NAOMI SHRINE 5

The Material Objective Committee was honored at a stated meeting of Naomi Shrine, Order of the White Shrine of Jerusalem, held Tuesday evening, Jan. 6, 1953, at the Masonic Temple. Blanche Schulze, Worthy High Priestess, and James Hunter, Watchman of Shepherds, presided.

Following the business meeting, an original addendum was presented for the presiding officers by Floyd Waddell, Jack Metter and George Reiterath, the Three Wise Men, each bearing a gift, commemorating Twelfth Night on which date the meeting happened to fall.

The Material Objective Committee, composed of Blanche Marks, District Chairman, and John Larson, Beatrice Denison, and Floyd Waddell, of the local board were introduced, and complimented on their untiring effort on behalf of the Shrine's Charity work.

The temple was appropriately decorated in the winter theme with an ice pond in evidence and snow Mrs. The banquet room carried out the same decorations with the addition of a beautiful bouquet of red and white chrysanthemums centering the table.

Delicious refreshments were served by a committee with Nina Currier as Chairman, assisted by Geneva Swift, Myrtle Ackerman, Belle Johnson and Mary Barkdoll.

During the social hour the bank which accompanied the Shrine's Traveling Basket was opened and the contents counted. Through this project, a substantial sum was added to the Material Objective fund. An interesting "Quiz Program" was conducted by James Hunter, Watchman of Shepherds. Many and varied were the questions submitted and the answers given. Prizes were awarded Mr. and Mrs. Wallace Henry who were the two who guessed closest to the amount contained in the bank.

The next meeting of Naomi Shrine will be Friendship Night which will be held on Tuesday evening, Feb. 3. There will also be a Ceremonial.

Ft. Klamath WSCS Meeting

PORT KLAMATH—Mrs. William Brewer and Mrs. Bert Gray were hostesses Thursday afternoon, at the regular monthly meeting of Women's Society of Christian Service of the Methodist Church.

Original plans to meet at the Brewer home on the Darling-Brewer Ranch were changed because of snowdrifts on the road from the highway to the Brewer's. They met instead at the home of Mrs. Lloyd Nicholson on the Grater Lake Highway.

Mrs. Richard H. Wilson, president, conducted the business session. Final arrangements for extensive intramural decorating of the church were discussed. It was decided to order necessary materials immediately and Richard H. and Carl Wilson will start the carpentry work as soon as possible. The brothers have stipulated that their wages will be given to the church. Richard Wilson will contribute his part paid by the local WSCS, to the special fund for new church pews, while his brother Carl, requested that his earnings be given directly to the church treasury. They are both skilled workmen, and the church and community will benefit from their generous donation of time and money. Piles and knotty pine will be emphasized in the redecoration.

Two members of the group will take turns each month as janitors, to assure the church being clean at all times. Mrs. Brewer and Mrs. Eva Pritchett are volunteers for January with others offering their services for the following months.

Mrs. Paul Herron, member of the Chiloquin Methodist Church group, was guest speaker, and after the business meeting, gave an interesting talk on Africa.

Refreshments were served to the following: Mrs. Donald P. Veatch and daughters Ellen and Susie; Mrs. H. T. (Mike) Williams and daughter, Martha; Mrs. Frank Edwards, Mrs. James Van Wormer, Mrs. Richard H. Wilson, Mrs. Lloyd Nicholson and son Roger; Mrs. Raymond S. Lowery; Mrs. Eva Pritchett, Mrs. C. Ellery Echlin, Chiloquin, wife of the pastor of the local and Chiloquin Methodist Church; and Mrs. Paul Herron and small son.
