

Owls Home to Red Raiders

Cage Tiff Scheduled Tonight

Oregon Tech's Owls are on their own court tonight — where they hold a 2-1 cage record — to do battle with the Southern Oregon Red Raiders of Ashland.

The Raiders return Tuesday night for another game.

The Owls split with SOCl in a recent series on the road. A victory over Skagit Valley Tuesday night was the only other victory for the Owls in six traveling games.

Starting forwards will be Ernie Bretzel and either Hal Titus or Lloyd Hoffine.

The Owls will be out to balance its season record tonight.

TAKES CHARGE

Southern Oregon Coach Ted Schopf has veteran Ken Kimura as the team's take-charge guy while center Leon Keefe is the main scoring threat. Keefe is 6-4. Starting forwards will be Ernie Bretzel and either Hal Titus or Lloyd Hoffine.

Bob Smith will probably team with Kimura at the guard positions. It's likely Oretschl Coach Art Kirgland will have his three high scorers on the starting line tonight.

Jerry Wyatt has had nine games to date. Tom Schubert, 134 and Len Genetin 84.

FORWARDS

Schubert and Wyatt will probably open at the forward posts, Genetin at guard along with Walter Butler, Keith Thompson gets the center.

Kirgland said if this combination doesn't click in a hurry, Don Graham will be in at forward, Larry Willis and Bob Greenwood at guards.

Tip-off time is 8 o'clock.

Mangrum Leads In L.A. Open

By PETE ARTHUR

LOS ANGELES (AP) — There's a familiar name at the top of the list today as the Los Angeles Open Golf Tournament heads into its second day.

It's that of Lloyd Mangrum, no stranger to the top money in the event. He won it in 1949 and again in 1951, and comes as close to understanding the Riviera Country Club's long, hilly reaches and well-trapped, curving greens as anyone in the field of 148 of the country's top golfers.

Mangrum wound up first day play all alone in the 69 bracket, two strokes under 35-36-71 par. Only four others roke par before darkness settled down with two threesomes still on the course.

At Menger, a Spokane, Wash., lad who won the Mexican Amateur and was second in the U. S. Amateur, was in one of them. Going into the 16th hole he was two under par and in a position to tie or beat Mangrum. But with the night closing in, he went one over on 16 and 17, hitting a trap on the latter he didn't even know was there.

FINISH TODAY

He'll finish out the 18th hole today.

Another new name near the top is Leo Biagetti, a Sandusky, O.,

Huskies' Late Rally Nips Ducks, 79-73

Elliott's Steal Decider

EUGENE, Ore. (AP) — Washington's Huskies, with Lanky Bob Houbregs pouring in 23 points for a new local collegiate scoring record, opened the defense of their Northern Division Pacific Coast Conference basketball championship Friday night with a 79-73 victory over the Oregon Ducks.

But it was steady Cap. Mike McCutchen and unsung reserve guard Will Elliott who saved the game for the Huskies after the scrappy Ducks drove to a four-point lead at 71-67 with 2 1/2 minutes to go.

McCutchen hit a field goal from close in, and a few seconds later connected on both shots of a foul to pull Washington into a tie. Then Oregon's Chet Noe hit from the foul line to make it 72-71 and Washington's Charley Koon sank a long one from the field to give the Huskies a 73-72 margin.

STEAL

That set the stage for Elliott to steal an Oregon pass and dribble almost the length of the floor for a bucket that made it 75-72, and the Huskies were "home free."

Houbregs, a 6 foot 7 center, established a new scoring mark for Oregon basketball court on 13 field goals and seven free throws to bring his season's total to 211 points in nine games for a 23.4 average. The Northern Division record of 29 was set in 1948 by Jack Nichols, Washington center.

The Huskies were out in front nearly all the way until Oregon's surge in the fourth quarter. The defending champs led at the end of the first quarter, 19-16, at the half, 40-34, and the three quarter mark, 61-53.

