Turpin Balks at Tournament

Techs, Raiders in Rematch Tonight

Ex-Champ Eyes Shot At Title

WASHINGTON (AP) — Britain's Randy Turpin balked Tuesday at a National Boxing Association proposal that he be included in a middleweight elimination tournament to crown a successor to Sugar Ray Robinson.

Turpin, who once held the middleweight title briefly, was named as the logical contender in the 160 pound division in quarterly ratings released Monday by the NBA.

The NBA said it would be a good idea for Turpin to fight Charles Humez of France. The winner then could be matched with the winner of a U. S. tournament for the world title vacated by Robinson.

OLSON NEXT

Carl (Bobo) Olson of Hawaii is right behind Turpin in the ratings.

Others who would be considered in a U. S. elimination tournament are Ernie Durando, New Jersey; Rocky Castellani, Pennsylvania; Norman Hayes, Massachusetts and Eugene Hairston, New York — all tabbed by the NBA as outstanding boxers.

C. Onslow Fane, chairman of the British Boxing Board of Control, speaking for Turpin, told the NBA his group was dissatisfied with the NBA proposal that Turpin battle Humez for the European crown and eventually there be a world title bout with the winner of a U. S. tournament.

INSISTENT

In a letter to the NBA, Fane insisted that Turpin's next bout should be for the world crown.

In its ratings, the NBA took its hardest swat at former light heavyweight champion Joey Maxim of Cleveland. Last month Maxim lost his title to Archie Moore, St. Louis, on a decision.

Normally a defeated titleholder drops to the next rating, that of logical contender. But the NBA decided Maxim wasn't a logical contender at all.

It rated Harold Johnson of Pennsylvania and Harry Matthews of Seattle, one - two behind Moore. Maxim wound up merely as an "outstanding boxer."

Owls Eye Record In Scrap

If the Owls can repeat tonight their Saturday cage victory over Southern Oregon it will mark the first time Oregon Tech has finished ahead of the Red Raiders for the season.

In the first year of the rivalry —the 1948-49 season — only two games were played between the bitter cage rivals, SOC won them both.

The next three seasons the Owls managed to win just one of four.

Currently Oregon Tech is ahead 2-1 in the series—a recent two-game split in Ashland in addition to Saturday's 62-56 win.

CAN HELP

If big Keith Thompson can keep from fouling, he shows signs of doing the Owls a lot of good. The big center fouled out early in the fourth period Saturday night, but not until he had paced an Oregon Tech third-quarter attack that gave the Owls a comfortable lead over the Raiders.

It's likely he'll get the center call tonight. Jerry Wyatt and Tom Schubert, who scored 41 of the Owls' 62 Saturday night, will open at forwards, Len Genetin and Walt Butler at the guard spots.

BLANKED

It was fortunate Wyatt and Schubert were on and Thompson caught fire in the third quarter. Because Genetin and Butler, who ordinarily donate in the neighborhood of 15 points between them per game, were blanked in the first half Saturday night. Genetin managed to pick up five, Butler two in the final half.

If Raider Coach Ted Schopf settles on the same starters, Ernie Bretzel and Lloyd Hoffine will be at the forward positions, Leon Keefe at center, Ken Kimura and Bob Smith at the guards.

Tip-off time is 8 o'clock on the mile-high court.

Games Head Expects No Fuss from Soviet

By GAYLE TALBOT

MELBOURNE (AP)—The man who is engineering plans for the 1956 Olympic Games in this city fully expects to have a large entry from Communist countries without having to make them any special concessions about their living arrangements.

"The men with whom I talked at Helsinki gave me no indication they will seek special favors from us," said Arthur W. Coles, wealthy retired industrialist who has thrown all his tremendous energy into organizing the next games.

"In fact, my impression was they did not insist on having seperate housing at Helsinki, but that the housing problem simply made it necessary. At any rate, there will be no separation of the world's athletes when they come to our games. The whole idea of the Olympics, as I see it, is to foster unity among nations, and if I cannot do that, why hold them at all?"

