Price Support At $2 Billion

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Agriculture Department says it has made $2,100,000,000 worth of price support loans to farmers in the past seven years and expects to lose only about $10,000, a tiny fraction of one per cent.

The department said it has turned up 863 cases of shortages, in which farmers are accused of using or selling mortgaged commodities without repaying their government loans. These totalled $1,072,000 the department said, but it added:

"On the basis of collections already made, and the certainty of material further collections, the actual ultimate loss... is expected to be not more than $100,000, or less."

Heavier losses, estimated around a million dollars, are expected on government grains stored in commercial warehouses and appropriated to private use. Some warehouse operators have been convicted of fraud.

Adenauer Raps Nationalists

WASHINGTON (AP)—Chancellor Konrad Adenauer of West Germany says he is worried by the prospect of a European confederation if each country or principality has its own army.

He predicted, on Dec. 9, that the European Defense Community (EDC) would be ratified by the six prospective members and said it would "produce automatically such effects that the need for common action will be realized."

Adenauer gave these views in an interview with the magazine U.S. News and World Report.

At the time of the interview, EDC ratification in West Germany appeared to be deadlocked, but some of the legal difficulties have since been overcome. Adenauer predicted West German approval toward the end of January, and said that would be followed soon by favorable action by France, Italy, Belgium, The Netherlands and Luxembourg.

DOUGLAS MCKAY, who has resigned as Oregon's governor to accept Eisenhower's nomination as secretary of the interior, took time out on his recent shipboard conference with Eisenhower in the Pacific to greet members of USS Helena's crew who hail from Oregon. Above, McKay joins in a songfest with the Oregon sailors. In the group are: Lt. Frank J. Christopher, 1324 Kane; Richard L. Hobart and Con J. Murphy, Jr., Lakeview.

Morse to Get Poor Posts

WASHINGTON (AP)—Sen. Wayne Morse of Oregon predicts he will get only minor committee posts in the new Senate, and indications are increasing that he is correct.

Some Republican senators are hinting that they believe Morse lost whatever chance he had for top committee positions by making post-election speeches critical of President-elect Eisenhower and Old Guard Republicans.

"Senator Morse says he expects to be assigned to the Post Office and District of Columbia committees. He may be right," said Sen. Hugh Butler (R-Neb.) who heads the strong Committee on Committees.

One of the positions Morse is almost certain to lose is on the labor committee. There the Republicans will gain two new seats—and a third one if Morse is bumped.

That report is reported to be stopping Sen. Butler (R-Md.), Sen. Potter (R-Mich.) and Sen. Goldwater (R-Ariz.) for the committee.

Horse Likes Deep Hole

BROADSTAIRS, England (AP)—Minette found herself a hole in the ground that she seemed to prefer to her regular habitat as a show pony.

Just how she got there was a mystery, but she was found standing placidly in the quiet of an unoccupied grave, the hole—six-foot grave that had been newly dug in St. Peters Cemetery.

The gravedigger couldn't get her to budge and called the fire brigade. They came equipped with ropes, tackle and pulley blocks—but one fireman was ingenious. Noting that Minette's flanks were close against the grave walls, he suggested they shove earth into the pit.

As the dirt fell around her, Minette angrily stamped her hoofs, pounding the earth down and slowly building up the level of the grave floor. Soon she was up to ground level again, and the gravedigger faced the task of shoveling all the dirt out again.

Korea GIs Applaud Traubel

SEOUL (AP)—Soprano Helen Traubel admitted to some surprise today after turning grand opera loose on American soldiers and getting a foot-stomping, whistling cry for more.

Miss Traubel, Wagner and the American soldiers in Korea were all fast friends after two days of concerts. She packed the house.

The Metropolitan Opera star admitted she felt a little fearful about coming to Korea and was "surprised" at the GI reaction to grand opera.

"I'm no Betty Hutton—and she's good—and I was a little worried," Miss Traubel told a soldier audience last night after they had brought her back on stage with volleys of whistles, hand-clapping and even a few sophisticated "bravos."

The big-voiced opera star sang in a frigid Seoul Theater, where her breath condensed into cold clouds as she hit the high notes.

Once in her opera and concert career, she had been troubled in one place "with bats flying back and forth," she said, but never before had she been able to watch her songs as they came out.

Earlier in the day, the St. Louis opera star had another unusual first in her concert career.