DICKEN'S DAD

With Ken Wegner and Bob Hawes sparking the drive, the Ducks sent the 7,500 hometown fans into a frenzy as they caught up and grabbed a four-point lead.

Wegner was high man for Oregon with 19 points, followed by Ed Halbert with 15.

Oregon and Washington repeat here tonight, and two other conference clubs, Idaho and Washington State swing into action at Pullman, Wash.

The Huskies, the fifth Northern Division team, opens up against WSC in a two game series at Corvallis, Ore., next Tuesday and Wednesday.

Top College Passers Duel in Senior Bowl

By MERCER BAILEY

MOBILE, Ala. (AP)—Chuck Maloy and Harry Agganis match passing wily in the All-America Senior Bowl game in Mobile today.

The game, in which collegiate stars from the North and the South turn professional, was rated a toss-up after the North squad's ace fullback, Chuck Hren of Northwestern, hurt his foot.

With four of the nation's top passers on the two teams, fans expected a brilliant show. Maloy of Holy Cross and Agganis of Boston College give the North its passing punch, with Bernie Flowers of Purdue and Ernie Stocker of UCLA on the receiving end.

The South relies on the tosses of Scarbath of Maryland and Graves of Texas A & M. Their top-flight ends are Lloyd Colter of Maryland, one of Scarbath's favorite targets, and lanky

Jack Lewis of Wake Forest. Until Hren's injury made his usefulness questionable, the North squad, coached by Paul Brown of the Cleveland Browns, was a touchdown favorite to even the Senior Bowl series at two-all.

With Hren possibly sidelined, Brown called on halfback Gene Gedman of Indiana to fill the full-back gap. Other North ball-jugglers include Michigan State's Don McAuliffe and Ohio State's Fred Bruney.

GROUND DUTY

Leroy Laha — nicknamed "The Black Stallion of the Bayous" at Louisiana State—and Ed Mioduszewski of William and Mary have been tapped for most of the ground duty for the South squad, coached by Steve Owen of the New York Giants.

The weatherman predicted a fine day for a passing duel, and both coaches admitted that air attacks are their most potent weapons. A crowd of 2,000 was expected for the 1:30 p.m. CST kickoff.

Each team is allowed only 23 players. Although both coaches planned to use the platoon system, some players necessarily have been tagged for double duty.

DEFENSE

The North's defensive unit, composed of Big Ten, Pittsburgh and Penn State stalwarts, includes two All-Americans from Michigan State —linebacker Dick Tamburo and guard Frank Kush. Southeastern and Southern Conference players, plus Jack Little of Texas A&M and Ken Fridgen of Houston form the South's defensive platoon.

Each player on the winning squad is guaranteed $500. The losers get $400 each. This payment puts an end to their amateur status. Numerous scouts from professional teams are in Mobile for the game.

Aussie Runs Mile In 4:02.4

By GAYLE TALBOT

MELBOURNE, Australia (AP) — John Landy, of Melbourne University, ran another remarkable mile at Olympic Park Saturday covering the distance in 4:02.4 over a breeze-swept brickdust track.

This compares to Gunder Haeg's world mile record of 4:01.4 set in Sweden in July, 1946.

Landy, Australia's 22-year-old Olympic runner, ran the mile on the same track in 4:02.1 on Dec. 13.

All four official timers clocked Landy Saturday in exactly the same time, which is unusual.

TIMERS

Three official timers also clocked him exactly at 4:02.4 for the 1,600 meters which compares to Haeg's world record of 3:43.

It was said to be the fastest 1,500 ever run in the course of a mile race.

A crowd of probably 1,200 fans turned out to watch Landy run in an interclub meet and cheered him on constantly during the last two laps.

There were 14 starters, but the nearest was fully 200 yards behind Landy at the finish.

INTO WIND

When his time of 1:59.4 for the half was announced it became obvious to the crowd that the black-haired runner was out for a record. Unfortunately on the final straightaway he was forced to head directly into the breeze blowing down the track.

