

FATHER READS SERVICE FOR MARRIAGE TO LEROY GIENGER

ESCORTED BY her brother-in-law, Forrest Froid, the bride approaches the altar, where she was given in marriage by her mother, Mrs. J. L. Buck, to Leroy Gienger.

THE BRIDE . . . and those who served her at her wedding and reception. Little flower girl, Candace Froid, 4, daughter of her mother, Mrs. Forrest Froid, far right, matron of honor, holding mirror for her sister.

Standing in back, from the left, Mrs. Earl Hall, who was acting hostess at the reception given by bride's sister, Juanita (Mrs. Forrest Froid); Erlene Buck, also sister, and bridesmaid; Margaret Grosser, who poured at the reception; Joanne Bronger, Louise Goffler, candlelighters; and Mrs. Glen Kircher, sister of the bridegroom, who cut the cake.

THE NEW MR. AND MRS. LEROY GIENGER . . . during "after-the-ceremony" felicitations from the officiating minister, the Rev. J. L. Buck, who is also the bride's father. He read the double-ring service in the Chiloquin Methodist Church last Sunday at 1 p.m. The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Leroy A. J. Gienger, Chiloquin, well known Klamath Basin family.

MRS. BUCK . . . mother of the bride, adjusts her daughter's veil before the ceremony.

NO TIME TO LOSE . . . the newlyweds flee the shower of rice as they leave for their honeymoon.

MRS. GERALD WOLFF . . . gives her camera a rest while she signs the guest book. Mrs. Dwight Kircher, who registered the wedding guests, is at her right. Mrs. Wolff is known to Herald and News readers as Darlene Wolff, Chiloquin correspondent.

MARJORIE SMITH WEDS JACK BROWN ST. PAUL'S EPISCOPAL CHURCH

by Milly Ramsby

A CANDLELIGHT CEREMONY . . . in late December united Marjorie Smith and Jack Brown in marriage. The wedding was a culmination of a romance which started on our local college campus at OTI, where both are students. The bridegroom is one of OTI's star football players; matriculating from Banks High School, Banks, Oregon.

. . . and her grandfather, Mr. R. W. Smith, long-time known local business man.

LEAVING THE RECEPTION . . . held in the Winona Hotel. After a wedding trip to San Francisco, they are at home on the OTI campus while they complete their last year.

WITH THEIR PARENTS . . . the new Mr. and Mrs. Brown are shown after the Rev. Nelson Onsted read the 3 p.m. Episcopal service. Mr. and Mrs. William R. Smith, 2801 Montana, bride's parents, at left; Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Denham, Banks, Oregon, parents of the bridegroom, at the right.

AT HER PARENTS' HOME . . . the attractive bride poses before her wedding in St. Paul's.