She sang aboard the hospital ship Consolation and could not even see her accompanist, who was playing a small organ in the far corner of a messhall.

"I just struck out and sang," she laughed, "and we got together as we went along."

Miss Traubel, in private Mrs. William Bass, toured the wards with her husband, then sang over the ship's loudspeaker system.

She said after seeing the wounded she "sang soft things"—no Wagner.

"It is wonderful what they are doing here," she added, "how they are taking care of the wounded. Those boys are wonderful. I am so glad I came."

Gunmen Get Romantic

CHICAGO (AP)—One of the two men who held up a chain food store last night mixed a little romance with robbery.

As cashier Mrs. Anne Lidquist, 37, was scooping out bills and silver for one of the robbers, he gave her a resounding kiss.

"Don't be afraid," he smiled, keeping his gun pointed at her. "I won't hurt you."

"I was petrified with fear," Mrs. Lidquist told Jefferson Park police. She also told her husband—policeman Arnold Lidquist.

The other gunman displayed no romantic gestures as he forced the second cashier to empty the register. They stole $623.

Traffic Toll May Hit 590

CHICAGO (AP)—Motor travel over the four-day Christmas week end may hit 590 persons, the National Safety Council estimated today.

The estimate covers traffic deaths occurring between 6 p.m. Wednesday and midnight Sunday.

The council cautioned against driving in bad weather and against driving after drinking. It advised those who must drive to start early, take it easy and allow extra driving time for bad weather.

Vivian Vance Makes Good As Co-Star of 'Lucy' Show

By BOB THOMAS

HOLLYWOOD (AP)—A summer ago, Vivian Vance was appearing in "Voice of the Turtle" at the La Jolla (Calif.) Playhouse. Little did she realize that she was trying out for what might be a life's job.

In the audience one night were Lucille Ball and Desi Arnaz. They were looking for players to appear in a TV show they were planning, "I Love Lucy." They liked her job as the other woman in the three-character play and chose her to play Lucy's neighbor Ethel.

The sequel to the story is TV history. "I Love Lucy" quickly climbed to the top of the audience ratings and stayed there. A recent survey estimated the show had an unbelievable 42 million viewers. All this continues to amaze Vivian Vance.

"If I had realized that night at La Jolla that I would be trying out for a part in the No. 1 TV show," she sighs, "I would have been too nervous to go on the stage."

"I Love Lucy" has done amazing things for Vivian. Previously, she has been typed on the stage and screen. She played only hard, brassy dames.

She is now lining up a couple of pictures because the shooting of the "Lucy" series is recessed until after the Arnaz baby arrives. One of the roles she was up for was a witchy character such as she had always played. But the casting man said: "I don't know whether she can do the part; she's too sweet!" He obviously is a "Lucy" fan.

Vivian doesn't mind the change in her professional character a bit. Nor does she object to the 39-week grind of turning out the TV films. "It's an actor's dream," she enthused. "You do the same character, but you don't have the boredom of reading the same lines week after week, as on the stage. We also have what the movies lack—an audience to stimulate you."

Vivian was born in Cherryvale, Kan., but later moved to Albuquerque, which she considers her home town. Her parents still live there. She and her husband, Philip Ober, have a ranch at Cuernero, N. M., where they relax between acting jobs.

The citizens of Albuquerque were responsible for Vivian's acting career. She made a local hit in "The Trial of Mary Dugan" and the town raised money to send her to New York. She was to study under Eva Lagallenne, but the latter turned her down.

"I couldn't go back home, so I stayed and stuck it out," she recalled. She managed to land in his like "Music in the Air," "Red, Hot and Blue" and "Skylark." Then came night clubs, more shows, Hollywood and "Lucy."

U.N. to Mull U.S. Demand

UNITED NATIONS, N. Y. (AP)—The United Nations says it wants more accreditation as a correspondent to a State Department request that it take a U. N. press card away from Marcelle Hutschmanova, a Czech woman reporter for the Pakistani Times.

The State Department asked that her accreditation as a correspondent to cover U. N. activities be lifted because it considered her a "likely security risk." No evidence was presented with the request.

The international organization's legal department replied that the U. N. was naturally disturbed at the U. S. request but could take no action until reasons for it were given and the definite charges were studied. In Washington, the State Department said it was looking into the matter further.

Miss Hutschmanova, a Czech citizen, born of Italian parents in Egypt, denied she was a subversive agent or worked against the U. S.
