AAUW Annual Christmas Party

The American Association of University Women had their annual Christmas dinner and party at the Pelican Party Room Wednesday evening, Dec. 17th. Mrs. Aaron Hoffman was general chairman and carried out the theme of "A Christmas Heartwarming." In lieu of a gift exchange this year all members contributed to a fund to be used to purchase a record player for the new recreation hall at the County Nursing Home.

ALOHA PAST MATRONS CLUB

Aloha Past Matrons' Club met Friday Dec. 26, 1 p.m., in the parlor of the Masonic Temple.

A lovely dessert luncheon was served by the hostesses, Mrs. Wallace Uerlings, Mrs. J. F. Penrod and Mrs. A. W. Porter. The tables were decorated with miniature winter scenes. Little snow men, snow balls and Eskimo igloos were used.

A Christmas gift exchange proved to be greatly hilarious. The packages, large to tiny, were prettily wrapped in Christmas colors and all contained clever and useful articles.

Mrs. Marion Hanks drew the lucky number for the door prize. A short business meeting was held. The members noted the passing of Mrs. Minnie Ward who was a charter member of Aloha Chapter and the first president of the Past Matrons' Club.

The sick committee for January will be Mrs. Wallace Uerlings and Mrs. A. B. Epperson. Mrs. Lena Everett of Columbus Chapter of Sacramento, Calif., and a Past Matron was a special guest. She gave an interesting talk on her trip to Europe during the summer of 1931 and also showed colored slides of many of the places she visited.

The recent graduate group headed by Mrs. Richard Newman was in charge of decorations. The room and tables were beautifully decorated with candles and evergreens appropriate to the season. The favors for new members were cleverly designed miniature Santa's and red cloth stockings were used for the older members.

A musical program was presented by Mrs. Don Zumwalt. A trio composed of Jean Dae, Joe and Dick Bispham played "Away in a Manger" and "Silent Night" with Jean Dae playing the piano, Joe the violin and Dick the flute. Jean Dae played a piano solo, "Oh, Come All Ye Faithful." Dick a piano solo, "Romance" by Sibelius and Joe played, "Little David Play on Your Harp" and "Joshua Fought the Battle of Jericho." The three then performed a number of difficult acrobatics. Mrs. Zumwalt presented the three talented children with gifts.

Mrs. Len Suries and Mrs. G. W. Nelson led the group in several interesting games and concluding the evening's entertainment the group joined in a carol sing accompanied by Mrs. Zumwalt.

WIENER ROAST

LANGELL VALLEY—The Rev. and Mrs. Carl Gross entertained a group of young people with a toboggan and ski party held on the Partridge Hill the evening of Dec. 20.
