"ALL MEN ... and mistletoe" ... in the picture above, Bob Erlandson, left, brother-in-law of the bride; the Rev. David F. Barnett Jr., officiating minister, whose wife was pianist for the wedding; and to his right, the bride's father, join in a moment of holiday hilarity.

A BIG DAY ... for Diane Palmer, niece of the bride; she carried the two rings for her aunt and uncle-to-be, on a white satin pillow. Besides, she was the only attendant at the very private wedding. The three year old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Palmer (Joan McVey), is about to exchange a big hug with her aunt Donna.

HER PARENT'S HOME ... was chosen by Donna Jean McVey, youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A.V. McVey, Lakeshore Drive, as the setting for her marriage to Alfred Gallant, Redondo Beach, Calif. In a holiday setting, marriage vows were exchanged in a double-ring service, at 11 a.m., Dec. 27. The Rev. David F. Barnett Jr., of the First Presbyterian Church, was officiating minister. The bride and bridegroom, pictured above, after the ceremony, will be at home in Redondo Beach, after a trip to Squaw Valley, for skiing, and a few days in San Francisco and vicinity.

THE CHARM OF SIMPLICITY ... and the warmth of a fireplace setting, accented with gay holiday decorations, was the background for Donna Jean McVey's marriage to Alfred Gallant.

Only out of town guests were Mr. and Mrs. Neale Tviemo. Mrs. Tviemo is the former Patsy McMillan. She is a sorority sister of the bride's, where they were roommates and members of Alpha Chi Omega at Oregon State College. They also were classmates at KUHS.

The newlyweds met through mutual friends on Catalina Island; Donna on her boat; and Alfred on his sail boat. He is more than a waterfront sailor; has sailed his own boat twice through the Panama Canal; and is making plans to enter the Honolulu races in July. However, he makes his living on land in real estate.

MR. AND MRS. JACK MULHALL, AND SON, MARK ... from San Francisco, January 1st weekend guests of Dr. and Mrs. Richard Currin and family, 1940 Lawrence. The Mulhall's annual trip to Klamath Falls to usher in the New Year has, to old and new friends, become synonymous with seasonal celebration. While here, they were the inspiration for a number of informal dinners and holiday parties.
