ILLITERACY ELIMINATION
 TAIPEH, Formosa (AP)—Plans to wipe out illiteracy in Formosa during the next five years have been announced by the Chinese Nationalist government. Chen Hsueh-ping, provincial education chief, declared that in the past few years 360,000 illiterates on the island had been taught to read and write. They represented more than 25 per cent of Formosa's 1,400,000 illiterates.

Palm Springs Test Point For Telemeter TV System

By BOB THOMAS
 PALM SPRINGS, Calif. (AP)—Television came to Palm Springs last election night. The event may have as far-reaching an effect in show business as the Republican victory had in politics.

This desert resort is the guinea pig for a new gadget that could revolutionize the movie and TV business. It's called Telemeter. It has been hailed by many leaders in the film industry as the way to make new movies pay off royally on TV.

How? By having people pay to see the pictures the same way many pay for electricity; putting a coin in a meter.

The Telemeter people needed a locality to prove to doubting Thomases that their device could work. They also needed evidence to support their case before the FCC, which controls the use of the air for broadcasting.

So Palm Springs was chosen. It had been out of the TV picture due to topography. Nestled at the foot of towering Mt. Jacinto, the town was hidden from the unbending waves of the seven Los Angeles TV stations.

Missing Mail Mystery Over

MIAMI, Fla. (AP)—For three years, strange antics of the U. S. mail caused sleepless nights for Ernest Overstreet, Dade County tax collector.

Hundreds of taxpayers complained that they had sent in checks, money orders and currency which were never received. Hundreds of outgoing letters never reached their destination.

"The disappearance of mail had been driving me nuts for three years," Overstreet said. "I couldn't sleep nights, because of the yelling of the taxpayers."

The mystery was solved yesterday.

Postal inspectors arrested Charles W. Lewis, 32-year-old mail clerk in Overstreet's office, and said he admitted taking "thousands of letters over a three year period.

Many of the letters contained checks and money orders, Overstreet said, but Lewis apparently made no effort to cash them, taking only currency.

The actual money loss, he said, wasn't large.

"I believe the largest was $20," he said, "but all those people—and many were poor—had to pay again."

"We've been averaging 150 complaints a year from people who said they had sent us money orders and 400 a year from persons who said they had mailed checks."

Thieves Raid Actress' Home

BEVERLY HILLS (AP)—Actress Arlene Judge reported to police that her home was ransacked yesterday by five robbers, one a girl, and that they took diamonds and jewelry she valued at $10,000.

"But I talked them out of taking $30,000 worth of furs and a $6,000 sapphire ring," Miss Judge told officers.

"They were very sweet," said the actress, who has been married and divorced six times. "I felt as safe as if I were in the arms of a 10-year-old girl. I answered a knock on the door, they rushed in and went to work. They seemed to know exactly where to look for what they wanted."

"I told them I could wear false jewels on my television appearances but I needed the coats and if they took them they'd put me out of work."

Riot Leader Gets Term

JACKSON, Mich. (AP)—Earl Surly, 28-year-old leader of last April's rioting at Southern Michigan prison, yesterday was convicted of kidnaping a guard during the costly million-dollar riot.

A jury convicted Ward after less than two hours deliberation.

Judge Harry D. Boardman sentenced Ward to serve a 20-30 year term for the abduction of guard Frank Hinton.

Ward actually will serve only four years of the sentence. Judge Boardman directed the new term to be served concurrently with Ward's present 15-30 year term for armed robbery.

Before Judge Boardman pronounced the term, Ward blurted out: "Don't use no discretion. Give me life."

Old Calendar Now in Use

BUFFALO, N. Y. (AP)—Edward Jerzewski, chairman of the Board of Assessors of suburban Cheektowaga, is a man who likes to save time.

Eleven years ago, someone gave him a calendar. But he never got around to using it.

The calendar is perched on his desk now, perfectly usable.

Jerzewski gleefully points out that the dates this year are the same as in 1942.

Creeks Seek $29 Million

ATMORE, Ala. (AP)—Fifteen hundred members of the Creek Indian nation held a pow-wow here last night to reaffirm their loyalty to the great white father in Washington and to seek 29 million dollars from the federal government.

Calvin W. McOhee, head of the Council of the Creek Nation and an Atmore farmer, presented a progress report on the Indians' claim for payment for 23,267,000 acres of land in Alabama, Mississippi and Georgia.

The Indians contend the land was taken from them after they were defeated by Gen. Andrew Jackson in the War of 1812.

Agar Nabbed On Drunk Rap

LOS ANGELES (AP)—Arrested a fourth time on a drunk-driving charge, actor John Agar faces a court appearance today for another alleged offense—violation of probation.

Terms of a previous drunk-driving conviction for which he served 90 days at the county honor farm in 1951, specified that he should not drive a car during a three-year probation period.

Agar, 31, divorced husband of former actress Shirley Temple, went to jail twice yesterday.

The first time was after his arrest early in the day on charges of drunk driving and driving with a suspended operator's license.

A friend, film producer Hal R. Makellm, posted $1,500 bail. The actor pleaded innocent to both counts and asked a jury trial which was set for Feb. 4.

As he was about to leave the Santa Monica court, he was re-arrested for alleged violation of probation. His attorney obtained his release from the West Los Angeles jail on a writ of habeas corpus and bail of $500.

Agar's present wife, Loretta, and his mother, Mrs. Lillian Agar, were in the Santa Monica court at his arraignment. His wife said he left their home Wednesday night to take their French poodle, Rag Mop, for a walk.

The actor told officers he visited a friend in Malibu and was returning home when arrested.

Actor Brasselle Has 'Eyes' For

By ERMKINE JOHNSON
 HOLLYWOOD — (NEA)—Ecclesiastically Yours — Now it's a nurse maid for Eddie Cantor's eyes!

A registered nurse, no less, who is in charge of the contact lenses with the built-in brown "Cantor eyes" which help transform blue-eyed Keeffe Brasselle into the pop-eyed singing comedian.

Keeffe slips the plastic lenses on and off Eddie in "The Eddie Cantor Story," and Warner Bros. hired Nurse Mary Boles to combat possible infection and to supervise the delicate operation.

Larry Parks looked like himself for the Johnson films, but Keeffe's giving the Cantor role the Cantor look.

The rolling eyes, the mannerisms, the phrasing of his talk, the hairline and even the scar on Cantor's forehead (received as a kid in a street fight) are all there.

And it's all jundantly with Keeffe, who isn't worried about being typed as Cantor.

"People won't look at me for the rest of my life and say, 'There goes Eddie Cantor,' because there's only one Cantor. After the picture I can go back to being Keeffe Brasselle."

Movie theme songs are on the way back and Producer Alex Gottlieb, who hops on the bandwagon with a title song for "The Blue Gardenia," is predicting the public is in for an epidemic of twin movie and song titles.

He's hoping, though, that there won't be a repeat of the theme-song craze of the late '30s, when a theme song beginning, "Woman Disputed, I love you," was written for a picture titled "Woman Disputed."

"They made a joke of theme songs in those days and the titles didn't justify the songs," he protested. "It must be a beautiful title and the song must mean something in the picture. Otherwise it's a dragged-in thing."

Rod Cameron, who parted with an ulcer that threatened his life, is convalescing at home. But no more action epics for Rod for many, many months.
