CLAYTON HANNON ... Master Councilor De Molay ... crowns Jackie Hayden, this year's Sno-Ball Queen.

She is shown with her court of princesses and their escorts, during the coronation, highlight of the annual formal for active members and guests. From the left, Bill Matthews, Marlene Howard, David Cummings, Senior Councilor; Carole Adams, Clayton Hannon, Queen Jackie, Sharon Giesinger, David Maxwell, Devoice Kenyon and George Knight, Junior Councilor.

The club was beautifully decorated by the De Molay boys. Blue and white streamers were used lavishly ... and a large cotton snowball suspended from the ceiling was the center of attraction. Clayton Hannon headed the Sno-Ball committee assisted by David Cummings and George Knight.

Honored guests were members of the governing board of the club: Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Bishop, Mr. and Mrs. E. B. Brosterhouse, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Hall, Mr. and Mrs. Ed Robinson, Mr. and Mrs. Earl Weimer and Mr. and Mrs. Adolph Zensky.

Chaperones were: Mr. and Mrs. George Fawver, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Cummings, Mr. and Mrs. George Knight, Mr. and Mrs. Dexter Elliott, Dr. and Mrs. Marvin Nerse and Mr. and Mrs. Gus Vlahos.

Members of the De Molay Advisory Council, also chaperones, were: Mr. and Mrs. Charles Carlson, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Bonney, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Friedel, Mr. and Mrs. Milt Sessler, Mr. and Mrs. William D. Milne, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Tarr and Mr. and Mrs. Joe Thomas. Music for the evening was by Pete Colley.
