REFLECTIONS FROM

Milly's Mirror

WE MENTIONED—in last week's paper that Susanne Ney (the new Mrs. Bill Southwell) had an interesting background of living with her parents in various parts of the British Empire—and now we add more information to illuminate that sketchy statement—She was born in Nairobi-Kenya Colony-Africa where her father—R. O. Ney—a retired British army officer—has two coffee and sugar plantations—her first school years were spent in England—and at the outbreak of the war in 1939—she returned to Africa—Threatened Italian occupation there forced their evacuation to Canada in 1940—her mother is the daughter of Sir James Aikens—who was the founder of the Canadian Bar Association—and governor of Manitoba for 8 years—from Africa to England—from England to Africa—from Africa to Canada in 1940—adds up to quite some miles on the map for a young gal.

NO DOUBT—our Washington DC correspondent is home by now, hiding in a closet licking her inaugural wounds—Even with the way paved smoothly—with the "right" seats and the easiest way to get to them—the terrific crush and crowded program of "MUSTS" would challenge anyone's stamina—so-o-o—if I don't hear from Josephine or Oscar Kiltredge for a long time—I'll understand—if the NY shows didn't get 'em—maybe they went BACK to DC—and got lost in the Pentagon—agon—and agon.

NO MATTER—HOW much you huff and puff in this cooler climate—you won't disturb your more fortunate friends—who are sipping up ole Sol in the south—A recent communique from Arizona—reported 80 in the shade—and 114 in the sun—so there goes my wish that the Dutchers would flounder through a foot of snow on the level (in sun-suits)—Marita writes that she'll be glad to cool off—in KP!!

C. H. and MRS. (Major) Underwood, 320 N. 7th.—back from SF Tuesday—after about 10 days in the Bay Area—They went down to see son George off on USS Princeton for Korea—via Honolulu harbor—George is with Weather Control Aerology—Headquarters for the Underwoods was the Californian—and Mr. Jean, who is with the White House in SF—stayed with them to catch up on visitin'—They were happy to see Mrs. W. O. (Lena) Smith—and-of course—Mrs. J. A. Gordon—who has been a resident at the Californian for many years—Mary—George's wife will be at their same address in San Diego—while George is on sea duty.

LARRY (Buster) BROWN—DID go to Portland THIS weekend—and wife Amy went with—(We aim to be accurate).

PERHAPS—Perhaps—it COULD have been worse—but I DOUBT it!—In the hurried excitement—of squeezing the announcement of the arrival of Paul Dalton Gates
