THEIR VERSION OF THE DINNER BELL—These two hungry hippopotami just know it is time for their food to be coming to them at the Naples, Italy, Zoo. They are not hesitant about making their feelings known as they let loose with full-throated roars in an effort to prod along the errant keeper with their daily supply of hay and vegetables.

BETWEEN ROCKS AND DEEP—The Finnish ship Margarita is pounded by rough seas after running aground on the Alisa Craig rocks at the mouth of the Clyde River in Scotland. All aboard were saved and nearly a week passed before the ship could be refloated.

GIFTS FOR THE PONTIFF—Pope Pius XII smiles at two doves perched on a finger of each hand during an audience at Vatican City. The birds were presented to him by children and members of the Third Order of St. Francis.

OUT FOR A TURN ON THE ICE—Three Dutch maidens from the fishing village of Volendam are dressed in their quaint traditional hooded costumes as they go skating together on a frozen lake in the vicinity of their village.

VISUALIZING FUTURE CITY—Venezuelan officials look over model of one of the country's latest projects, University City in Caracas, already 88 percent built. In foreground is University City Hospital and other buildings, including stadia, are part of campus.
