FORT KLAMATH

By MYRTLE WIMER

E. W. Brewer arrived home last Monday from Warm Springs, where he is employed in logging operations which are now closed down until spring.

Mr. and Mrs. Elmore Nicholson are receiving congratulations on the arrival of their first child, a daughter, born Monday, Dec. 15 at Klamath Valley Hospital in Klamath Falls. The infant weighed 8 pounds 7 ounces at birth, and for her the name of Teresa Ann has been chosen.

Houseguests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Engle from Tuesday until Friday were Mr. and Mrs. Harry Hatch, Los Angeles, who stopped over for a visit while en route to Portland to spend the holidays with other relatives. Mrs. Hatch and Harry Engle are sister and brother, and both are pioneer residents of Wood River valley.

Home from Oregon State at Corvallis until after New Years are Billy Nicholson, who will spend the vacation with his parents, and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Stewart Nicholson and daughter Marie; Joan Loosley, who arrived last weekend to enjoy the holidays with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Raymond S. Loosley, and her brother, A-3C Wilfred Loosley, who came Monday night by car from Shepherd Field, Texas, where he is stationed with the U. S. Air Force; from the University of Oregon at Eugene, Joyce Copeland is home for the holidays with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Alvin Copeland, and JoAnn Sisemore is here from Marylhurst college at Oswego to spend the holidays with her mother, sister and grandmother, Mrs. Jerry Sisemore, Bonnie Jean Stewart and Mrs. Lisle Bressler, respectively, at the Sisemore ranch home to the west of Fort Klamath.

Last weekend Stewart Nicholson completed shipping 530 head of cattle to feeding grounds in Northern California, the stock going by truck to Corning and Paskenta. He is the latest consigner of cattle in the valley this year, and for the past month has been feeding hay to his stock at their pasture in the south end of the valley—an expensive project with hay running from $40 a ton and up, cost of feeding the 530 head being around $100 a day. Late reports from the Northern California rangelands indicate that pasture conditions there are improving greatly, and the grass is making good growth.

Mrs. Mildred Castel left Monday Dec. 15, with plans for spending her two-weeks vacation from her duties as relief telephone operator at the Chiloquin West Coast Telephone exchange—she intended to stay a week in Portland with her mother-in-law, Mrs. Harry Turner, and then visit for the last week with her sister, Mrs. Dora Churchman in Springfield. However, on Thursday evening, an unexpected guest arrived at her home here for the holidays—he is Dan Savage, Mrs. Castel's father, who had decided to come from his home at Livingston, Calif., to spend the Yuletide season with his daughter. Mrs. Castel was advised by telephone of her father's arrival, and immediately altered her plans, leaving Portland for Springfield, where she was joined by her sister, the two coming here to make preparations for a happy Christmas with their 82-year old father, well known and loved pioneer of this locality, who is hale and hearty despite his years.

Last week, Mrs. Castel's son and family, Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Castel, daughter Lana and son Keith, moved to Klamath Falls to reside after having stayed at her home here for some time since his recent discharge from the U. S. Air Force. He has been working as salesman for Balsiger Motor, where he was employed before being recalled as an active reservist for further service, receiving his discharge late this fall after 1½ years in the Air Force with his former rank of captain.

Mr. and Mrs. William Zumbrun left Saturday, Dec. 20, to spend the holidays visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. Marshall, Porterville, Calif. They plan to stay until spring, visiting at various points, and during their absence, Bud Pritchett is in charge of their ranch, where he and his family live the year round.

After being without long distance telephone service since the weekend storm of Dec. 5, local people were again able to call outside points on Sunday night, Dec. 14, after a hard working crew had set up poles and repaired lines. W. T. Oates Jr., Chiloquin, who is lineman for this district, was in charge of the job.

Mrs. Blaine Brattain with her two children, Douglas and Mary, spent Monday evening, Dec. 15, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Al Lewis, the occasion being Mrs. Lewis' birthday anniversary. The time was pleasantly spent at cards, with Mrs. Lewis serving refreshments at the close of the game.

