

House Throws Veil Secrecy Around Plans Defense Of Formosa

By RAY

What will the Air Force do to defend Formosa?

That was the question asked by a group of high-ranking military officials at a meeting in the State Department last night.

The meeting was held in the State Department and was attended by several high-ranking military officials, including the Chief of Staff, General Omar Bradley, and the Joint Chiefs of Staff.

Dope Addict Case Gives Damages

SANTA FE, N. M. (AP)—A District Court jury last night awarded $12,500 damages to Joseph S. Coe and his wife, Jean, who sued Dr. Charles A. Behney and the Los Alamos Medical Center on grounds Mrs. Coe had become a morphine addict under Dr. Behney's care.

The judgment by the jury of 10 men and two women was against Behney. The jury found in favor of the medical center.

The Coes, who now lived in Manhattan Beach, Calif., sought $200,000.

Mrs. Coe was cured of the addiction in a California hospital.

Trumans Are Touched By Reception

INDEPENDENCE, Mo. (AP)—Harry S. Truman, who spent nearly eight experience-packed years as president, choked with emotion last night at the end of a talk to a home-town audience and said: "There never is and never can be anything like coming back home."

The former President spoke at a family-style homecoming dinner attended by 650 neighbors and friends.

Truman expressed thanks for the warmth with which he had been received since his return.

Until his concluding remark, the ex-President had devoted most of his brief talk to a folksy review of his 30 years in politics and early life in this Western Missouri town of 40,000.

He mentioned his decision, which was announced in March of 1952, not to seek re-election.

"My mind was made up in 1950," he said. "I don't believe there has been any president or presidential candidate, outside of Lincoln, that has been as thoroughly vilified as I have. But I came through it all without any scars."

The 68-year-old former President said that on his train trip home last month after turning over the presidency on Jan. 1 to Republican Dwight D. Eisenhower, he and Mrs. Truman were surprised at the size and good will of the crowds along the way.

Truman also referred to his 1948 presidential campaign when he defeated Thomas Dewey, the New York governor.

"Some thought they could do a better job than I could," he said. "I don't have a doubt in the world that those who were telling the people they could do a job better than we were might have been telling the truth. The only trouble was they never got the chance."

Mrs. Truman and daughter Margaret also were honored at the dinner.

Truman, in mentioning his return to Independence last month after nearly eight turbulent years in the White House, said Mrs.

Truman expressed his feelings as well as anyone could. She said of their welcome home: "This is the payoff. This makes it worth everything we have been through."
