

Director Held On Vice Rap

HOLLYWOOD (AP) — A Hollywood casting director, Maurice Golden, 52, has been booked on a procuring charge. He was arrested yesterday by vice squad officers.

They also took Eleanor Welgoss, 25, into custody on the same charge and said they were searching for two other young women. Sgt. Robert E. Byron and Detectives R. K. Norris and R. L. Newsteiter, who made the arrests, said they seized 300 pictures of movie starlets and bit players and four address books in Golden's office. They said the books contain names and telephone numbers of many film personalities.

The officers said Norris went to Golden's office to make a date with a girl and that Golden gave him the name of Miss Welgoss.

Works on State of Union Speech; Studies Problem of Defense Secretary

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Eisenhower's legislative program, including the defense bill, will be the main focus of his State of the Union speech to Congress on Tuesday.

After witnessing the swearing-in of the eight other Cabinet officers, Eisenhower had a quiet dinner at the White House with his wife and family members who came to Washington for the inauguration.

Although he got only five hours of sleep before turning up at his desk at 8 o'clock yesterday morning, he remarked cheerily near the end of the day that he wasn't tired.

"I feel fine," he told a reporter who got in a question after another swearing-in ceremony at the White House. That one gave official status to seven aides on Eisenhower's personal staff, including his top assistant, former Gov. Sherman Adams of New Hampshire.

The ceremony for the aides gave newsmen their first chance to see the new President behind his desk. He looked as chipper as he said he felt, and the desk in the green-tinted oval office had been cleared of the many mementos and souvenirs which crowded it when Harry S. Truman was president.

There was one reminder of Truman in plain sight, however—a slim, leather-bound volume inscribed in gilt letters, "Building America's Health." That is the title of a report recently made by a commission Truman appointed to study the nation's health problems.

On the surface, the White House yesterday looked pretty much the same place it was under the Democrats. There are new faces, yes, but the routine of business appeared to go on in the familiar way.

So did the social life. Mrs. Eisenhower, even before she had had time to explore the White House thoroughly, held a reception for 300 Republican women leaders.

The President had callers too, but not the many Governors Dan Thornton of Colorado and Walter Kohler Jr. of Wisconsin, for example, came in for fried chicken lunch.

...and Mrs. Eisenhower's diary, destined to consist of reports from the Cabinet members, had been decided to come also to head the department. Mrs. Eisenhower's diary, however, had been decided to come also to head the department.