Members of the Civic Improvement Club are reminded that the regular monthly meeting of the organization will be held as per schedule on Friday afternoon, Jan. 2, with potluck refreshments, each person attending to bring a contribution for the lunch which will be served at the conclusion of the business meeting.

Mrs. Frank (Myrtle) Denton and her two little grandchildren, Cathy and Steve, are spending the holidays in Fort Klamath at Joe's Motel, because the road from the highway to the Denton ranch house is blocked by snow. They have been staying for some time in Klamath Falls as houseguests at the home of Mrs. Olena Briscoe.

Mr. and Mrs. Seth Dixon left Tuesday, Dec. 23, for San Francisco, where they will be guests of her relatives over the holidays. They plan to go later to their ranch at Los Banos, Calif., and will return here in the spring. In the meantime, their home at the Dixon ranch two miles north on highway 62 will be occupied by Mr. and Mrs. Robert E. Gorden, who have moved in for the winter from the Dixon 7-mile ranch west of here. Gorden has been employed for many years by Dixon as ranch foreman.

Four inches of fresh snow fell here during Friday night, Dec. 19, coming down gently in great feathery white flakes. As a result of the mercury dropping to 10 below zero Monday night following the snowfall, evergreens in the valley and on the mountains are now beautiful with nature's decoration of snow and heavy white hoar frost.

LANGELL VALLEY

By CORA LEAVITT

Mr. and Mrs. Louis Randall spent several days in Portland with her aunt and family and brought their small daughter Judy home. She has been in Portland for several weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. Lester Leavitt and Mary spent Dec. 21, at Tulelake with their daughter Mrs. Pete Hodges and enjoyed a turkey dinner celebrating the birthday of Lester.

Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Gift are spending two months at Squaw Flat.

Jack DeVaul is home for the holidays. His parents went to San Diego and got Jack. His ship recently docked from Japan.

Doreen Lindsay arrived from Berkeley to spend her vacation with her parents Mr. and Mrs. Marien Lindsay.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Partridge and Irene Gross went to Bishop to spend Christmas with his mother and other relatives. They will spend New Year's with her mother Mrs. Blazer at Durham.

The Bill Burnett family and Jimmy Nork spend the evening recently with Leavitts.

Mr. and Mrs. Ervin Pool and family, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Nork, and Mr. and Mrs. Bud Peterson, all of Klamath Falls, spent Sunday with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ben Nork and family.

Mr. and Mrs. Dick Derry, Nada, Jerry and Donna of Malin, and Mrs. Derry Sr., and Catherine Dearborn were dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. Les Leavitt Dec. 20 and later they attended the dance at Lorella. Mrs. Derry Sr., left Dec. 26 for her home in Iowa after spending several weeks with her son Dick and family.

IT'S NEVER TOO LATE

WARREN, Ark. (AP)—An elderly Negro couple appeared before Judge W. A. Baker, Warren's "marrying justice of the peace" and explained that they had once been engaged to be married but the plans were changed and they were just now getting around to it. Then they gave him their marriage license. The license had been issued in 1909.

How Do You Walk?

By Geo. N. Taylor

The heathern woman in So. Africa asked the new-comer, also an African tribesman—"How is it that your ways and words are so different from ours? The new-comer said it was because she was a Christian. Out of her life and teaching, in the days that followed, the heathen also became a Christian with hope and cheer in her face. She had never met a missionary or native preacher. It was the life and teaching of the new - comer that saved her. And do you let Christ work out through you? The Apostle Paul tells us the secret of his life. He died to self that Christ might work out through him — Galatians 2:20. And how about you? This space sponsored by a Portland Lumberman and wife.

Farley Granger's First Screen Role Came Via Want Ad

Farley Granger, a boy-soxer favorite, got his first screen role unexpectedly when as a 17-year-old Hollywood High School junior he saw a Want Ad in the newspaper by Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer seeking a young actor. His screentests were so successful that he was immediately given a leading part in "North Star."
