Public Land To Be Sold

The Bureau of Land Management announced today at Portland that 49,315,000 board feet of O&C and public domain timber in 24 tracts, appraised at $655,703.80 will be offered at February sales.

Roscoe E. Bell, regional administrator of the bureau, said that two tracts of stumpage would be put on the market by oral bids at Salem on Feb. 16. This will include 1,600,000 board feet of O & C and 430,000 board feet of public domain timber. Also on Feb. 16, the Medford district forester will invite bids on O & C stumpage. Two tracts with 7,745,000 board feet will be offered by sealed bids and one tract of 2,225,000 board feet by oral bid.

Cooz Bay will offer three tracts with 2,290,000 board feet Feb. 17; two tracts by oral and one by sealed bids. A total of 6,215,000 board feet will be offered at Roseburg Feb. 18; three tracts by oral bids and one tract by sealed bid. Eugene is offering five tracts totaling 8,785,000 board feet by oral bid on Feb. 19.

Public domain timber sales will be held at Spokane, Portland, and Bend Feb. 24. The district forester at Spokane will invite sealed bids for one tract which cruised 1,773,000 board feet, including 2255 linear feet of Western Red Cedar poles. The sale at Portland, in the office of the regional administrator, will be for two small tracts with 905,000 board feet. The timber is located in Whatcom and Skamania Counties, Wash. Both tracts will be offered by oral bids. Three tracts with 2,347,000 board feet which include 945 cords of Lodgepole Pine, will be offered by the district forester at Bend, by oral bid.

Bell reports that six parcels of O & C timber totalling 6,990,000 board feet were sold for $156,963.25 during January, which was five percent above the appraised value. Successful bidders were as follows: Fred Lemery, Blachly, Oregon; Jenkins & Pancake, Veneta; Cabax Mills, Grants Pass; Irwin-Lyons Lumber Co., North Bend; Emil Belcher, Myrtle Point; Richard J. McCarthy, Cooz Bay.

Gov. Thornton Pays Off Bet

SALT LAKE CITY (AP)—As a janitor, Utahans agreed Friday Colorado Gov. Dan Thornton is a good actor.

Thornton came to Salt Lake City Thursday to pay off an election bet with Utah Gov. J. Bracken Lee. Utah had a better turnout at the polls for the last general election, so Thornton had to bet a day's janitor for a day.

Despite the fact Thornton was supplied with the most modern janitorial tools, and a caddy to carry them, he was scolded by Lee's first lady, Mrs. Lee, for sweeping dirt under the carpet in Gov. Lee's office.

And he left behind a woefully unmade bed in his hotel room and a pile of burning trash near the capitol building.

Thornton arrived on a special train. He brought a bag of Colorado air which he said was for use in the "Utah smog," he also brought Colorado made hops.

Valley Rivers Threaten Floods

PORTLAND (AP)—Western Oregon rivers will be sensitive to heavy rains in the next few days, forecasters reported Thursday. Many streams in the middle valley are running bank-full.

Eugene in the upper valley had a level of 6 feet in the Willamette Thursday morning, and was falling. But, said forecasters Elmer Fisher, an inch or an inch and a half of rain on the valley floor and a somewhat greater amount in the mountains could bring it up to flood stage of 12 feet again.

In the Corvallis-Albany area the river was at flood stage Thursday. No damage was in immediate prospect though, Fisher said.

Power Company Meeting Slated

NEW YORK (AP)—A committee of Puget Sound Power and Light Company stockholders are planning a meeting in New York Friday to consider sale or merger proposals.

The Washington Water Power Company of Spokane, Wash., has made two separate offers for Puget Sound.

The most recent would give Puget stockholders their choice of either $27 per share cash or one share of Washington Water Power common in exchange for each share of Puget stock.

Elizabeth Ends Year As Queen

LONDON (AP)—Cannons boomed royal salutes at sunny Hyde Park and London Tower Friday to mark the end of the first year's reign for Queen Elizabeth II.

In many other ways Britons demonstrated their fidelity to 26-year-old Queen. Flags were unfurled, the troops paraded and the press was filled with laudatory references to the young sovereign who is expected to preside over an Elizabethan era of enterprise and adventure.

The queen didn't hear the salutes. She was at Sandringham, in Norfolk, where her father, King George VI, died one year ago.

She was making the most of the final days of a long holiday before her return to London and coronation duties this year.

The Queen and her husband, the Duke of Edinburgh, attended a private celebration of holy communion, motoring in cold but bright weather from Sandringham House to the little parish church where her father lay in state a year ago.

FBI Chief Asks Better Police Pay

WASHINGTON (AP)—J. Edgar Hoover spoke up today for better pay for policemen, saying "cut-rate law enforcement will not work."

The FBI director, in an article in the bureau's monthly law enforcement bulletin, said: "One factor which undoubtedly contributes to the prosperity of the criminal element is a police pay scale too low to maintain law enforcement forces at full strength."

"Unwillingness to provide proper remuneration for the intelligence and effort required in the performance of modern police duties is a form of cut-rate law enforcement and it will not work."

"The logical result is a bigger crime bill in the form of murders, robberies and all the other manifold ways in which crime can be expensive..."

