cessful venture in sharing a household has been in operation nearly a year, and this home, 1765 Wiard, is supervised by Mrs. Doris Bellon, Doris Semple's mother. The children have playmates, proper care during the day, and it is the perfect solution to the working mother's problem. And besides, Christmas is so much more fun!

SOJOURNERS

A true spirit of Christmas and friendliness prevailed the afternoon of Wednesday, Dec. 10, when Sojourners held their annual Christmas party at the Willard Hotel. Mrs. George Roberts was Chairman of the affair assisted by Mrs. Maria Howard, Mrs. Nico Lindskog, Mrs. Betty Morgan, Mrs. Marian Norris and Mrs. Ruth Hopson. Gaily decorated tables added a cheerful note. Dessert luncheon was served and members were entertained by the Meddral. Girls Chorus of Sacred Heart Academy accompanied by Jane Grey who also presented a delightful piano solo. The entire club joined in singing Christmas carols and gifts were exchanged.

Incumbent officers are Mrs. Orman Gildow, president; Mrs. H. L. Robertson, vice president; Mrs. Earl Maskell, treasurer; Mrs. F. O. O'Connell, secretary. Installation was conducted by Mrs. Winston Purvine and each incoming officer was presented with a lovely corsage by her retiring officer. Mrs. J. R. Rhodes, retiring president, was given a gift from the club. After assuming the presidency, Mrs. Gildow announced her standing committees as follows: Hospitality, Mrs. C. Matush; Remembrance, Mrs. E. A. Renner; Membership, Mrs. G. O. Packer; By-laws, Mrs. A. V. McVey; Historian, Mrs. D. B. Jones; Publicity, Mrs. E. Chase.

Guests for the afternoon included Ethel Nicol, Augusta Coats, Vera Teal, Donna Mathias, Eleanor Rollock, Helen Crabtree, Cam Himrod and Mrs. W. D. Miller.

Next regular meeting will be held at the Willard Hotel Jan. 4, luncheon in the Paul Bunyan room at 2:30 followed by an afternoon of cards. All newcomers to Klamath Falls are invited. Phone Rosella Renner at 4238 for information.

Those enjoying the day were Mr. and Mrs. Joe Burch and daughter, Nora Lee, Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Flock and daughter, Sandra, Gazelle, Calif., Mrs. Bud Stevenson and Barbara and the hosts.

LIONESS CLUB PIANO RECITAL

The Lioness club held its annual Christmas party at the home of Mrs. Clarence Humble Monday evening, Dec. 8. President Mrs. Joe Thomas, held a very short business meeting. Mrs. Vern Moore announced that "Light" had been chosen as the theme for the state convention to be held here in June. Mrs. Moore is chairman of the big event with Mrs. Morgan Johnson co-chairman. They and their committees will begin planning meetings right after the first of the year.

Mrs. Humble had decorated her home early to create a holiday spirit for the occasion, and the effect was most beautiful. Members had a gift exchange conducted in the manner of a musical game, which resulted in a great deal of merriment for all. A delicious Christmas dessert was served by the following hostesses: Mrs. F. Cecil Adams, Mrs. Robert Meel, Mrs. Ed Hickman, and Mrs. Jack Bishop.

The remainder of the evening was given over to singing Christmas carols, with Mrs. Irwin Tweet as accompanist. A perfect ending to a lovely Christmas party.

Prosperity Chapter 160

MALIN—At the regular monthly meeting of Prosperity Chapter 160, Order of the Eastern Star, in the Malin Church Thursday evening, Dec. 11, ritualistic work was demonstrated by members of the Malin Rainbow Assembly.

Proceeding the Chapter meeting, the Rainbow officers took their stations and exemplified the initiatory work of the Rainbow for both Rainbow and Star members. Immediately following the Rainbow work, members of the Eastern Star opened their meeting with Worthy Matron Hazel Bowman and Worthy Patron Eugene Beasley presiding in the East.

Business matters and election of officers were taken care of and the meeting was ended with an addendum for outgoing Matron, Hazel Bowman.

a kitchen shower was held for use in the new Masonic Hall kitchen.

A surprise hanky shower was given for Helen Ottoman, who is moving away.
