Chile Government Rupture Seen

Bank Prexy Faces Charge

PITTSBURGH (AP)—Ludwig R. Schiek, the quiet, graying 41-year-old former bank president who embezzled $60,000 in bank funds to finance his rise from cashier to president, goes to Federal Court Friday to learn his fate.

The former president of the Pennsylvania National Bank at nearby New Kensington yesterday pleaded guilty to charges of embezzlement but told Judge Wallace F. Gourley, "I never used any of the money for myself."

Schiek, dignified in appearance, spoke quietly when he told the judge how he began in 1936 to dip into the bank's funds to cover up bad loans and then increased the amount until he had accumulated $225,000, enough to buy a controlling interest in the bank.

He faces a maximum sentence of 45 years and a fine of $45,000.

Reds Building Arctic Action

OSLO, Norway (AP)—The Independent newspaper Morgenposten reported Tuesday that Soviet air and naval forces are intensifying activity north of the Arctic Circle and that Russia now has at least 900 warplanes stationed at 50 bases bordering Norway and Finland.

The military correspondent of the paper quoted Allied sources as the basis for his report.

Russian planes including MIG-15 jet fighters, he wrote, are operating from bases located as close as 15 miles to Norway's northern frontier on the Kola Peninsula.

The report said also the Soviets were building up their Arctic naval force, with main bases located at the White Sea ports of Molotovsk and Arkhangelsk.
