DELTA KAPPA GAMMA SOCIETY

Alpha Chapter of Delta Kappa Gamma had their regular meeting Saturday, Jan. 3, at the home of Josephine Penrod, 1122 Lincoln. Dorothy Bailey, Mabel Humble and Ruth Lebaugh assisted Mrs. Penrod as hostesses in serving refreshments.

Secretary Helen Hoffman gave a report of club activities and called the roll of members, to which each answered with a resolution for the new year.

Dorothy Bailey, treasurer, gave a financial report of the chapter. President Mabel Humble conducted the business meeting, calling for committee reports.

Holiday Notes Of Moose Lodge

More than 200 guests were entertained at the gala Christmas party in the Moose Hall, Dec. 21, from 4 to 10 p.m. Santa Claus and "Merry" Christmas gave sacks of nuts, fruit and candy to the children. Pollock refreshments were served in the lounge, and two hours of movies were shown in the basement to the youngsters.

There were 66 served at the tasty and ample Mooseheart Alumni Breakfast New Year's Day.

A friendly welcome was extended to the many non-members attending.

A motion to have the breakfasts established on a monthly basis was made. All members of the Loyal Order of Moose and Women of the Moose are asked to express their opinions on the proposal; and are urged to phone suggestions to Mrs. George Cook, 3930.

The Loyal New Year's Frolic drew a capacity crowd Jan. 31. Noise-makers and confetti were passed out to the members and guests just before midnight.

A baked ham dinner was served to 65 members on New Year's Day. Tables were centered with arrangements of purple and silver, official colors of the Loyal Order of Moose; and a large '53 centered a leaf trestle.

Dancing Party

MERRILL—A group of young people were invited to the J. H. Degnan home Saturday, Dec. 27, for a post-Christmas evening of dancing and games. Host was James Degnan, home for the holidays from Bellarmine College Preparatory school in San Jose.
