

... at the banquet in the Winema Hotel, organization meets monthly, and is a fast growing of the Klamath ranchers. Picture above shows Junior Farmers, their wives and guests who assembled to greet the incoming president, Leland Cheyne.

... the annual Benefit and Bridge and Tea, by the Klamath Falls Womens Library Club, has capacity crowd of Klamath Basin women. time much of the benefit fund went to a worth- out of this vicinity. Later, it came to the club's hat many cases of children needing tonsillectomies one to pay for them, were a local problem. Since ded from the Bridge and Tea have gone to the Case Benefit Fund, established by the Library Club that needy children of Klamath County might be given tonsillectomies as a preventive measure against rheumatic fever and allied diseases. Completing plans for this year's event, Saturday afternoon, Feb. 21, in the Willard Hotel, are committee members, shown above, front row, (l to r) Mrs. G.W. Nelson, Mrs. Jack Schulze and Mrs. George Roberts, tea chairman. Back row, Mrs. C. K. Wells, Mrs. Homer Ellis, Mrs. Richard Hessig and Mrs. Calvin Lamb, bridge chairman.

52 PARTY"

to the big "get to- by Marilyn Miller for Party" - said "There's a good time!"

up" covered more friends of '32-and before-Some were outgrown; some home Uncle Sam; a couple married; and some kids.

set up in the party W. D. Miller home was, in cabaret style "Club 52" sign prom- on the door, sup- ing another "Under New Manage- ment," cleverly Beverly Bells, danced under a season's new and candlelight in tallow-dripped bot- "fast touch."

How shows, dancing, a repeat of the same, of the evening. The as the buffet supper by Marilyn and Mrs. Harold Teale they Bells assisting.

included: Beverly Teale, Joan Owens, Dick, Barbara Solie, Mrs. Margaret Gerber, well, Mary Ellen Mc- Perkins, Janice Lar- Mitchell Lewis, Glenn Young and Virginia

aylord, Marola Mills, Sam Montgomery, Ar- Chick Quinowski, Sam, Bob Van Vactor, en, John Mason, Ned Marvin Nerseeth, Tom in Tockey, Bud Delleh, Ron Herahberger, and John Wilson.

Chemult

By VIRGINIA TAYLOR

Lynda Jean Jessup celebrated her second birthday anniversary with three little girl friends. Sunday, Dec. 28, Marie Galbreath, Mar- lyn Bourne and Bonnie Taylor were her guests. Party fare con- sisted of a beautifully decorated pink and white cake and ice cream with coffee for the mothers.

Mrs. Cap Jessup Sr., has been spending considerable time in Klamath Falls lately due to the serious illness of her father, Clark Everett of Homedale.

Mrs. George Epperson left Wed- nesday for Tacoma to be with her sister who was to have major surgery at St. Joseph's Hospital Thursday.

Several friends of Mrs. Delia Hol have heard from her. She is spend- ing the winter in Tucson, Arizona.

Other southern winter vacation- ers are Mr. and Mrs. Grady Gooch and son, Don, who returned from several weeks vacation in South- ern California and Mexico. The George Bournes also spent two weeks in the sunny southland and report they had a very enjoyable trip.

Mr. Don Jappert of Chemult is acting as assistant ski instructor at the Willamette Ski area. He as- sists Van Purdy of Eugene with the beginner classes. Jappert is an excellent skier and has spent several years instructing at Gov- ernment Camp. He is employed by Bend-Portland Freight lines and

WEDDING

ANNOUNCEMENTS

and Invitations

Engraved and Processed

VOIGHT'S PIONEER OFFICE SUPPLY

629 Main Phone 7412

* PICTURE FRAMING

Underwood's

CAMERA SHOP

706 Main St. Phone 7000

Formal Dance in Masonic Temple Follows Installation of Officers

Musical notes were used in the decorating theme in the Masonic Temple Dec. 30, when Sharon Gieger was named Honored Queen of Job's Daughters. Over the new queen's throne a beautiful sign inscribed "Harmony with Sharon".

Other than the princesses, above, with Honored Queen Sharon, the following new officers were in- stalled: Guide, Jackie Ackerman; Marshal, Nancy Warren; Chaplain, Trudy Bramlett; Treasurer, Vergie Toyle; Recorder, Joan Juckeland; Librarian, Denice Kenyon; Senior Custodian, Ann Pederson; and Junior Custodian, Mary Jane Lang- er.

Musician, Mary Ann Munsen; First Messenger, Dora Campbell; 2nd, 3rd, 4th, and 5th Messengers: La Rayne Weed, Elise Nitschlem, Judy Harnden and Virginia Martz. Inner and Outer Guards, Shirley Fox and Sandra Campbell.

Lady of the Light, Nell McFar- lan; Social Chairman, Sue Listoe; Assistant Recorder, Jackie Murphy; and Soloist, Rhonda Lambie.

Marlene Howard, installing Past Honored Queen, was assisted by Jean Owens, Guide; Barbara Cus- ter, Marshal; Beverly Young, Re- corder; Arlene Lungreen, Senior Custodian; Georgiana Clark, Junior Custodian; Jean Adams, Musician; and Jean Selby, Chaplain.

The impressive coronation was followed by an evening of dancing for the Job's daughters and their invited partners.

Jean Adams played a piano solo and also accompanied vocalist, Marvin Nerseeth.

Honored Queen Sharon was pre- sented with many gifts; and Past- ure Club member, Inez Kerron spoke briefly of Dr. Kerron's and her pending trip to the Canal Zone and Peru.

You needn't feel bound to look beautiful!

WARNER-WONDERFUL BRAS

More freedom-loving comfort than you've ever known!

Warner's* wonderful bras support you lightly and confidently with the liveliest stitches in bra-dom.

Nylons, cottons, sumptuous satins and elastics, incredibly beautiful strapless bras... there's a Warner-Wonderful bra made especially for you. Get yours today for the loveliest lift 'round your curves.

#2059 (Left) Warner's Million Dollar Hold-Up cotton broad- cloth and nylon marquisette strapless with padded wire and breathe-easy bones. White, A, B and C cups... $3.50

#1045 (Above) Warner's-own A'Lure* rayon satin elastic that stretches with you. Nylon mar- quisette cup tops. Soft nylon taf- feta undercup. White, A, B and C cups... $3.95

Miller's

Second Floor, MILLER'S