Korean War Activity Drops Off

SEOUL (AP)—The Korean War ground to a virtual standstill today as snow and low-hanging clouds covered the war-torn peninsula.

The U. S. Eighth Army reported only light patrol activity.

U. S. Sabre jets were the only Allied warplanes aloft today. Pilots reported no contact with Communist MIGs in murky skies over far Northwest Korea.

Last night, 10 B29 Superforts from Okinawa plastered 100 tons of bombs on the Taeyu troop center 35 miles east of the Suho Reservoir on the northwest border of Manchuria.

Crewmen reported Communist night fighter planes made five no-firing passes at the B29s.

A U. S. Fifth Air Force spokesman said F94B all-weather jet fighters—with radical radar equipment which guides the plane to its target—chased Communist planes in North Korea last night. But the Reds streaked for home without a fight.

The planes are equipped with fantastic radar and electronics devices. These "lock" on target aircraft and guide the jet in unerring pursuit. Guns are aimed and fired automatically.

Almost always the first glimpse the jet crew has of Red aircraft is the trail of flame as it plunges earthward.

The Marine air wing and the Fifth Air Force yesterday took the security wraps off their deadly night fighters. Both services have been using them in combat in North Korea since November.

The Marine jet is the Douglas F3 Skyknight, a twin-jet that can fly faster than the speed of sound.

The Air Force model is the Lockheed F94B Starfire, powered by a single Allison jet engine with an after-burner which gives it tremendous added thrust in an emergency.

Slide Puts Families Out

PORTLAND (AP)—Eight homes and an apartment in Southwest Portland were evacuated Thursday night after a slide roared down a steep, wooded hillside.

Residents of the area were sent running into the streets by the mass of dirt that ripped up trees and vines as it moved down the 150-foot slope.

There was no damage to homes and no one was hurt, although debris was piled up in the yards of three homes. Firemen and policemen ordered the evacuation on S. W. Corbett Avenue and S. W. View Point Terrace because of the danger of additional slides.

The hillside was owned by R. G. Garrett, a building contractor who said he had planned to build three homes there. The slide changed his plans. He previously had built a home for his son-in-law, B. R. Gillaspie, above the slide area. The Gillaspies were among those evacuated.

Recent heavy rains have caused a number of lesser slides in the city.

BPA Slates Radio Work

EUGENE (AP)—The Bonneville Power Administration will soon begin construction of a microwave radio communications system between Vancouver, Wash., and Eugene.

W. E. Trommerhausen, Eugene, manager of the southwest area for BPA, said bids were called this week for construction of part of the system which is expected to cost $450,000 when completed.

A chain of high-voltage towers will be constructed to support curved metal discs 10 feet in diameter. They will be spaced about 34 miles apart to furnish line-of-sight transmitters for microwave impulses.

Trommerhausen said the system will furnish BPA with a swift method of controlling its vast power transmission system which reaches down through Western Oregon almost to the California border.

Six Tapped for Top School Places

SCHENECTADY, N. Y. (AP)—The June graduating class of Draper High School in suburban Rotterdam will have three valedictorians and three salutatorians.

Richard Jony, Shirley Maitz and Mary Lee White tied for top standing with four-year averages of 94 per cent each. Ronald Cline, Carol Jorgensen and Cartha Kriebel each had 93 per cent.

Bishop Sheen, Lucille Ball Win Top TV Academy Awards

By BOB THOMAS

HOLLYWOOD (AP)—A Catholic churchman, Bishop Fulton J. Sheen, and red-haired comedienne Lucille Ball today held the top honors of the Television Academy.

Bishop Sheen, whose religious talks have become popular television events, was chosen over such professional entertainers as Arthur Godfrey and Donald O'Connor and one non-pro, Adlai Stevenson.

It was a radiant evening for Miss Ball, only three weeks ago she became the most famous mother of the year by giving birth to Desi Arnaz IV, coinciding with the birth of a son on her TV show. Last night the Academy's 400 members voted her the top comedienne of 1952. Her show, "I Love Lucy," was also named the best situation comedy program.

"Gee, Desi, we got it!" she exclaimed to her husband and costar, Desi Arnaz. He planted a kiss on her cheek as the 1,500 TV prominent cheered.

The TV Academy voted Jimmy Durante the best comedian of the year. He did not attend the gala dinner at the Statler Hotel. He is in Florida for a Miami night club date.

Bishop Sheen was also absent. His gold statuette was accepted by Msgr. A. J. Brouwers, local official of the Society for the Propagation of the Faith, which Bishop Sheen heads.

Stage and screen veterans Helen Hayes and Thomas Mitchell were named the best actress and actor. Both have also won movie Academy Oscars for film performances.

"Your Show of Shows," starring Sid Caesar and Imogene Coca, drew honors as the best variety program. Tight-lipped Jack Webb accepted an award for his "Dragnet," named the best adventure program. Other presentations:

- Best dramatic program—"Robert Montgomery Presents."
- Best public affairs program—"See It Now."
- Best audience participation, quiz or panel program—"What's My Line?"
- Best children's program—"Time for Beary."
