Bridges Wants Study Of Desertions In Services

WASHINGTON (AP)—Sen. Bridges (R-NH) called today for "an immediate investigation" of reports that many young men are deserting from the armed services to avoid Korean combat duty.

The Pentagon discounted the seriousness of the situation. Any probe should be by the Senate Armed Services Committee or its preparedness subgroup, Bridges told a reporter.

Bridges soon may be chairman of the subcommittee.

Pentagon officials said the current count of deserters who had not been picked up, or had not returned voluntarily, ran about 13,790. Under service regulations, a man normally is not counted as a deserter unless he has been absent at least 30 days. The total of those merely absent without leave (AWOL) would be much higher.

The Pentagon figures were given in comment on a copyrighted article in the Louisville (Ky.) Times, which said yesterday that on any given day "enough able-bodied men to make up two complete combat divisions are classified as deserters or AWOL." This would mean about 36,000.

The Army said about 46,000 enlisted men have deserted since the start of the Korean War, but all except 11,000 have returned to duty or have been picked up. The Air Force reported 851 deserters, unreturned as of Oct. 31, the Navy 1,242 as of the end of December and the Marine Corps 691 for the same date.

Speeder Says Cops 'Unfair'

RENO (AP)—A 22-year-old Virginian, captured after a 100-mile-an-hour shooting chase, asserted Nevada authorities use unfair tactics.

"Cops never shot at me back East when I outran them," moaned Eugene F. Brackens, 22, Galax, Va. He was caught 40 miles north of here near Pyramid Lake.

Five police and sheriff's cars from Reno and Sparks pursued him all the way. Two of the cars, far off their regular beats, ran out of gasoline.

A Reno policeman pumped four bullets into the rear of Brackens' sedan, but he wasn't caught until the pavement ran out in remote Northern Washoe County.

Brackens was charged with reckless driving.

Police Get Speedy Car

OAKLAND, Calif. (AP)—Oakland police, tired of being out-distanced by hot-rod speeders, asked for a souped-up car of their own.

So the City Council Tuesday authorized the purchase of an eight-cylinder, 160-horsepower sedan expected to better 100 mph. and cost $2,800.

Weintraub Quits U.N.

UNITED NATIONS, N. Y. (AP)—Economist David Weintraub quit his high U. N. job last night under the pressure of State Department charges that he is a Communist or is under Communist discipline—charges Weintraub has emphatically denied.

The 48-year-old New Yorker, in a letter to Secretary General Trygve Lie, said he resigned to save the world organization from embarrassment.

Lie, in reply, said he appreciated Weintraub's motives and regretted the "developments" that prompted the resignation. The secretary general expressed appreciation of the "outstanding contribution" Weintraub made to work of the organization.

Weintraub, $12,000-a-year director of the U. N. Division of Economic Stability and Development, was named in a State Department list of 11 allegedly disloyal Americans employed by the U. N. The list was made public Sunday by the Senate internal security subcommittee.

CIO Works For Murray Fund

WASHINGTON (AP)—The CIO Communications Workers of America begin today a drive for $66,000 in voluntary contributions toward a million-dollar Philip Murray memorial fund.

Joseph A. Beirne, president of the communications union, said the fund would be used for such purposes as scholarships and perhaps building hospital facilities or financing medical research.