In between strolls through the gardens of his beautiful country home at Flinders, some 60 miles from Melbourne, Coles outlined his pans for making the Melbourne games as noble as any ever held.

"It is going to be long, hard job, but I have taken it on and I will see it through," Coles said quietly. "It is going to be lots of fun too.

PAYS WAY

"Fortunately, they sought me—I did not seek the job. I will not accept even my traveling and office expenses. I paid my own way to Helsinki and I shall pay my way to the Olympic meeting in Mexico City next summer.

"Due to my fortunate position I feel I am free to cut through red tape and get things done. For instance, when the man who is going to build our new stadium told me he would require a huge piece of excavating equipment from the States, I told him to go ahead and order it right now. If he waited for our finance committee to hold its regular meetings and approve it, we would have lost several months."

NOT POPULAR

One does not need to be in Melbourne long to learn that Coles' blunt approach to such probems is not universally popular. Olympic officials are men who like to be consulted, and Australia's are no different than the others.

That is what Coles means when his eyes light up and he says he is going to have himself some fun. While he is going to step on some officials toe, he is also receiving eager co-operation from the men he needs to help him, because they recognize his ability.

The Jayhawks led 8-7 at the end of one stanza but the Creamery five edged into a 20-19 lead at halftime and held to a squeaky 35-34 lead going into the fourth quarter. Palmer paced a fourth-quarter blitz that netted 23 points for the Creamery.

Dick Flaningam was high for the Jayhawks with 17.

Hal's had to overcome a first-quarter lag for its win too, trailing Payless 11-16 at the end of one period.

But Hal's led 39-31 at the half. Payless cut it to 48-49 at the end of three periods.

K-State Leads Pack

Huskies Sixth In AP Vote

NEW YORK (AP)—Those holiday basketball tournaments are gone, but apparently not forgotten by the nation's sportswriters and broadcasters, who named Kansas State as the nation's No. 1 team.

Kansas State's rousing victory in the Big Seven Tournament last week—the Wildcats' only activity of the week—kept State at the head of the Associated Press basketball poll today for the second straight week.

WIDENS LEAD

The tourney success also widened the Kansas State lead, as the Wildcats piled up 758 points on a basis of 10 for first, 9 for second, etc., to only 647 for second-place Seton Hall. Seton Hall trailed by only 5 points last week.

A total of 101 writers and 'casters, voting for 56 different schools, kept La Salle in third place, followed by Illinois, which last night trimmed Purdue, 87-71. But from that point on, the standings were scrambled.

HUSKIES DROP

Oklahoma A&M, victor in the All-College Tourney at Oklahoma City, jumped from seventh to fifth, and North Carolina State climbed from 11th to ninth after winning the Dixie Classic.

Oklahoma A&M's climb shoved Washington down a notch to sixth, while Indiana jumped into the first flight at No. 7 and Fordham, an also ran a week ago, was right behind at No. 8. Indiana won its fourth straight last night, a 69-62 conquest of Michigan State.

Western Kentucky stayed at No. 10, despite a loss to Idaho in the All-College Tourney.

Sawyer Says Not Official

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — Eddie Sawyer says the recent statement he issued saying he resigned from the Philadelphia Phillies National League baseball organization was true in that it indicated his intention. But Sawyer said Tuesday he hasn't resigned officially, as yet.

Sawyer talked with newsmen after Phillies president Bob Carpenter said:

He had not received Sawyer's resignation; he had not talked recently with the former Phillies pilot about readjustment of Sawyer's contract; that as far as the Phillies were concerned Sawyer would continue at his present job of "evaluating the farm clubs of opposing major league ball clubs and the players under their jurisdiction."

Sawyer retorted that he had not resigned, as was reported in a statement issued by him for publication.

Asked if he was going to continue in baseball, he replied:

"Why should I?"

"I have had my fill of it," he said.

Sawyer was replaced in mid-season last year by Steve O'Neill after the Phillies took a nose dive from the high level which had been set for them in pre-season ratings.

