OTI Wins 62 to 56 Saturday

By RED HURD

The Owls were all dressed up Saturday night—in brand new uniforms—and they had some place to go and did with a 62-56 victory over the eagers from Southern Oregon College.

The victory evened Oregon Tech's season record at 5-5 and the Owls can make it 6-5 tomorrow night when they meet the Raiders in a return engagement on the Oretech Court, the fourth meeting of the two schools this season. The Owls split with the Raiders recently in Ashland.

Oregon Tech almost blew a 10-point lead midway in the fourth quarter Saturday but worked the ball effectively in the last two minutes, at the same time picking up three points on free throws.

CLOSE GAP

With a 59-49 lead midway in the final frame, Southern Oregon's Rollie Hartley dumped a free throw and Ken Kimura, the stocky veteran who takes charge for the Raiders, followed with two from the gift line and two field goals to close the gap to 56-59.

But the visitors fizzled at this point as the Owls played keep-away, and Len Genetin, then Jerry Wyatt threw in free throws as the Ashland five got careless in an attempt to get hold of the ball.

Wyatt with 21 and Tom Schubert with 20 piled up 41 of Oregon Tech's points, but it was big Keith Thompson who went on a scoring spree in the third quarter and played the major role in building up an 11-point lead in the third quarter after the two teams were tied 28-all at intermission time.

SCORING BINGE

Thompson, in the third quarter, potted 10 of his total 12 points, his last field goal, a cripple, giving Oregon Tech a plushy 45-34 lead.

But Kimura again led the Raiders in a rally that closed it to 45-48 at the end of the third quarter.

After the two teams traded baskets at the outset of the game, Schubert's hook shot put the Owls ahead 6-4 and they stayed a squeak ahead through the first quarter, heading into the second chapter with a 17-14 lead.

But Bill Hollingsworth hit from the field and pumped in two from the free throw line to give SOC a lead they kept during the second period except for three times the Owls caught up to knot the count, 18-all, 27-all and 28-all at the half.

Shrine Coaches Named

PORTLAND (AP) — Pete Susick of Marshfield High will be head coach for the Upstate team in the annual Shrine football game between Upstate and Portland high school seniors next August.

The Shrine sponsors named Keith DeCourcey of Prineville and Bud Robertson of Bend to assist Susick. Susick's team went to the class 1 semi-finals in the football playoff last fall. DeCourcey's team won the class 2 championship. Robertson's team reached the class 1 quarter-finals.

The Portland head coach will be Harry Scarff, whose Central Catholic team won the class 1 championship. The runner-up team, Benson, will provide an assistant coach, Ralph Harper. The other assistant will be Eric Waldorf, whose Jefferson team reached the class 1 semi-finals.

Honkers Nip Trojans, 49-48

A late rally fell one point short Saturday night as Sacred Heart lost its second cage decision to Lakeview, the only team to whip the Trojans. The Honkers squeaked by 49-48 on its own court.

Lakeview stayed well ahead for three quarters and headed into the last frame with a 40-33 lead. But Sacred Heart, sparked by Tom Mulvey and Jack Heiderer, scored 15 points in the fourth quarter, holding Lakeview to nine.

Mulvey finished with 21 points, Heiderer with 13. Lakeview's Jones potted 16 from his guard position.

Collie Winner

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — Best dog in the Golden Gate Kennel Club's dog show here Sunday night was a Collie, international champion Kinmont Kerry, owned by the Kinmont Kennel in Richland, Wash.

TOM SCHUBERT leaves no question in this bit of action from Saturday night's game that he intends to keep the ball. Surrounding Schubert are Southern Oregon's Hal Titus (12), Rollie Hartley (13) and Bob Smith at right. Oregon Tech whipped the Raiders, 62-56, and meet them again tomorrow night at Oretech.

Mangrum 5-Up On Field In L.A. Tourney

LOS ANGELES (AP)—It's going to be fairly tough for Lloyd Mangrum to escape winning his third Los Angeles Open golf crown.

Mangrum has won this event twice, in 1949 and 1951. If the two-year span holds, he's due again. But there's a better reason. He started out over Riviera Country Club's hilly acres today five strokes up on the field—his 3-under-par 210 that much better than his nearest rivals, Jack Burke, Jr. of Houston, Tex., and Art Wall Jr. of Pocono Manor, Pa.

