Time Spanking, Says Expert

LONDON (AP)—A British child psychologist says just one spanking may be enough to put any child on the straight and narrow.

Dr. E. T. Matthews told the Conference of Education Associations last night that a talented smacker waits for the right moment to get that wallop home—"the moment when the child pits its whole self against all authority."

"Then give it a good, hard smack and you may give it a proper sense of moral responsibility for the rest of its life."

Orange Parade To be Televised

MIAMI, Fla. (AP)—The mammoth King Orange Jamboree Parade through downtown Miami tonight will be seen for the first time on nationwide television.

It will be carried by CBS. A half-million persons may line the parade route along palm-studded Biscayne Boulevard and on glittering Flagler Street.

1st Lobbyist Dies at 74

WINTER PARK, Fla. (AP)—The first person to register with the United States government as a lobbyist, Benjamin C. Marsh, 74, died here yesterday following a long illness.

Marsh was executive secretary of the People's Lobby, which he said was designed to lobby for liberal laws.

Payment On Time

ST. JOSEPH, Mo. (AP)—Raymond Brown mailed a calendar to a friend in Rising Sun, O., about 10 days ago.

He dropped the calendar into a mailbox.

Mrs. Josephine Hoff came along a second later and put a letter containing her water bill payment in the mailbox.

Yesterday Mrs. Hoff's letter was returned here from Rising Sun. It had fallen into the calendar envelope.

'Bama Girl Is Maid of Cotton

MEMPHIS, Tenn. (AP)—Alice Orr, a green-eyed mathematics major at the University of Alabama, will furnish the figure to show off the industry's fanciest styles as Maid of Cotton for 1953.

The 19-year-old brunette from Selma, Ala., was selected last night from a field of 22 beauties from 12 Cotton Belt states in the annual contest to pick King Cotton's "ambassador" to the world.

In February she will begin a year-long tour of 35 U. S. cities, Canada, Latin America and Europe.

Runner-up in the contest was J. Ann Turner, 20, of Yazoo City, Miss. Bobette Bentley, 19, of Los Angeles, Calif., was third.

26 Hurt in Train Crash

FT. SMITH, Ark. (AP)—A Kansas City Southern freight train and a Frisco passenger train which was running late collided near here late yesterday, injuring 26 persons.

Only one of the injured required hospitalization.

Cause of the collision, which occurred just across the Arkansas border in Oklahoma, seven miles south of here, was not determined immediately. The passenger locomotive ended up on top of the freight locomotive.

19-Year-Olds OK for Draft

WASHINGTON (AP)—State selective service directors throughout the country are free to draft any 19-year-olds needed to fill quotas.

Selective service headquarters made that clear yesterday saying that no further authorization was needed by states which have exhausted the pool of men 20 or older.

An official said "several" states would have to call 19-year-olds to meet the $3,600-man February quota.

Budget Bundles in at Men's Hand Laundry by 9:00 a.m. are out at 3:45 p.m.

Bridegroom Kills Self

BOISE, Idaho (AP)—A despondent bridegroom of one day committed suicide yesterday by blowing himself up with a stick of dynamite.

Coroner Clyde Summers said Leonard Edge, 32, a construction worker honeymooning here, placed a stick of dynamite under his pillow in a hotel room and detonated it with a blasting cap, wires and a flashlight battery.

Edge was married here Monday to Opal Parker. Both are from Baker, Ore.

His bride had returned to Baker in a hotel room and detonated before Edge blew himself up.

Summers said he left notes which indicated he was despondent.

Narriman Gowns Hocked; Movie Queen Pays Ticket

By ERSKINE JOHNSON
 HOLLYWOOD (NEA) — Exclusively Yours: A Hollywood movie queen is wearing a queen's wardrobe, purchased at a 20-per cent discount, because the king wouldn't pay the royal bills!

Vera Ralston, a celluloid doll with an eye for a bargain, made the discovery that a wife's charge account can cause trouble even with royalty.

Four evening gowns now hanging in Vera's closet were ordered from a Rome couturier by former Queen Nairman, 18-year-old wife of exiled King Farouk of Egypt. When the designer complained to Vera, who was vacationing in Rome, that the queen had ordered the gowns but that Farouk refused to pay for them, the star quipped, "What's good enough for her is good enough for me."

She tried them on, they fit perfectly, and Vera bought all four at the 20-per cent discount. She'll wear one of them, slightly altered, for a scene in her new Republic film, "A Perilous Voyage."

John Derek and Columbia are calling it a day. One of the reasons for John's let-me-out plea is his disappointment at losing out on the lead role in "From Here to Eternity."

Dan Dailey is telling pals that he doesn't want to dance in flickers any longer. He's campaigning for straight dramatic roles.

Londoners who saw Errol Flynn plant a kiss on 20-year-old Maureen Swanson's lips at the airport here took off for Europe are taking back their prediction of a divorce for Errol and Patricia Wymore. Maureen now is out as Flynn's leading lady and Italian Venus Gina Lollabrigida is in.

Peggy Dow wrote a friendly letter to her U-I busses from Tulsa a tip-off to her plans to return to Hollywood and end her long suspension. The marriage of Gene Evans and songstress Patty Powers has been postponed. Her parents want a lavish New York wedding, so Gene will finish his starring stint in Sam Fuller's "Verboten" before hopping to Manhattan.

Leslie Caron and George Formel are living under separate roofs, and their pals haven't succeeded in talking them into a reconciliation.

Mario Lanza's working out every day in a prize-fight ring just installed at his home—with velvet ropes yet. Two hundred-and-eight-pound Romo Vincent's been starting in "The Giddy" without a single line of dialog. The role: Laughing at Jerry Lewis.

Republic's cowboy star, Rex Allen, who replaced Roy Rogers, is headed for bigger, more important films. That's the word from his boss, Herbert Yates, who told me: "Musical westerns are dead at the box-office. Too many westerns on TV are keeping the kids home. When you saturate the public with anything, you're through."

Peggy Lee's slated to test for the Helen Morgan role at Warner's. She'll have to wear a black wig if she lands the role.

There have been many speaker introductions at Hollywood clam-bakes but Edgar Bergen and Charles McCarthy's rippy wordage in presenting Samuel Goldwyn as the keynote of the Publicists Guild's annual Panhandle Dinner was a classic. Plus the lively skits, it was a Great evening for movietown's hard-working publicists.

Aside to the censors: Marilyn Monroe nibbles on Tommy Noonan's ear in one of the love scenes in "Gentlemen Prefer Blondes." Medics have advised Phyllis Kirk that her speaking voice will