This appeared to slow him, but he came strongly again at the finish. There was no wind gauge so it was difficult to estimate the strength of the breeze. It was sufficient, however, to blow dust clouds across the track.

Landy ran with a severe cold which almost caused him to pass up the meet.

tohead who got out of the Army last April and now is an instructor in Baltimore. Biagetti finished at 70, in a second-place tie with better-known Jack Burke Jr., Cary Middlecoff and Art Wall, the hole-in-one expert who claims he's made 39 of them.

Burke tied for first in this tournament last year, with Tommy Bolt and E. J. (Dutch) Harrison. Bolt won the playoff. He and Harrison finished the first round with 74.

The 7,000-yard Riviera layout gave almost everyone trouble during the day. It is one of the longest major courses in the country, and recent rains didn't make it any easier. Drives weren't rolling and pitches were digging into the damp turf. But most of the field agreed that the greens were fast and true, and they made up there for troubles on the fairways.

PAR OR BETTER

Still, only 10 could do par or better.

At even figures were the leading money winners of 1952, lecturer Julius Boros of Mid Pines, N. C., Jay Hebert of Erie, Pa., Shelley Mayfield of Cedarhurst, N. Y., and a couple of top Southern California club players, the veteran Harry Bessler of Culver City and Ralph Evans of Riverside.

Some good names stayed within striking distance at 73—including Johnny Bulla and Jimmy Demaret. At 74 were other threats, among them Lawson Little, Ellsworth Vines and Lighthorse Harry Cooper, who won the first Los Angeles Open in 1926 and repeated in 1937.

The same field tries again today. Tomorrow it will be cut to the top 90 and Monday, for the final round, to the best 64. The money will be split 40 ways this year, compared with 30 a year ago.

As a result, although total prize money was raised $2,500 to $20,000 this year, first place will pay only $2,750. Instead of $4,000 and other top rewards are scaled down accordingly.

City Cagers Play Monday

The city Basketball League swings back into action Monday night after a holiday lay-off with two games billed at Allamont gym.

Once-beaten Hal's Sport Shop looks for its first victory in the 7 p.m. opener against Payless Drugs, holder of a 1-1 record.

Klamath Creamery makes its first start in the 8:15 afterpiece against Jayhawks (1-1).

City League play will be held at Allamont Mondays and Wednesdays.

Bruins Surprised By Bears

By TED MEIER

Associated Press Sportswriter

UCLA got off on the wrong foot in opening their defense of the Pacific Coast Conference basketball championship. The Bruins were upset Friday night by California, 73-68, after a valiant second half rally failed.

Behind in the third quarter by 15 points the Bruins came back to tie the score with four minutes and then took a 63-61 lead. California's Golden Bears had something left, however, and regained the lead for good on the shooting accuracy of the Rickens twins, John and Rupe.

FROM BEHIND

Washington, which lost to UCLA in the playoff for the PCC crown last year, opened defense of its Northern Division title by beating Oregon, 79-73. The Huskies had to come from behind in the last two minutes. Bob Houbregs sparked them with 23 points.

Southern California, alternating platoons almost like football, trampled Stanford, 75-58, and paced with California, temporarily at least, in the Southern Division of the PCC.

Wyoming, playing its first league game in the Skyline Conference, had to go overtime to beat New Mexico, 77-72. The regulation game ended 67-67 after Toby Roybal missed a shot for the Lobos in the last two seconds.

AUBURN WINS

Mississippi and Auburn won first round games in the first Memphis Invitational tournament. Ol' Miss trampled Arizona, of the Border Conference, 75-70, while Auburn beat Memphis State, 78-64.

In a couple of Southern Conference games Clemson upset William and Mary, 71-71, and South Carolina nipped Virginia Tech, 69-66.

In other major games DePaul trampled Tulor, 83-69; San Francisco beat San Jose State, 67-47; Utah took down State, 77-52, and South Dakota topped Idaho State, 62-61.

