WALL STREET

NEW YORK (AP)—A selling wave hit the stock market Thursday and backed down prices sharply by as much as 1 to 3 points.

The ticker tape fell as much as three minutes behind in reporting actual transactions from the floor of the exchange.

Trading amounted to an estimated two million shares. That compares with 1,660,000 shares traded Wednesday. It was the first two million share day in a month.

Grains

CHICAGO GRAIN
CHICAGO (AP)—Wheat showed flashes of independent strength on the board of trade Thursday while other cereals sold below their previous close most of the time.

Wheat was off with other grains at the start, but buying developed when it appeared overnight rains in parts of the winter wheat belt had not been heavy or widespread. The grain was helped by moderate export business.

Both March and May corn dipped into new seasonal low territory at one time. They came back quickly, however, when their slump failed to touch off any heavy liquidation.

Wheat closed 1/4-1 3/4 higher, March 2.28-2.28 3/4, corn 1/2 lower to 3/4 higher, March 1.58 1/4-1 1/2, oats 1/2 higher, March 79 3/4-1 1/2, soybeans 1/4 lower to 1/2 higher, March 2.91 1/2-2.91 1/2, and 17 to 17 cents a hundred pounds higher, March 8.92.

Taylor Speaks To Korea Troops

KWANGJU, Korea (AP)—Li Gen. Maxwell D. Taylor told a class of South Korean artillery officers Thursday, "learn how to shoot straight and hard for bigger battles in the north—I will see you there."

The general, speaking deep in South Korea, did not indicate how far north he meant.

The Eighth Army commander-designate spent more than two hours visiting South Korean infantry, armored, artillery, signal and light aircraft training schools.

"This looks like very fine training—I am much impressed," Taylor said.

He visited one of the ROK army's big basic infantry training centers on Cheju Island in the morning.

Irish Buy Khan's Horse for Fortune

CANNES, France (AP)—The Aga Khan has sold his famous horse Tulyar for 250,000 pounds ($700,000)—the highest price ever paid for a thoroughbred in Britain—his secretary announced Thursday.

The purchaser in the deal completed two days ago was the Irish national stud. If Tulyar is kept in training this season he will race under the colors of President Sean T. O'Kelly, to whom all Irish National stud horses are leased.

Atomic Aide Murder Victim

NEW YORK (AP)—An aide to an atomic scientist was mysteriously stabbed to death with an icepick Wednesday night, but the scientist said Thursday he doubted that the slaying had any connection with the atomic energy work.

The victim, James Doyle, about 55, was found in a hallway of a residential building with the pick still protruding from his heart.

He was employed as a clerk and helper to Dr. John B. Dunning, dean of the Columbia University school of engineering, at Columbia's physics laboratory.

Dunning was the first atomic scientist to go to work on the "Manhattan Project" that developed the A-bomb.

The motive for the murder was unknown. Police doubted robbery was involved. Doyle's pockets contained 48 cents.

Injured Man Still Unconscious

LEBANON (AP)—A man injured when the car in which he was riding was smashed by a log from a passing truck 8 1/2 months ago still is unconscious.

The man, Wilmar Greer, 54, is at home here under the care of his wife, a registered nurse. He underwent brain surgery after the accident but remained unconscious. He left the hospital five months ago.

The accident May 20 killed Oliver D. Goodwin, 22, Lebanon, but William Cooper, another passenger, escaped injury when he was thrown clear.

Since Greer has been unconscious he has passed his 54th birthday, acquired a new son-in-law and three grandchildren. His weight has dropped from 137 to 75 pounds.