Mangrum, a Los Angeles product now playing out of Niles, Ill., was 14 strokes worse at this stage a year ago than he is today. He had 224 and took a 76 on the last day for 300, out of the money even though the winning score was 289.

CINCH

He could take another 76 today, and a hot round from one of the others could beat him. But he'll have to play a lot worse than his 69-72-69 so far. In fact, he's practically a cinch to capture his third crown, equaling the achievement of Ben Hogan in 1942-47 and '48. The record is held by the late MacDonald Smith, who won in 1928, 1929, 1932 and 1934.

Who's going to catch Mangrum? Well, at 215, 2 over par, are Burke and Wall. At 216 are Milan Marusic of Herkimer, N. Y., and Harry Bassler of Culver City, Calif. Johnny Bulla of Verona, Pa., is alone at 217. Sharing 218 are Julius Boros, the National Open champ and 1952's leading money winner, Ed Oliver, Leland Gibson, Jay Hebert and Zell Eaton.

BEST CHANCE

Of these, Burke, Bulla, Boros and Gibson, off the record, have the best chance. Burke tied for the top spot last year and lost a playoff to Tommy Bolt. Bulla won this Open in 1941, was second in 1944 and tied for 10 last year. Boros is one of the better bets in a rising crop, but has a long way to go today. Gibson tied for third in 1949 and was eighth in 1951.

Wall has little reputation as a tournament golfer. He is best known as a hole-in-one expert, who claims he's canned 30 of them.

If Mangrum blows and Burke can't catch him, Oliver might be the most likely. His 67 Sunday is the lowest round of this year's tourney, and another hot one could pay off.

Bearcats Split With Wildcats

ELLENSBURG, Wash. (AP) — Willamette's Bearcats, sparked by freshman center Pete Reed who popped in 26 points, turned the tables on the Central Washington College Wildcats, 73-64, in their Saturday night non-conference basketball encounter.

Reed, getting 20 of his points in the first half, led the Bearcats of the Northwest Conference to a 38-23 advantage at halftime.

The Wildcats won the first game of their series Friday night at Wapato, 72-59.

Landy Boosts Hopes Of Four-Minute Mile

By GAYLE TALBOT

MELBOURNE, Australia (AP)—In appearance, John Landy, the young fellow who ran a 4:02.8 mile Saturday, is anything but the typical conception of an Australian, most of whom are pictured as being florid and raw-boned.

John is olive-complexioned and his mop of curly coal-black hair goes back from a high forehead. His delicate features might serve as the popular idea of a divinity student.

But make no mistake about it, this boy can run. He's in marvelous physical condition from the rigorous training grind his coach, Percy Cerrutty, has put him through. On Cerrutty's orders, Landy has averaged an hour and 40 minutes of exhaustive workouts daily since returning from the Olympics in Helsinki.

Cerrutty has dedicated himself to bringing world foot-racing supremacy to the Southern Hemisphere before 1956. He is absolutely confident Landy can run the fabled four-minute mile the first day conditions are right.

He thinks his only problem is finding some means of making John extend himself to the limit. Obviously there's no other miler around who can do it. Another of Cerrutty's pupils named Les Perry ran himself into exhaustion merely setting a fast pace in Saturday's race.

You could do worse than bet Landy will be the first athlete in history to run the four-minute mile. Any faint feeling of skepticism we might have had about his phenomenal times—he ran the mile in 4:02.1 Dec. 13—when we watched him in his latest effort.

It is more than probable that if the 22-year-old Melbourne University student had not been forced to buck a stiff breeze on the final 150-yard straightway, the "miracle mile" would be on its way to the record books now.

Landy himself isn't especially surprised or excited over having run the third fastest mile in history. He said he came back from Europe convinced that someone over there would do four minutes soon. He hopes he can beat them to it.

Marjorie Tanner of B&B had the best series of the day, a 465, with the second high line, 163.

Mary Ellen Hankins' 176 was the top game. She subbed for Pelican Drive In, and also notched the second best series, a 438.

