HAROLD GALARNEAU, communications technician in the U.S. Navy for the past five years has been visiting here with his sister, Mrs. Toby O'Keefe of the Merrill Highway. With his wife and nine months old son, he flew here from Puerto Rico. He has served also in North Africa. Galarneau, son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Mike Galarneau, pioneer residents of Merrill, reports to Washington, D.C. and from there will fly with his family to Naples, Italy where he will serve at staff headquarters with the 6th fleet. He will be eligible for discharge in 1957.

Chiang Mum On War Plans

TAIPEH, Formosa (AP)—Generalissimo Chiang Kai-shek tonight hailed President Eisenhower's decision to lift the ban on Nationalist operations against the Red mainland as "not only judicious but militarily and morally sound."

In a formal statement, however, Chiang gave no hint of any impending action against the Communists.

He said his own plan of action will "necessarily form an important link in the general plan of the free world to combat worldwide communism."

He said the Nationalists will not ask ground forces of other nations to help "achieve our own goal—the liberation of China. China has never made such an appeal, nor has China ever cherished such illusions."

The leader of free China said he had opposed the shackles imposed on his forces by the U. S. Seventh Fleet ever since the Chinese Reds intervened in the Korean War in November, 1950.

"During the past two years," he asserted, "Soviet Russia and the puppet Peking regime have stepped up their aggressive actions and have thus made themselves and the common enemy of the United Nations. It is time that we react to both in principle and in fact. ... limitation on the operations of our armed forces should no longer be allowed to continue."

Prisoner Digs For Surprise

SALEM (AP)—A city jail prisoner worked hours Sunday to dig a hole through the jail wall, but he fell into the arms of city and county officers when he crawled out.

George Elmer Butler, 19, emerged onto a filing cabinet in the adjoining fire department. The officers had discovered his escape attempt while he was digging the hole with pieces of metal he had wrenched from his bed.

The hole went through two feet of brick, mortar and plaster.

AFL Lowers Boom; ILU Gets Order

MIAMI BEACH, Fla. (AP)—The AFL Executive Council is determined to order its crime-infested longshoremen's union to purge itself of waterfront racketeers — or get out of the AFL.

This edict was not quite ready for public announcement but there was little doubt that angered union members meant business.

Some top AFL officials expressed doubt privately whether Joseph P. Ryan, longshoremen's president, would be able to cleanse the New York and Jersey waterfront of scandals and gangster tactics attributed to some officials of his 60,000-man union before the AFL convention next fall.

In New York, an insurgent group of longshore leaders made it plain they would not be satisfied with any "phony reform program" by present bosses of the International Longshoremen's Association.

The insurgents said in a telegram yesterday to George Meany, AFL president, that "the present discredited ILA leadership" could not be relied on to clean up waterfront corruption. At the same time they offered to turn over additional information on the dock situation to New York investigators.

The ILA secretary-treasurer, Harry Haas, has been here several days seeking to convince the council that Ryan can be depended on to make his own waterfront cleanup.

Officials of about a dozen longshoremen's local unions along the world's biggest waterfront have been linked by the New York State Crime Commission to extortion and other dockside rackets which

Women Get Life For Spying

PUSAN, Korea (AP)—Three attractive Korean women have been convicted of spying for the Communists and two of them were sentenced to life imprisonment, the South Korean government said today.

The public information office said the women, all in their twenties, were convicted of passing military secrets to the North Korean Communists through Red guerrillas.

They were arrested last fall with twelve other women in a roundup of a spy ring.

Malayan Troops May Go To Korea

SINGAPORE (AP)—Jubilant at President Eisenhower's new policy toward Formosa, pro-Chiang Kai-shek Chinese leaders in this British colony announced today they would seek government permission to send Malayan volunteer groups for any invasion of the China mainland.

These leaders, members of one of the largest colonies of overseas Chinese, said they planned Malaya wide celebrations keyed to the slogan, "A return to Shanghai in three months."

NEW INDUSTRY
MEXICO CITY (AP)—Mexico, which has imported most of its firearms and ammunition in the past from the United States, is reported planning to manufacture many of its own weapons of war in the future.

Jap Boss Sees Early War End

TOKYO (AP)—Prime Minister Shigeru Yoshida told the Japanese Diet today that he believed the Korean War would "come to an end since the United States is making every effort to write it off as soon as possible."

The statement was in answer to floor questions as to his reaction to President Eisenhower's State of the Union message to the U. S. Congress.

Yoshida said he believed Japan could steer clear of the Korean War but pledged that his government would continue to try to get back from Russia "the Kuriles and other islands."

KU Students Get NW Honor

Eleven Klamath Union High School music students have been selected to receive intensive training under nationally known conductors in the All-Northwest band, orchestra and chorus.

Rehearsals will be held in conjunction with the convention of the Music Educators National Association and will start Mar. 18, continuing until Mar. 21. This training will be climaxed with two concerts which will be presented before the music educators on Saturday afternoon and for the townspeople in the evening.

The convention will be in Beltingham, Wash.

Members chosen in Klamath Falls are: orchestra — Florence Lampropoulos, violin; band — Don Hall, alto clarinet, Oliver Jones, baritone, George Vlahos, clarinet; chorus — Joan Meador Ann Henderson, Ruby Gehring, Doug Pence, Ronnie Branniff, Bill Davenport, Bill Matthews.

The orchestra of 150 pieces chosen from the states of Oregon, Washington, Idaho, Montana, and Wyoming, will be conducted by the well known California orchestra conductor, Fred Ohendorf. The 200 piece band by Ray Dvorak, director of bands, University of Wisconsin, and the chorus of 300 voices will be directed by Archie N. Jones, dean of the School of Fine Arts, University of Texas.

Students are chosen on recommendation of their music directors and the principal of the high school. The a cappella choir from KUHHS will also go to the convention to give a concert May 21.

Morse Seeks Adoption OK

WASHINGTON (AP)—A young Baker, Ore., infantry lieutenant and his wife would be permitted to complete adoption of a three-year-old Eurasian girl and bring her to this country under terms of a bill introduced by Sen. Morse (Ind.-Ore.).

They are Lt. and Mrs. Andrew Dickson, now stationed in Japan but expecting to return to the United States when his tour of duty ends this July.

In introducing the bill, Morse urged that it be given early consideration. He said Dickson was to have returned to this country in January but obtained an extension so that he and his wife might stay with the child, Kikue Tsurukawa.

The Dicksons have three other children, all boys—ranging in age from three to nine years.

IN LINE
TAIPEH (AP)—U. S. Minister Karl L. Rankin appears certain to be named U. S. ambassador to Nationalist China when the necessary formalities are cleared.

For 1953... None so New as Pinin Farina's Latest Masterpiece

Most Beautiful Cars of Our Time

There's none so new as Nash! That's the enthusiastic verdict of millions who have seen and admired the new 1953 Nash Ambassador and Statesman Airflytes.

See and drive them—you'll agree.

You'll see none so new in beauty. No other with these swift, clean continental lines. No other with the glamour of Pinin Farina styling. No other with so wide a windshield or rear window.

You'll drive none so new in performance. No other but the Nash Ambassador offers a Super Jetfire engine, plus the new custom-power option, the "Le Mans" Dual Jetfire engine... and a new kind of Power Steering. In the Statesman there's a new Powerflyte engine.

There's none so new in comfort. No other with seats so wide, both front and rear. No other with Airliner Reclining Seats, Twin Beds, or Weather Eye Conditioned Air System.

In your next car get the best, the newest in motoring. See your Nash dealer and drive the world's most beautiful, most modern cars—the new 1953 Airflytes.
