Youth Confesses Texas Killing

LUBBOCK, Tex. (AP)—Walter H. Whitaker kissed the mother of his missing girl friend goodby three days after Joyce Fern White, 18, was slain, the family said.

Whitaker, 20-year-old pre-flight student at Lackland Air Force Base in San Antonio, is charged with murder in the high school senior's death.

Members of her family told reporters the Hartford, Conn., youth spent with them much of the three days following Joyce Fern's disappearance.

Whitaker led officers on a grisly dawn trip onto the prairie west of here yesterday and pointed to the shallow grave where the attractive girl's nude body was buried. Clothes she wore when she disappeared from her Lubbock home the night of Jan. 8 were buried 100 yards away.

The day after the girl disappeared, her family told officers yesterday, "Whit" visited her home, ate dinner, and helped with the dishes. Two days after the killing he spent the night with Joyce Fern's brother in Olton. And three days after she was brutally strangled with a Venetian blind cord, he came by the family residence and kissed Mrs. Lena B. White, the girl's mother, goodby as he was leaving for San Antonio.

Whitaker, member of a well-to-do family, led officers, including Texas Rangers, to the grave 9¼ miles west of here after a day and night of questioning. He took a spade from an officer and uncovered the body himself.

He was placed in the Bexar County Jail at San Antonio last night while arrangements were being made to transfer him from military custody to civilian control.

Sheriff Grady Harrist and Ranger Raymond Waters said Whitaker made an oral statement in which he told them the attractive girl was strangled after a quarrel over another girl.

"There was another girl involved whom I loved more than Joyce," Whitaker was quoted as saying.

The officers said the "other girl" was a Swiss exchange student who lived for a while in the Whitaker home at Wethersfield, Hartford suburb. Harrist said the youth told them she had returned to Switzerland. They did not know her name.

Dist. Atty. Travis Shelton said an autopsy showed the girl had died of strangulation. He said she had not been raped.

Harrist said the boy told him he got the girl from her home the night of Jan. 8 on the pretense of driving to New Mexico to get married.

Committee Mulls T-H

WASHINGTON (AP) — Chairman McConnell (R-Pa) said today the House Labor Committee is keeping an open mind on possible changes in the Taft-Hartley law until it completes an extensive hearing.

With the hearing set to get under way Feb. 10, McConnell said there are "no bills, no amendments, nothing to which we are wed."

"We'll let the hearings determine that. When they are ended, the committee will endeavor to write a bill based on the testimony."

Sessions are expected to continue for at least two months, possibly longer.

Sen. Taft (R-Ohio), a co-author of the labor-management relations law, has introduced five bills proposing 16 changes in it. The bills are up for consideration by the Senate Labor Committee, expected to begin hearings before March 1.

McConnell said he expects the House hearings to deal mainly with the sections of the law which cover the National Labor Relations Board, unfair labor practices, the non-Communist oath requirement, union elections and national emergencies.

Texan to Try To Rope Pipe

ABOARD A MOTOR VESSEL, in the Gulf of Mexico, (AP)—A Texan prepared today to try to slip a steel lasso over the top of two burning gas wells in a ticklish move to control the roaring multi-million-dollar blaze.

Myron Kinley, a specialist in putting out oil and gas well fires, will try to catch a T-shaped pipe sticking up from the wells and snap it off.

If the pipe is snapped properly, the flames will be directed skyward instead of spewing out each end of the crossbar. Then Kinely's assistant, Mansel Rake of Houston, will place a dynamite charge near the well and set it off, hoping it will blow out the spurting flames.

Church Ad Draws Crowd

WAMPSVILLE, N. Y. (AP)—Elders of the Presbyterian church say they didn't insert that attendance-pulling advertisement in a newspaper last week—but they'd like to thank whoever did.

The plea, appearing in the classified section of the Oneida Daily Dispatch, said:

"Wanted, men, women and children to sit in slightly used pews, Sunday morning; Wampsville Presbyterian Church."

A spokesman, who asked that his name not be used, said attendance jumped from 12 two weeks ago to 36 last Sunday.

Communists Cut Sugar Supply

VIENNA, Austria (AP) — Communist Czechoslovakia's spreading food shortage forced a new cut today in the nation's sugar ration.

Radio Prague announced that the average adult now will get about one pound monthly.

Signals For Large Dog

NEW ULM, Minn. (AP)—Limey, a 70-pound English bulldog, is being controlled by a semaphore system these days.

Owned by Mrs. R. A. Schmucker, Limey became so boisterous recently he brought death to his playmate Augustus, a cat belonging to Clifford Fering, a neighbor.

When the Ferings replaced Augustus with a labrador pup named King, there were misgivings that Limey might start tossing his fatal weight around again. So the two families worked out the signal ritual.

When the bulldog leaves the house, Mrs. Schmucker puts a sign in the window reading "Limey out." King stays in. And vice versa for the Ferings' dog. So far, the system has worked so well neither pet has seen the other.

Bandit Works Before Crowd

NEW YORK (AP) — Broadway crowds paid no attention to the man working in the window of the jewelry store.

What the crowds didn't know was that the window stripper was a robber, with a pal inside Murray Bricks' store.

Bricks, held up and bound by the pair, watched helplessly as the window "trimmer" removed between $5,000 and $10,000 worth of gems. The bandits also left with $370 in cash.