Team honors went to Pelican with a 789 game and 2171 series. Golden Creme was right behind with a 780 game and 2134 series.

Undefeated List Shrinks To 6 Teams

NEW YORK (AP)—Other than a 5-foot-5 center, the biggest rarity in college basketball these days is a team that gets through the season undefeated.

The current campaign is no exception. In fact, the trend is getting more pronounced if anything. In previous years, you usually could count a dozen or so major outfits with clean records at this stage. Today, you don't have to use all your fingers to count them.

Seton Hall, Southern California, Fordham, Navy, Georgetown and Wichita still are rolling along without a setback, but it wouldn't be going out on the limb to say that it probably will be just a matter of time before they bite the dust along with the other topnotchers.

All have rough schedules. Seton Hall and Fordham have a date Jan. 14. The Rams, probably the class of an unusually weak lineup of New York schools, also play Navy. Georgetown and Navy, in turn, also have scheduled each other. Southern California still has to wade through just about every team on the Pacific Coast.

NO TROUBLE

Even the nation's No. 1 team in the weekly Associated Press poll, Kansas State, has been beaten, Michigan State turning the trick a couple of weeks back. But the Wildcats don't figure to have any trouble this week. They play only one game and that's against a so-so Marquette outfit.

Seton Hall is certain to press State for the No. 1 spot only on the basis of its undefeated record but also because it is the first major team in the country to score more than 1,000 points. Its 13 victories also head the list. Southern Cal has 10, Fordham 9, Wichita 7 Navy 6 and Georgetown 5.

The Pirates from South Orange, N. J., play only once this week after polishing off three more opponents over the holidays. The nation's leading major college scorer, Walter Dukes, scored 28 points in the Pirates' 75-52 victory over Lemoyne Saturday night although he didn't play the last five minutes.

OUT OF WAY

Now that all the tournaments are out of the way, most of the teams can start concentrating on the conference races which so far have been snowed under by the biggest rash of tournaments in history, spots in the coveted NCAA Tournament and that's the big one in collegiate circles.

The conference winners will get ...

If they continue at their present pace, some of the other teams that could wind up on top of the heap before long include La Salle (11-1), Oklahoma A&M (10-1), Washington (9-1) and Notre Dame (7-1).

Three tournaments ended Saturday: Mississippi won the Memphis Invitation by downing Auburn, 65-55; Washburn whipped St. Benedict's (Kas.) in the Hutchinson (Kas.) Tournament, 54-47, and Drury became the champion of the Ottawa (Kas.) event with a 60-57 triumph over Cape Girardeau.

Middleweights In Spotlight

NEW YORK (AP) — Middleweights come into the boxing spotlight this week with two of the week's big television bouts featuring the 160-pounders.

A rookie flash and an experienced veteran meet in one middleweight feature Monday night, and two high-ranking contenders go in the other one Friday night.

The young flash is Marvin Edelman of Philadelphia, who meets Charley (Red) Williams, the Newark veteran, in a 10-rounder at Brooklyn's Eastern Parkway which will be televised in some sections of the country.

Sedgman Makes Pro Net Debut

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Frank Sedgman blasts his way into the professional tennis picture Tuesday night when he faces Jack Kramer here in the opener of a five-month tour.

Sedgman and his Australian Davis Cup team partner Ken McGregor arrived here by plane Sunday.

Under the pro pact the Aussies get a $100,000 guarantee, with 75 per cent going to Frank and 25 to McGregor. They'll also get a percentage if gate receipts warrant and a chance to play for purses in pro tourneys.

McGregor will face Pancho Segura in singles and the Aussies will battle the Americans in doubles. About 80 playing dates are planned.

By The Associated Press

Pacific Coast Conference basketball fans will learn next weekend whether the Northern Division has one or two strong teams.

At present both Washington and Idaho are unwhipped in conference play, the Huskies having tamed Oregon 79-73 and 76-60 last weekend while Idaho shaded Washington State 50-49 in its conference opener.

Washington and Idaho tangle Friday and Saturday at Seattle while Washington State moves to Eugene for a pair of games with Oregon.

