REFLECTIONS FROM
Milly's Mirror

THE NIGHT AUDITOR—at the Willard Hotel called my attention to a slight discrepancy of five years in the write-up of a wedding anniversary—seems to be and his spouse had been married 55 years—and it appeared in last week's society section as 50—figures and facts OK but poor adaption on my part—KNEW there MUST be a reason for a NIGHT auditor in a hotel—so apologies to Dave Eitrem and his wife—the present night auditor of the Willard and his bride of 55 not 50 years ago.
TWO SWELL PEOPLE—and a HOST of friends—period!—A capsule description of Bob and Katie Thompson and the crowd at the Willard Monday night—Course it was for Bob—as retiring mayor—but team work did it—as his soner said—so bouquets to both—and a vote of thanks to all who were enthusiastic planners and participants of such a successful evening. (Hope somebody has a transcription.)
MEX DEL MORO—The Dr. Marvin Neresh residence—Sunday— from 3 to 6 p.m.—when Dr. and Mrs. Neresh were "at home" to about 25 of son Marvin's pals—The all-male gathering—some from college and some seniors at KUHS—was a solid three hours of fun—with a festive background of holiday decorations—Conversation never lagged—WHAT AM I SAYING!—The rapid-fire exchange of inter-campus ideas ATE UP the afternoon—and left the fellows from college exhausted and the HS seniors completely confused—with all looking forward to a repeat performance—and grateful for the only opportunity that they had to see all "the guys."
THE DON FISHERS—home from So Calif.—where they vacationed over the Christmas holidays in Southeast with Don's sister—Mrs. Fred White—and niece Mrs. Walter Terry (Franda White)—who taught school in KY—also were round by another niece and nephew—Ragie and her brother—Gene Spinks—from Tucson—Gene was with his Uncle Don for several years at the Lava Beds—now recently returned from 22 months in Germany with the 4th army—also of interest was news from Don that Eugene Knicker—ranger naturalist at Lava Beds for 2 years—has been promoted to assistant ranger manager at Salmon Sea Wildlife Refuge—after leaving here last year for post with Bouden Wild Life Refuge in Malls Montana.
THE GEORGE BURGERS—never travel, alone—seems—

There will be a Society Page before next Saturday arithmetic and spelling books) — Gail Sigford—who's in the Zuckerman Ranch office—and Lois Wise — Bookmobile of the County Library—live there — the ex-school house now is known as the Brumbaugh Studio—They had quite an involved time oiling the bell — reach the opening to the belfry — and some one slim enough to get through it and tall to reach the rope—but success was theirs — and altho a bit rusty—the long silent voice rang out over the countryside—marking the peak of the evening for Gail and Lois and Katherine Brumbaugh—who was hostess at an open house that night.

THE FINNIGANS—were together for part of the holidays—anyway — The boys Matthew and Jim — who are going to Aloysius (Jim) — and Gonzaga Hi (Matthew) — came down with their dad before Christmas—and he brought dir Carmel (Mrs. Bob Scott) with him from Eugene — before New Years.
