Reds Battle In Italy

ROME (U.P.)—Fists and even the ballot box flew last night in an uproar in Italy's Chamber of Deputies during a bitter fight over proposed changes in the election law.

As the Chamber voted on preliminary amendments to the law, Communists and pro-Red Socialists ringed the ballot box into which pro-government deputies were trying to drop colored balls to signify their vote.

Amid exchanges of blows and insults, Communist Deputy Silvio Messinetti leaped to the voting table and hurled the ballot box into the air.

After order was restored, the president of the Chamber suspended Messinetti after five days. The session closed after midnight without reaching a vote on the government-backed bill's main provision, to give "bonus" seats in the Chamber to any party or bloc winning 51 per cent of the ballot in this year's national elections.

essor Says Remington Red

ORE (U.P.)—A Tulsa College professor says he and William Remington, former government economist on trial on perjury charges, attended Communist meetings in Tennessee in 1947.

Allen Bridgman, 41-year-old economics professor in Modesto, Calif., was prosecution witness last week at the start of the second Federal Court perjury charges.

Bridgman, 35, is accused of saying under oath at his trial two years ago that he gave government secrets to Remington. The indictment also charges he lied during his testimony that he never attended Communist meetings.

The professor said Remington was among persons he had identified as Communist party members in 1947 in Knoxville, Tennessee, and he said Remington was clerk for the Valley Authority.

He identified Remington as a witness stand, saying once a $10,000-a-year Communist economist, victim of perjury at his trial. He had been charged with denying before a federal jury that he had ever been a member of the Communist party.

A Circuit Court of Appeals decision on the original perjury charges, Gregory said, was too vague in de-
