past presidents and gave many interesting highlights on each. Mrs. W. S. Worden was the first president and her secretary was Evelyn Applegate, her treasurer, Mrs. Alex Martin.

Mrs. George Myers and Mrs. Ruth Babin, Mrs. Coral Sabo, Mrs. B. P. Ellingson, Mrs. Walter Brown, Mrs. L. Palmerton, Mrs. Dean Osborn, Mrs. L. F. Carter, Mrs. George Lindley, Mrs. Horace Oets, and Mrs. A. O. Roenicke.

Mrs. Don Zumwalt, our present music chairman, has worked in the library since 1906 and just missed being one of the founders by a few months.

The club room was beautifully decorated in the Christmas theme by Mrs. A. Ivan Thompson. A birthday cake decorated with 1904-1952 centered the lovely tea table. Pouring were Mrs. Coral Sabo and Mrs. Don Zumwalt. Hospitality chairman of the day were: Mrs. E. O. Jackson, Mrs. Andrew Loney Jr., and Mrs. Charles Gilbert.

The next meeting of the club will be held Jan. 12, with Dr. Elmo Stevenson, Pres. of Southern Oregon College, as guest speaker.

Letters received by out of town past presidents and read by the secretary were from: Mrs. Leslie B. Avritt, Juneau, Alaska; Mrs. Neila F. West, Oakland, Calif.; Mrs. Carleton W. Hornbrook, Carmichael, Calif.; Mrs. R. G. Groenbeck, Los Gatos, Calif.; Mrs. Glenn Kent, Los Altos, Calif.; and Mrs. O. A. Krause, Pasadena, Calif., Calif.

YORDY - BERGMAN RITES

TULELAKE — Red poinsettias, woodwardia fern and lighted white tapers in candelabra, formed a beautiful holiday background for the wedding vows taken Nov. 30, by lovely Gay Bergman and Delbert Yordy, both members of prominent Tulelake families. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Peter C. Bergman, the bridegroom the son of Mrs. Harriett Yordy.

The double-ring ceremony was read by candlelight at 4 p.m. Sunday afternoon by Rev. Marvyn Keyser in the Tulelake Community Presbyterian Church. Two hundred guests and relatives of the young people were present.

The Rev. Dwayne L. Proett, pastor of Peace Memorial Church, Klamath Falls played incidental organ music before the ceremony, and was accompanied by Mrs. Dave Bridge, Klamath Falls. Mrs. Bridge former well-known vocalist of Tulelake, sang "Because" — "I Love You Truly" and during the vows, "The Lord's Prayer."

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a white chiffon velvet gown, made with sheer yoke outlined with lace applique, seed pearls and silver bugle beads. The full skirt fell into a full length train. Her fingertip illusion veil was held with a pearl-trimmed Juliet cap.

She carried a white orchid on a white Rainier Bible. Mrs. Patrick Kenneally, the former Sara O'Keefe, bride of this fall, matron of honor, wore a floor-length frock with red velvet bodice made with low round neck, brief sleeves and full red net skirt. Mitts and little round cap of velvet matched her frock. Her flowers were white chrysanthemums centered with a poinsettia and tied with matching ribbons.

Carol Moore, Tulelake, Joyce Morgan and Janice Plummer, both of Roseburg, wore identical frocks in white velvet and net, with Juliet caps and carried the same flowers. Junior attendants, Kappy Staunton, Tulelake, and Maryetta Frost, Macdoel, niece of the bridegroom were in red. Best man was John Staunton, Tulelake. Ushers were Ralph Yordy, brother of the bridegroom, Raymond Laird, Bill Staunton, Junior ushers were Billy Weikamp and David Dean, Merrill, nephew of the bridegroom.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Bergman chose a soft blue silk sheath suit with black accessories and shattered red and white carnations at the shoulder.

Mrs. Yordy, mother of the bridegroom wore a brown ensemble with rhinestone trim, brown accessories and a red and white carnation corsage.

A reception in the church parlors followed the ceremony.

The four tiered white wedding cake with red poinsettias and white rosebud trim was served by Mrs. E. Webb Staunton, Tulelake, Mrs. Jett Dean, Merrill, sister of the bridegroom and Mrs. Dale Norton, Trinity City, Calif., aunt of Delbert, after the bride and bridegroom cut the first slice.

At the punch bowl was Mrs. Mattie Garrison, maternal grandmother of the bride, Baker, Ore. Pouring at the coffee service was Mrs. H. B. Smith, Tulelake, cousin of the bride.

At the guest book was Myrna Horner, Portland, the bride's room-mate at Lewis and Clark College. Margaret Takacs and Sally Thomas, home from the University of California, Berkeley were in charge of the gift table.

Assisting about the rooms were Polly Haynes, home from Oregon State and Lucile Ward, home from Lewis and Clark.

For traveling, the new Mrs. Yordy chose a gray checked suit with red topcoat and accessories and her orchid at the shoulder.

Following a wedding trip to Los Angeles and points south, the young couple are at home in Tulelake.

Both are graduates of Tulelake high school and the bride attended Lewis and Clark for two years.

Out of town guests were Mrs. Fred G. Meyer, Mrs. Mary A. Boyle, Portland, Mr. and Mrs. H. T. Frost, Macdoel and Mr. and Mrs. E. T. Frost, Reno.

Mr. and Mrs. Staunton were hosts at a rehearsal dinner the night preceding the wedding with Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Weikamp as assisting hosts.

The buffet supper table was centered with an arrangement of bronze chrysanthemums. Thirty guests were present.

Saturday noon, Mrs. George Fischer honored Gay and her attendants at a prettily appointed luncheon.

LOVELY GAY BERGMAN, Tulelake, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Peter C. Bergman, became the bride, Sunday, Nov. 30, in a four o'clock ceremony in the Tulelake Community Presbyterian church of Delbert Yordy. The bridegroom is the son of Mrs. Harriett Yordy of Tulelake, where the new Mr. and Mrs. Yordy will make their home.