Blubber Bowl

The pack is closing in fast on Wards, league-leaders in the Moose Pa.'s Bowling League, and losers 1-3 to Drumstick last night.

Charlie Booth of Drumstick played the largest part in dropping the leaders last night with a 230 game, the best of the evening.

Al Hakenwerth of Stone's Signal Service, who rolled the top series, had a 222 game plus lines of 193 and 180 for a 593 string. Andy Anderson of Drumstick rolled a 213 game, and Frank Beard of Suburban Tavern had the second high series with a 177-197-205-878 string.

Suburban Tavern's 972 was the best team game; Stone's Signal Service put together games of 892, 951 and 935 for the top series, a 2777 one.

Drumstick's 970 was the second best game and Suburban Flower's 2777 one pin behind Stone's top series.

The game was held in a small wooden armory. The Ice Worms were made up of workers on the Navy's Point Barrow oil exploration project. The Polar Bears were Eskimos who'd never even seen a state-side basketball game, not to mention playing in a "bowl."

The Eskimos did fine for the first quarter, though, battling their taller rivals to a 7-7 tie. Then height and know-how of the Navy team began to tell.

The plot that brought down the news of the outcome here said the Eskimos think they've got the hang of the game now.

They want a rematch.

Eskimos Cry For Rematch

FAIRBANKS, Alaska (AP) — The blubber bowl was a little late, but the World Bowl New Year's game ended in a resounding 41-17 victory for the Arctic Ice Worms over the Barrow Polar Bears at the top of the world.

There was a difference, though. The rest of the bowl games were football. This was basketball.

The reason for the switch? There's only one hour of daylight this time of the year at Point Barrow, on the northern rim of the continent where the Blubber Bowl was the big sporting event of the winter season.

The game was held in a small wooden armory. The Ice Worms were made up of workers on the Navy's Point Barrow oil exploration project. The Polar Bears were Eskimos who'd never even seen a state-side basketball game, not to mention playing in a "bowl."

Fem Hoop Loop In Jamboree

A jamboree Monday night and a Tuesday meeting to arrange for a Jan. 22 clinic puts the women cagers into the local sports picture.

The jamboree will be held on the Mills School Court, starting 7:30 p.m. All six teams in the league, after drawing, will see action.

The teams are Petroff's Minerals, Griggs Food, Malin, Rockets (Henley), Oregon Wool and Midland.

The clinic, to be conducted by University of Oregon officials Jan. 22 at KUHS, will explain line interpretations and clarify duties of officials in girls basketball.

A local preliminary meeting is scheduled Tuesday, 7 p.m., in the City Hall to complete plans for the clinic. Officials and basketball players are urged to attend.

'Guv' Raps Officials

JACKSON, Miss. (AP) — Gov. Hugh White knocked the officiating of the Sugar Bowl football game New Year's Day which he said increased Georgia Tech's 24-7 margin of victory over the University of Mississippi.

The 71-year-old governor, who was a 235-pound center at Mississippi during 1898-1901, sent blistering telegrams Friday to Southeastern Conference Commissioner Bernie Moore and George Gardner, head of the SEC officials.

White said he was not criticizing "a magnificent Georgia Tech team" but said Mississippi should have had three touchdowns instead of one.

"In my judgment," White said, "I witnessed the worst officiating that I have ever seen at the Sugar Bowl game."

Drunk Can Afford Bail

ARCADIA, Calif. (AP) — Donald Lee Cody, 46, of Pear Blossom, Calif., was arrested on a drunk charge just before the second race at Santa Anita Park.

Searching his pockets, officers found nine $2 win tickets on a 62-1 shot horse named Micoka.

"Latter Cody, a carpenter, said, "I don't remember buying them, nor where I got the tip."

He borrowed $25 to bail himself out of jail and went back to the track Friday. Micoka had won, paying $126.20. Cody pocketed $1,135.00.