UNTESTED

Oregon State, as yet untested in the conference, makes its debut Tuesday with the first of a two-game series against Washington State at Corvallis. The Beavers avenged an earlier setback Saturday by overwhelming Portland University 66-39 in a non-conference game at Corvallis.

The Southern Division, meanwhile, boasts of two and perhaps three sharpshooting outfits. Southern California, although unmentioned so far as a title contender, has won 10 straight, including conference openers last week against Stanford, 75-58 and 72-63.

WIN TWO

California at the same time edged past UCLA 72-68 and 68-66 in a double overtime game to equal SC's perfect conference slate.

Next weekend Southern California twice plays UCLA, favored in pre-season forecasting to successfully defend its conference championship. And California twice meets the Stanford Indians, who haven't yet found themselves.

Washington's Huskies, who had trouble besting Oregon in opening defense of their Northern championship Friday night, found the range early Saturday and were out in front 43-27 at halftime.

Oregon guard Barney Holland took scoring honors with 21 points. Washington Capt. Mike McCutcheon had 20 and Bob Houbregs, who popped in 33 points Friday, collected 19 Saturday.

NARROW SQUEAK

Idaho had a narrow squeak at Pullman, pulling out with the winning point in the final minute on a tie-breaking free throw by guard C. W. Totten. The Vandals led 11-10 after the first quarter but trailed 25-26 at the half and 31-38 entering the final period.

They threw off the slump in the closing minutes and moved four points out in front only to have the Cougars tie the game 49 - 49 with a minutes remaining. Totten missed one free throw but sank the second to hand Idaho the game.

RALLY

Oregon State also came from behind to win its non-conference game at Corvallis.

The Beavers, outplayed in the first quarter which ended with Portland leading 16-13, found the range in the second period and took a 28-22 halftime edge. The taller Beavers poured in 38 points in the last half while holding Portland to 17.

Portland's Andy Johnson topped the scoring with 17 points. Danny Johnston, an all-Northern Division selection last year, collected 15 for Oregon State.

Agganis Star In North Win

MOBILE, Ala. (AP) — A terrific farewell football performance in the Senior Bowl left Harry Agganis, Boston University's one man gang, with but few regrets Monday about choosing baseball for a career.

The Golden Greek said he had thrashed out the football vs. baseball issue with himself last November before he signed a contract with the Boston Red Sox.

"Of course I hate to give up football and I appreciate all the nice things everyone said about my playing," he said after he had led his North team to a 28-13 win over the South here Saturday.

"But I realized I couldn't do both. I made my choice when I decided to play baseball with the Red Sox, and I'm going to concentrate on trying to make good with Boston."

The 22-year-old Agganis said, however, that if he found he couldn't make a success of baseball he'd turn to pro football.

Boston University's aggressive T-quarterback came into the Senior Bowl with a buildup as one of the few quadruple threats in college football—he punts, passes, runs and plays on defense—and he lived up to his reputation.

He passed for two touchdowns, ran, punted, intercepted two passes and booted two conversions, in one of the greatest one-man performances in any all-star game.

O'Connell Wrecks Hawaii

HONOLULU (AP) — The Hawaii All Stars, 14-33 victims of Tommy O'Connell's passing in Sunday's seventh annual Hula Bowl game, will get another crack at the talented Illinois quarterback in a second contest Saturday.

O'Connell sparked an all star collegiate team to five touchdowns in the first three quarters—one of them on an 18-yard pass from O'Connell to Oklahoma's Billy Vessels in the second period.

The Hawaiian team featured such professionals as Doak Walker, Eddie LeBaron and Dante Lavelli in the backfield. It threatened constantly but couldn't match the collegians' forward wall with its line of local players. Hawaii scored only in the second period.

A crowd of some 18,000 watched the contest in balmy weather.

IBC Wants G-Man Hoover

NEW YORK (AP) — J. Edgar Hoover, director of the Federal Bureau of Investigation, will be offered a 10-year contract at about $100,000 per year, as executive director of the International Boxing Club.

Harry Markson, managing director of the IBC who made the announcement Sunday night, said Jim Norris, head of the IBC, will make the offer to Hoover. The IBC controls boxing in most big cities in the country.

In Washington, the FBI said Hoover would have no comment on the offer.