Under O'Neill they finished fourth in league competition.

FOREST GROVE (AP) — Bobby Frantz scored 18 points to lead Oregon College of Education to a 67-56 basketball victory over Pacific here Monday night.

Clint Agee was high scorer for the losers with 14.

Odell Has No Plans

SEATTLE (AP) — Howie Odell, Washington football coach "without portfolio," returned home Monday night and said he had no plans for the future. His days as head coach of the Huskies appear definitely numbered.

Washington athletic director Harvey Cassill has said he will recommend to the board of Regents that Odell be let go. The Regents are scheduled to meet later this month.

Odell, whose contract has a year left, said that while he was in San Francisco as head coach of the West in the East-West Shrine game he received one offer from another school, but he was not even considering it.

If he is let out after five years at the Washington helm he presumably will be paid off for his unexpired year. His salary, never made public officially, is reputed to be about $15,000 annually.

Odell declined to amplify his recent statement that "personal differences" with Cassill were at the root of the trouble. He also said he had no desire to discuss the situation with Dr. Henry Schmitz, university president, who recently came out in public support of Cassill's position.

Pre-Clinic Meet Tonight

Girls interested in becoming basketball officials and fans wanting to learn the rules of girls basketball are urged to be at the City Hall tonight at 7:30.

A pre-clinic preliminary meeting will be held to make arrangements for the Jan. 22 clinic to be operated by officials of the University of Oregon.

Musial Inks For $80,000

ST. LOUIS (AP) — Horatio Alger's heroes were bush leaguers compared with Stan (The Man) Musial.

Just 14 years ago Musial, then 18, signed for $65 a month to play with Williamson, W. Va., of the Mountain States League.

Monday Stan signed his 1953 St. Louis Cardinals contract for a reported $80,000—the third season his salary has been estimated at that figure.

Mangrum Captures L.A. Open

By PETE ARTHUR

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Lloyd Mangrum, who plays golf by ear, banked the profits today from his third Los Angeles Open golf championship.

The dapper mustached Mangrum carries a full complement of clubs in his bag and he knows what to do with them. But he also carries a radio, and he knows how to use that too.

TUNED IN

As he toured his final round yesterday, he kept tuned to the progress of his chief competitor, young Jack Burke, by radio. It's a system Mangrum devised several years ago. He started out the day five strokes ahead. He finished five strokes ahead.

At one stage, Burke was within three strokes and Mangrum stepped away from his portable long enough to card two birdies. It was the turning point. He never again was in danger.

Mangrum is a gambler when the need arises, and like any good gambler can play them close to the vest. He did yesterday, and collected $2,750.

FOUR UNDER

He had 280, 4 under par, for the four days over Riviera Country Club's par 71, 7020-yard hill and dale course. His rounds were 69-72-69-70. Burke matched him on the final round, but couldn't cut those five strokes. Burke's totals were 70-75-70-70.

Art Wall Jr. of Pocono Manor, Pa., was tied with Burke — 215 against Mangrum's 210 — to start the day. But Wall fell away to 75 and sixth place behind three veterans, Johnny Bulla of Verona, Pa., who won here in 1941; Harry Bassler of Culver City and Zell Eaton of Montebello, a pair of Southern California club professionals.

Beavers Open Against WSC

CORVALLIS, Ore. (AP) — The Oregon State Beavers step into the Northern Division basketball spotlight Tuesday night, meeting the improving Washington State Cougars in the opener of a two - game series.

It will be the first conference action for Coach Slats Gill's Beavers. They concluded their pre season "warmup" schedule Saturday with a 66-39 non-conference victory over a strong Portland University five for their fifth win against seven losses.

The Cougars won only four of 18 pre - conference games but showed improvement in their last two. The Pullman quintet upset Eastern Washington College last week to avenge an earlier defeat and forced Idaho to the limit in their conference-opener Saturday. The Vandals, the division's darkhorse, won 50-49 on a free throw in the closing seconds.
